Homer Animal Friends is once again providing free vaccines on July 14th. They also donate numerous bags of food throughout the year to HCFP. Your generousity makes us all want to howl in appreciation!

Live Rhubarb Rendezvous benefit auction this Saturday, the 12th at Grace Ridge Brewery, 6:00! Please come and support HCFP! LOTS of fabulous things!*

Homer Fish Processing will process fish that you want to donate to the pantry for free! 1302 Ocean Drive. Just say it's for the pantry! FISH ON!*

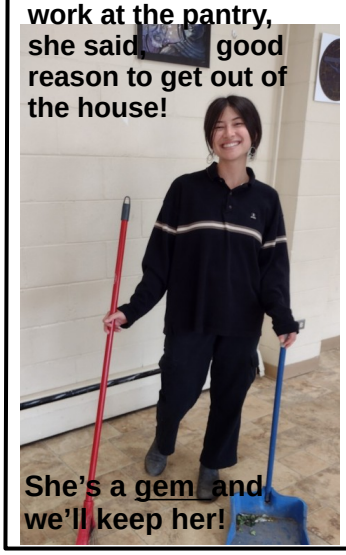
*Needed, grocery bags that you would be willing to donate for our clients. Just drop them off at the pantry.

Joe Keen showed up at the pantry with a box of fresh spring bear meat! We are always humbled by all the folks who think of us with donations! It is grrreat!

Volunteers from Here and Far Away!

Lisa Ellington from Homer, Melody Soderberg, from Duluth, MN, and Connie Schmidt, from Tacoma, WA, wanted to become involved in a community outreach project! Welcome to our Thursday Free Fridge group that makes the food and stocks the fridge! We thank you!!

When I asked Kristen why she wanted to work at the pantry, she said, good reason to get out of the house!



She's a gem and we'll keep her!

Mable Peruta, Jinny Smith, Micki & Bryce Bezant from Granbury First United Methodist Church in Texas showed up to lend a hand with our Monday prep and distribution of food. People dedicated to helping others !

So Proud and Appreciative to Receive Fresh Produce!

Emily Garrity from Twitter Creek Gadens has shown up weekly to provide fresh produce for HCFP, always with a big smile and true dedication to feeding others! Saint Augustine Church drops off their garden gatherings as well. Homer Shriner's donated a large quanity of Vidalia onions, which our clients loved! Joey Allred and Doug Fisk once again donated 150 lbs of their freshly grown potatoes! A truly ultruistic community!

Providing food and emergency assistance, with compassion, to those seeking our services.
