

Evacuation

Evacuation of our spiritual soul into eternity

Because gone we will all be bodily

Memories spit from the grave

Shake the foundation of existence

Interpret dreams of being

Cannot surpass life

Bottled up within yourself

Screaming explodes from within

Scattered ashes tossed around

Remnants of you

Jump out and live again

Flowing life through your entire body

Don't stop till we have no choice

Because it's not our call

The bell summons us

We do not answer the door

Death finds a way
