DEAR SIR,

I am requested by the Loan Committee to acknowledge receipt of the Deposit of £ 2.2.0 paid by you to this Office, in respect of your application for a loan from this Company, which shall receive immediate attention.

This deposit is accepted on the following terms:—

- (a.) If the loan be granted, it will be applied towards payment of the charge referred to in the Loan Prospectus to cover legal and survey expenses.
- (b.) If the loan be declined the balance of the deposit, if any, after deducting the Company's usual charge for survey, and travelling expenses, will be returned to the proposed borrower.
- (c.) If an offer be made by the Company, and is accepted, and the Solicitors of the Company instructed to proceed with the legal work, and through any cause the loan subsequently falls through, the balance of the deposit, after payment of the Surveyor's fee, if any, will be forfeited.

Yours truly,

W. W. BENHAM,

Loan Manager.
