

The Gift-Giving Gal Who Knows A Guy

Parenthood Prayer

Oh Lord You are Our Father. Our Redeemer from Everlasting Is Your Name. The precedent You have set for Parenthood is our pleasure to follow. As we partner in this journey with You, build our house so that we labor not in vain. Let our children indeed be a heritage from The Lord, the fruit of our womb be a reward to You. Set our children as arrows in the hands of a warrior, letting our quivers be full of them. May we raise them in the way they should go so that when they are old, they will not depart from it. Allow our children to understand obedience to Your principles out of love rather than obligation so that when they are confronted with a choice of worldly pleasures, they choose eternal life with The Lord Jesus Christ. Let us lead by example each day raising our children with Agape Love at the foundation and Godly Wisdom throughout the journey. Provide us with Your most Holy discernment over the affairs of our household and technologies that emerge. For we know from Solomon's wisdom that there is nothing new under the sun, only the recycled schemes of the enemy to tempt our children into ungodly submission and actions. Let us be sealed in the Blood of the New Covenant of Jesus Christ so that when we speak a Word over our child, their identity, purpose, and means, it comes to pass. Let there be an ease in the transition from parenthood to friendship as the years pass on, that there will always be a trust for our children in our counsel and a release of control into their hands as they gain every good thing in this world and eternity for Your Glory, Father God. Let us steward this privilege of parenthood for Your Kingdom purpose only. In Jesus Name, AMEN.
