For the record and for your record, I was born in Morocco-America, I'm Moorish-American and there for I am not a United States Citizen. Attempting to cause a living person to believe that something is true when it is not true; it's not only Fraud, it is a felony and it is Treason. Law being the Constitution and the Treaty of Peace and Friendship between the United States and Morocco, pursuant to Article VI, as well the United States Codes, that are in harmony with the American Constitution of 1791, which deal with diversity of Citizenship and Jurisdiction.
