

Possible Additional Identifications

Willem Smetsers (L-101)

After 5 days return to
SWARTCHILD & COMPANY
 99 E. Madison St.
 CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

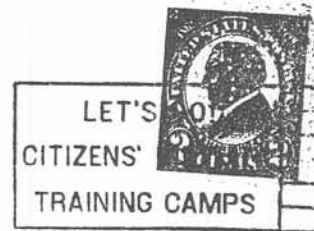

Via S.S. Europa

Here are two possible identifications that may identify or clarify additional users of these patterns.

The first is perfin pattern S-14. This 1932 cover shows Swartchild & Company, 99 E. Madison Street, Chicago, IL.

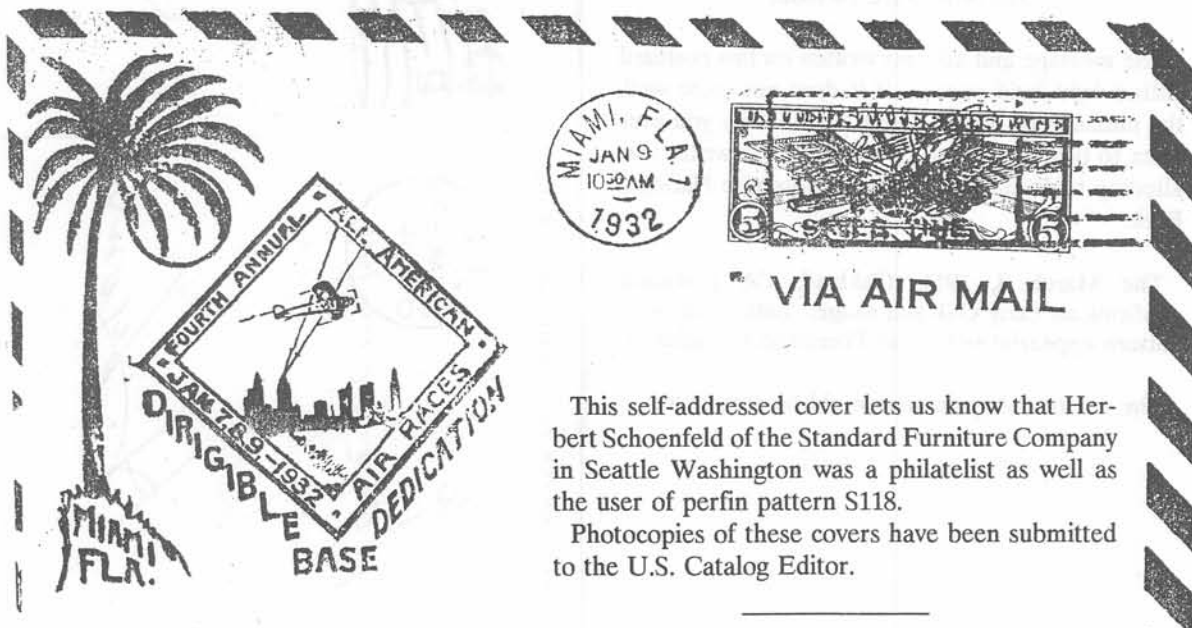

DENVER PUBLIC SCHOOLS
 BUSINESS OFFICE
 DENVER, COLORADO
 414-14th. Street

Burroughs Adding Machine Company

This cover addressed to the Burroughs Adding Machine Company has a Denver Public Schools return address which might be a better listing for the user of perfin pattern S368.

This self-addressed cover lets us know that Herbert Schoenfeld of the Standard Furniture Company in Seattle Washington was a philatelist as well as the user of perfin pattern S118.

Photocopies of these covers have been submitted to the U.S. Catalog Editor.