Mother's Day Out

- by Sharon Cummings, Director

It's so hard to believe the end of our fall year is quickly approaching. It has been a wonderful end to 2025. We are blessed with teaching 54 children about the love of Jesus with our amazing 13 teachers.

We celebrated the start of the holiday season with our annual MDO Thanksgiving Feast where we served approximately 185 people. Parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles enjoyed a feast of turkey and hams donated by HEB on O'Connor, and an assortment of delicious side dishes provided by our families. Special ladies from our church willingly volunteer to serve the dishes.

December is always a fun time as we talk about the birth of Jesus and will celebrate the last day with a pizza party and the children will take home a Christmas stocking filled with goodies from their friends. Ms. Karen will lead the nativity story during Chapel with our Pre K children portraying the different characters.

MDO wishes your families a very blessed Christmas season.
