

Zlata Alavardo – Bark’s In Style

Congratulations Top Gun Zlata Alavardo and to the team at Bark’s In Style!

Zlata Alavardo, you and your company are hereby recognized as a Top Gun cook County dog and cat groomer by the County Advisory Board.

Top
Guns are recognized as people whose skills and services go above and beyond the call of duty to make their local communities and counties a better place to call home.

Zlata is the owner of Bark’s In Style, a full-service dog and cat groomer located in Arlington Heights. They are one of the few groomers in the area with the care and skill to offer cat grooming, while also providing a one-stop-shop for all your dog grooming needs. Bark's in Style has a open floor plan where animals can look around and smell their surroundings without fear, giving a comfortable and friendly feel to the grooming experience. Zlata knows how important it is for animals to have a good experience during their grooming, and Bark's in Style is set up to facilitate this.

Zlata is a professional who has spent her life working with animals. From big grooming stores to working with veterinarians, Zlata saw the good and the bad side of animal care. She knew she could provide a unique experience to her customers pets and decided to open her own business. Almost overnight, Bark's in Style has become a leader in the grooming industry. They are known for providing their animals with with high-quality products, a gentle but experienced handling, and fair pricing.

The cities, towns and communities of Cook County are expanded by commerce. Some individuals leap into entrepreneurship taking on risks, working long hours, and adding their creativity. Business owners, like Zlata, are responsible for their business success, staff and customer satisfaction.

These individuals, like Zlata Alavardo and their businesses, are the foundation of a stable economy.

The County Advisory Board encourages consumers to shop local whenever possible! Looking for a passionate and skilled groomer? Please give Bark's In Style an opportunity to win your business.
