

The Gift-Giving Gal Who Knows A Guy

Husband Prayer

Adonai, in Your Lordship, bless my role as a husband to one wife. Let Your Holy Spirit guide me in being trustworthy, devoted to noble tasks, above reproach, temperate and self-controlled, respectable, not given to drunkenness, violence, quarrels or a lover of money. But instead, help me to pursue Your wisdom, substance, and generational wealth. Let me be a teacher of Your Most Holy Word in casual conversations as well as public forums. Let me lead from a place of honor that glorifies Your Son and my Savior Jesus Christ. Let Your Light shine through me and before all men, so that the good works You do through my hands will glorify You, My Father in Heaven. Jehovah Jireh, My Provider, draw the talents You have placed within me to the outside, plant them, allow my wife first – then appropriate, God-ordained laborers – to partner and produce a harvest from these seeds. Send the water of Your Word through me to sanctify, cleanse and present her as glorious, holy and blameless - without stain or wrinkle – loving, nourishing, and cherishing her body as my own. Let nothing ever hinder a prayer that I say on her behalf, lavishing her with lovingkindness. El Shaddai, God Almighty, allow me every strength of mind, body and soul, to protect my wife and the family we create together. Let me be wise in Your eyes, willing in Your Spirit, and worthy to call upon Your Word on their behalf in the Courts of Heaven. Let the Blood of Jesus speak better things than the blood of Abel as it cleanses our family lineage and advocates for every legal right of the allowing any scheme of the enemy to be null and void for this generation and generations to come. I stand in my role in the Name of Christ Jesus, AMEN.