Summary of the Report on Teaching-Learning Experience at Kashi Sahu College Seraikella

This report summarizes the feedback received from students at Kashi Sahu College Seraikella regarding their teaching-learning experience. Here's a breakdown of the observations and suggestions for improvement:

Observations:

- Infrastructure: Lack of proper facilities like restrooms, canteen, and a designated space for parking bicycles and motorcycles.
- Transportation: No bus service for students, creating difficulties commuting to the college.
- Faculty: Inadequacy in the number of teachers in some departments.
- Learning Resources: Limited access to books and practical equipment in some programs.
- Teaching Methods: Need for improvement in incorporating technology and interactive methods in classrooms.
- Communication: Scope for better communication between teachers and students.
- Disciplinary Environment: Requirement for a stricter disciplinary environment to promote regular class attendance.

- Course Offerings: Shortage of teachers in all subjects except commerce.

Suggestions:

- Implement a bus service for students to address commuting issues.
- Enhance the infrastructure by constructing restrooms, a canteen, and a designated parking area for bicycles and motorcycles.
- Recruit more teachers to address faculty shortage.
- Provide better access to books and practical equipment for all programs.
- Encourage teachers to incorporate technology and interactive methods in their teaching styles.
- Foster better communication channels between teachers and students.
- Enforce stricter disciplinary measures to ensure regular class attendance.
- Address the subject-specific teacher shortage

Overall, the feedback highlights a need for improvement in infrastructure, transportation, faculty availability, communication, and teaching methods. By addressing these concerns, Kashi Sahu College Seraikella can create a more conducive and enriching learning environment for its students.
