

As a youth, LaTim King got his first Colorguard experience with Teal Sound Drum and Bugle Corps where he received a bronze medal in 2007. From there, LaTim went on to become a cast member of Orlando Visual out of Orlando, FL in 2014. He later became a cast member of Etude Winterguard out of Rock Hill, SC in 2017. LaTim has been an educator since 2006 and has taught at all levels from beginner to World Class Organizations such as, Ware County High School, Bartram Trail High School, The District Independent, Jacksonville University Independent, Etude Winterguard, Islands High School, and he has been the proud Colorguard Director at Effingham County High School since 2019. LaTim is a South Georgia native that loves giving back to his students through the art of Colorguard.

