

Members often ask me about catalogues of other countries. Although as Perfin Society Catalogue Editor I have no direct association with overseas catalogue I thought it would be useful to compile a list of published catalogues. Not all those listed are still available and many are not in the library, but you may be able to find one if you require.

The list does not include handbooks of United Kingdom specialist listings (that is to be published in our next issue...Editor), but if anyone has any information regarding any other national catalogue let us know at the editorial address and we will publish a supplement.
