羊代表著坦率、純潔和勇敢。土族婚禮中，男方必須贈予女方父親一只白羊，以替代女子所送的家。同時，羊象徵著女子出嫁後大福大壽、生活愉快。

At the Chinese Tribal wedding, the groom gives a female goat to his parents in law as a symbolic companion replacement for their daughter. It symbolises good nature, nobleness, gentleness and purity – all the qualities of a good Chinese daughter.

Advice of Delivery of an INLAND REGISTERED Letter
(Insert Letter or Packet)

On His Majesty's Service.

To THE TOWN CLERK,
12 QUEENS ROAD,
WIMBLEDON,

AR

* The names and full addresses of the addressee and sender should be carefully inserted by the sender (or at the sending office) in spaces (1) and (2) respectively. In (2) the address to which the result of the enquiry is to be sent should be similarly entered.

1 When the form is filled up at the time of registration, the designation of the office of posting and the registration number as given on the registration label must be inserted in the space at the head of the form, but the space for the name of the office of posting and the date of posting need not be filled in. When, however, the form is filled up subsequently, the registration number, the name of the office of posting and the date of posting must be inserted.

2 When the form is received at the Office of Delivery at the same time as the postal packet to which it relates, the certificate (4) should be completed only if the recipient objects to complete and sign the acknowledgment (3), or if for any other reason his signature is unobtainable. When, however, the form is received after the postal packet has been delivered, part (3) should be left incomplete and part (4) should be completed, after reference to the delivery records, by the Postmaster or other officer dealing with such forms.

3 If the postal packet is officially re-directed, or is re-directed at the address and at once handed back to the postman, the address in space (2) need not be struck out and the new address inserted. When the packet is returned direct to the sender, the address in space (1) must be similarly struck out and the reason for the non-delivery of the packet noted on the form.

4 When this form does not accompany the postal packet to which it refers, particulars of the mail in which the packet was forwarded to the next office should be given in space (2), and the form, folded in three and gummed, forwarded direct to the office of delivery (5). If the form is held at an Office other than that at which the packet was posted, it must be forwarded to the Office of posting in order that the counterfoils of the certificates of posting may be noted and particulars of despatch of the packet furnished.

5 When the form is completed it should be folded in three, and, after being gummed, returned to the address shown at (5).

AR On His Majesty's Service.
