

EARLY USE OF PERFORATION

By P. J. Butcher

The illustrated cover is perforated through stamp and cover with a complex punch whose design is not clear. The envelope carries the identity "Little Malbern Court" and is dated 10th August 1876. It is back stamped "Edinburgh/Carlisle Sorting Tender".

Has anyone any ideas about this item?

(Editor: All replies to this article sent c/o myself will be sent to Mr. Butcher).

Little Malbern Court

PUNCH
THROUGH STAMP &
ENVELOPE

The business of
The Royal Bank of Scotland
St Andrew's Square
Edinburgh.

Backstamp - Edin/Carlisle Sorting Tender

D
10 Aug.
76