

Geography

Where does it take you

The in and out of life

How did you get there

Where you meant to be there

You struggle for answers

Could I be someplace else

Would it make a difference

The geography of my life

Did I really want it

How did fate play the game

Could I stop my direction

Did I play along

Questions dissolve to answers

Hidden from my realm

Speculating goes nowhere really

I know that I am only here, now !

Take it from there
