Symphony No. 6, in F Major, Op. 68 Pastoral 1st Mvmt. - Ludwig van Beethoven

The Symphony No. 6 was completed in 1808. This first Movement is placid and cheerful, depicting the composer's feelings as he arrives in the country. A lover of nature, Beethoven said that the Sixth Symphony is "more the expression of feeling than painting."

Somewhere in Time - John Barry & B.A. Robertson, arr. by C. Custer

The soundtrack for the 1980 movie Somewhere in Time, starring Christopher Reeve and Jane Seymour, is considered to be among the best of John Barry's career. This piece invokes a deeply emotional pull, making it a favorite for weddings with its haunting melody.

Symphonic Dances from Fiddler on the Roof - Jerry Bock, arr. by Ira Hearshen

From the landmark Broadway, this arrangement includes marvelous dance sequences with unique ethnic styles, from the rousing To Life and Tradition to the tender Chava Sequence and Perchik and Hodel Dance to the signature Wedding Dance (Bottle Dance).

Boléro - Maurice Ravel, arr. by D. Andrew

Originally composed as a ballet, Boléro is Ravel's most famous musical composition and it was a sensational success when it premiered at the Paris Opéra, November 1928. Ravel had long toyed with the idea of building a composition from a single theme, which would grow through harmonic and instrumental ingenuity.

Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring
- Howard Shore, arr. by J. Whitney

The epic film "The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring" has been heralded as a milestone in filmmaking and is destined to become a classic. The powerful movie music aptly conveys sweeping vistas and dramatic battle scenes that come to life in the film. Howard Shore's music for The Lord of the Rings has become one of the most popular motion picture scores in history.

Clair de Lune
- Claude Debussy, arr. by Andre Caplet

Clair de Lune is treasured for its ethereal beauty and sense of mystery. The well-known title, meaning, "moonlight," was added shortly before its publication in 1905 as the third movement of a four-part work called Suite Bergamasque. Clair de Lune comes from a poem of the same name, published in 1869, by the Symbolist poet Paul Verlaine.

Waltz No. 2 – Second Waltz
- Dmitri Shostakovich

Composed as part of Shostakovich's Suite for Variety Orchestra – Waltz No. 2 is one of the composer's most famous works. The suite was composed post-1956, and was subsequently used as part of the soundtrack for the Russian film, The First Elechon, and a recording was also used in Kubrick's 1999 movie soundtrack for Eyes Wide Shut.
