

Hi

I want to say hi

But I don't know how

It's been a long while

Since we went around

What can I say?

To ease the barrier

That has grown

Along through time

We are not strangers

But how should we act?

Should I put on a performance?

Or act my own self

Time does bring changes

For today is different

We are no longer

At ease with ourselves

It was another time
