American Red Cross
Together, we can save a life

On Monday, October 13th
In conjunction with the Homer Community Food Pantry, the American Red Cross will host a table at the pantry from 12:00-3:00 offering information on:
Home Fire Campaign, with free fire alarms and house checks for qualifying houses.
Volunteer Oportunities
Blood Donations

"Stories of Alaska" with water-color Artist, Bruce Sink, is on display at Fireweed Gallery for the month of October. It is a silent auction with all proceeds going to our Homer Community Food Pantry! WOW! Check it out and perhaps even make your bid for a great cause!

All Aboard the Haunted Aspen!
Once again this year our awesome Coast Guard is hosting their shelf stable & canned goods food drive for HCFP on Oct. 29th A spook-tacular event and such a welcomed gift for those in need. Lights on 4:00-6:00. Darkened Ship, 7:00-10:00

Annual Empty Bowl Fundraiser!
Mark your calendars for Friday, November 7th, 11:00-2:00 at the United Methodist Church. Artisan Bowls, by local potters, Sensational Soups, provided by Homer's restaurants and chefs, breads from our fabulous bakeries, and desserts made fresh by numerous volunteers and others! This year we will be charging $50 per bowl and as much as you can eat! $15.00 if you just want a great meal with all the trimmings! 907-399-2007

A Plethra of Perfect Peonies!

Rita Jo Shultz And the Alaska Perfect Peony made our day with their wonderful peonies for our patrons! What a beautiful gesture!

Suzanne Alvarez delivered two more buckets of Rita's peonies!

Our Gracious Gardeners and Givers!

< Tracie, from Bay Crest Greenhouse, displays her sign, Look, but don't pick! Harvested for Homer Food Pantry!

Patty, from St Augustine's Church dropped off their valuable veggies! > Steve and Sharlene Darby donated their moose meat and items they won't be needing as they head South for the Winter. They are anxious to help HCFP next summer!

Annabelle and Jordan stopped by with their offering of gotten Goods. Yum!
