

Tina Payne is a TX native but FL raised woman who was introduced to the love of music and dance at an early age from her parents who always had both in the house. Later Tina would learn the technical parts of music taking piano lessons then playing the flute from the 6th grade to her senior year in high school. Tina is an alumni of Ducan U. Fletcher (Class of 2000) where in her junior year of high school, she joined the colorguard then became a charter member of Teal Sound Drum & Bugle Corps. as a colorguard member. Marching a total of five years, Tina ultimately aged out with Teal Sound in 2003. Winter seasons were spent with Ancient City Ensemble in 2002 then transitioned to Paradigm Winterguard where she marching from 2003 - 2005.

Tina has also been involved with several local band and colorguard programs such as Bartram Trail H.S, Sandalwood H.S, Fletcher H.S and Epic focusing on flag and body techniques. Tina currently works in the mortgage industry operating from within her house which allows her time to spend time with her supportive husband, Herb, and her 2 girls, Lydia Rose and Lois Reagan. When not participating in any performing arts, you can find Tina with her family & friends and often can be seen at a Jacksonville Jaguars game. Tina is passionate about arts and crafts, using "please" and "thank you" whenever possible and making sure she leads as a positive example for her kids.

AUGUSTINA MONTOYA PAYNE

