Ihr Lieben, die Nachricht in getrigter Morgenzeitung, dass
Dr. Nienmeyer von Essen einer der Insassen des vermissten Ballon Miesley wäre, brachte mich in große Sorge um ihn und Euch. Wie groß war nun meine Freude, als am Abend Victor's glückliche Rettung und Landung in Schottland berichtet wurde. Ich konnte Euch sofort deponieren. Ein Versuch, den blutdürstigen auf seiner Durchreise in London zu treffen, deren Kunde ich mir nach d. Zeitung ausrechnete, schlug leider fehl. Nun habt Ihr ihn wohl gesund und wohlbehalten wieder bei Euch.
Gott sei Dank für seine Vorsehung und Bewahrung! In inniger Teilnahme Eure getreuen Hans u. Isabella

DEAR SIR,

I am requested by the Loan Committee to acknowledge receipt of the Deposit of £ 2.2.0 paid by you to this Office, in respect of your application for a loan from this Company, which shall receive immediate attention.

This deposit is accepted on the following terms:—

- (a.) If the loan be granted, it will be applied towards payment of the charge referred to in the Loan Prospectus to cover legal and survey expenses.
- (b.) If the loan be declined the balance of the deposit, if any, after deducting the Company's usual charge for survey, and travelling expenses, will be returned to the proposed borrower.
- (c.) If an offer be made by the Company, and is accepted, and the Solicitors of the Company instructed to proceed with the legal work, and through any cause the loan subsequently falls through, the balance of the deposit, after payment of the Surveyor's fee, if any, will be forfeited.

Yours truly,

W. W. BENHAM,

Loan Manager.
