

Gifts to the Santa Fe Woman's Club

1. In general the Santa Fe Woman's Club & Library Association (SFWC&LA) does not accept restricted gifts.
2. Cash gifts, however, may be accepted to underwrite specific needs, events or activities.
3. Donors who offer to underwrite renovations and/or improvements to the Clubhouse and grounds do so with the understanding that their offers will be evaluated on the basis of incidental costs as well as on structural and aesthetic bases. Acceptance will be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.
4. Gifts of tangible property are given without restriction. If accepted, they become the property of SFWC&LA and may be used on site, sold or donated.
