S0009.01      S                      9                      4½

Additional user:

2. Ø Sanderson Fabrics,
Uxbridge, Middlesex.

Note: Identity suspected from a loose stamp postmarked Reading - the same postmark as seen on "S" (S0009.02). Die in use 1935-1957. The precise connection hasn't yet been established, but it must be that Sandersons and John Line & Sons Ltd were somehow connected, presumably the wallpaper side of their businesses.

{Cover pmk 6 APR/1935, London SW1}.
Die in use 1932-1939.

M3910.01a      MM/B                      13,13/15                      5½

- Ø Milk Marketing Board,
Thames House, Millbank, London SW1.

Note: M3910.01/01a are two, very similar, "MM/B" 'POKO' dies, each fitted to its own POKO Affixing machine. The only real difference between the two is that M3910.01a has a noticeably concave bottom to the "B". Both appear to have been use throughout the same time period, 1932-1939.

B2420.01      B.E.C°      15,10,8,6      4½      Ø      Barnett, Ellis & Co,
Share & Stockbrokers, 18 Finch Lane, London EC.

Note: Identity suspected from loose stamps with the London 'Diamond' (Chief Office) postmark. Die in use 1871-1872. Although the partnership between Barnett & Ellis was dissolved in 1864 the company continued trading under the name of 'Barnett, Ellis & Co'. They are still listed in the 1873 directory (compiled in 1872) but are not in the 1877 directory. There is an announcement in the London Gazette that Robert Barnett died in April 1872 which presumably marked the end of the company.

Douglas Martin & Partners,
Estate Agents, 18 Central Circus, Hendon,
London NW4.

Note: Identity comes from a private letter sent by 'Rotarian' Douglas Martin to the President of the Rotary Club, New York, USA. The cover is postmarked Hendon - NW4, 28 APR 1941. The 1d issue 'F' originally attributed to D3110.02a is now regarded as suspicious (it's probably an example of the somewhat similar "DM" (D3110.02) and has been deleted, giving a c1941 die in use date range.
