Remembering Don English

The Town of Trappe is saddened to hear of the passing of Charles Donald English. Don passed away on November 13, 2022, at the age of 81.

Don served on the Town Council, Planning Commission, and other Town boards for many years. He attended every Town meeting, even when he wasn't on the board, and was always willing to help in any way possible.

Don was a member of the Trappe Volunteer Fire Company for over 50 years. He held almost every line/administrative officer position and was inducted into various associations' hall of fames.

Don was an integral part of the Town of Trappe and he will be greatly missed.
