

Jousting

Dedicated to Mike

Breezy cool winds scattering

Leaves off the trees

Listening to the medieval players

Enchanting us with their splendid performances

After the knights have jousted

In different tournaments

Outfits fitting them so well

As they defended their honor of knighthood

Music is very relaxing

As the audience congregates on the grass around

Intensely they watch the play

Thunder is rocking this scene

Soon we will all scatter to the tents

As lightning storms and the rain heads on
