

Fourth Of July

Girl on a bicycle with an American flag shirt on Caught my full attention
The red white and blue on a two lane road
With not much traffic in Iowa
These huge fabulous grayish bins ready for their corn crop are scattered
Among acres and acres of neatly grown farmland
An old rusty colored dog peacefully entertains himself
A brown and a black horse relax in the pasture on this sunny day
The white foamy clouds bounce off the bluish sky
With some grey clouds trying to steal the scenery extending to the beyond
Shiny brown cows caught my attention
A home is a home is a home for everyone
We thank all who came before us and gave us a home
