

How to submit a Project or Manuscript

First of all, thank you for reaching out to Blue Handle Publishing. Use this one-page guide and checklist to aid you in your submission. Remember, we get countless entries to review, which means the best way to stand out is to have this process polished and presentable.

We use this format to make it simple for all and level the playing field (we feel) for all writers and all works. We offer an array of services, coaching and need to know where you are in the process. This will help us gauge all levels.

How to submit a manuscript to us:

Email submissions@bhpubs.com and cc: Charles@bluehandlepublishing.com

At the top, put the answer to the above questions in bullet format.

Then in the body of the email, respond to these items.

1. Summarize your work in 350-500 words (no more, no less)
2. Send the first fifteen pages of your book in word format.
 - a. Attached to email
3. Write a 250+ word original piece on waking up in the morning.
 - a. It's a simple, fresh take on writing style. Allows us to judge writing style versus content and see if we can manage the two.
4. We believe in Branding authors
 - a. Pic a color, an animal, and a random picture that you feel describes you.
 - i. This is just for us to get to know you a bit better.
 - ii. For example – A professor who wrote a book on climate change.
 1. Might say, Orange, Whale and a picture of water.
