

WHO KNOWS THE ANSWER

Having wondered from time to time how some of the Identifications in our Catalogue get such differing initials from their users, we wonder whether someone would search out these anomalies and come up with the answers.

A few examples are quoted below and we should be happy to hear from anyone who can provide answers.

- c) Similarly, who are BD (cat No. 191.1) whose letter heading or envelope flap obviously showed 'IMPERIAL CHEMICAL INDUSTRIES, DYESTUFFS DIVISION' also of Manchester?

WHO KNOWS THE ANSWER?

Not many members seemed to be able to help with the queries posed in our last issue but the information which was forthcoming is as follows, acknowledgement of the source is given at the end of each paragraph.

- c) BD - British Dyestuffs Corporation (Blackley) Limited was first registered as Levinstein Limited in 1895. Its name was changed to the above in 1912. It became part of British Dyestuffs Corporation Limited in December 1923, then I.C.I. (Dyestuffs) Limited in 1940 and Imperial Chemical Industries Limited in 1952.
