are with this humble-presentation by your attention

Courtesy Notice For Public Servants

Greetings my fellow living souls navigating the Mysterium, or I could say greetings all fellow individuating cells of our living wholeness as a living species-organism-mankind, a symbiotic layer of a living biosphere upon our living planet, in a living solar system, in a living galaxy in a living universe - all held as an idea of the supreme intelligence in an infinite ocean of consciousness, or I could just say greetings fellow members of our collective human family, or might I just say greetings fellow units of unity consciousness.

Good, I think I have covered every one.

Crikey how come I am me and you are you?

A philosophical ponder is the only means one has to address such a question.

All things rational may enjoy the advantage of reason and science in all their forms , but all things meta-rational can only be forensically unpacked philosophically. That is why philosophy exists, cos there is so many things about our participation in navigating the mysterium of our wholly reality that science can not address.

No body knows the mystery of life and creation, and nobody has ever known but we have a species wide smorgasbord of speculations held in lore and myth, and faerie tale, and of course the infallible blah of the institutionalised speculations held in church and state.

I would invite you to suspend your belief, to let go of all prejudice at least until you have journeyed to the end of this sharing. There are certain concepts those who command our collective social body organs of church and state would prefer you did not entertain. The notions, concepts, paradigms, narrative which follows may contain some such concepts. It is your own capacities of critical thinking, discriminating wisdom and humour that will assist your Yin Gift of Imagination, your Yang Gift of Rationale and your Gift of Free Will to navigate this presentation, this courtesy notice, this look beyond.

This notice is presented with unconditional respect for all fellow members of my human family and all others.

Are we the ignorant masses at the mercy of the spiritually immature intelligent idiots?

Go to page 22 if do not want to read through this long introduction familiarising with the concepts behind it.

Those who command the organs of our collective social body are in breach of our social contract and the honourable remedy is this conditional-acceptance-counter-claim-mandamus.

Through out this presentation is a dictionary of concepts shared so we have clarity in regard that which is being shared. I have been involved in pondering the alternative view of our shared reality all my life.

This notice is focused toward public-servants but is pertinent to all or any living soul sharing experience of our wholly reality. The simple, gentle message is that we are all, each unique individual living soul inhabiting our shared physical wholly reality personally responsible for the soul we are and wear and its evolution. It occurred to me that out of all of us, it is those of we, who choose to become public-servants that are the most vulnerable to being groomed into using thine soul as a fire wall for some other.

This sharing is presented from the concept that those fellow others who exist in the command and control of the organs of our collective social body are doing so with spiritual blindness. It has been happening for so long and so thoroughly it has become that which the innocence of our collective social body have all been groomed to trust and accept as normal. Of course it might be that there is sociopaths and psychopaths who hold the levers of power and may call the innocence of we the people - the ignorant masses, or maybe useless eaters, or maybe conspiracy theorists, or maybe even dirty little unvaxxers, as well as the traditional means of identifying those who do not share your beliefs - heretics, infidels, goyim. All these labels are expressions of the separated-ego condition of thinking that holds its own self importance as a virtue and believes themselves to be somehow separate to the creation they are a living participating experiencing aspect of.

Religiosities when pondered from the concept that they might be operating as hive mind control methods reveals certain concepts we wear and take for granted. The organ of pineal is the particular organ of our collective social body the institution of church represents on our behalf.

For it is our pineal with which we may connect through our imaginarium to source.

And it is through our pineal we may invest in Faith as enlightenment through knowledge.

We have had religiosities present understanding as to what it is that is our soul and a structure through which to craft our faith. They have presented themselves as that which can save your soul. Religiosities present that 'god' is something separate to us and can be accessed via the agency of church and it's agents of priests. The essence of the teaching is that we are all sinners who require to exist in guilt and shame and require a saviour as our only remedy.

Well that is one way to speculate our participation in the mystery of life and creation.

When pondering the command of the organs of our collective social body being done through the attitude of manipulate and control for power, command of resource and profit we can ponder what was meant by the 'unjust steward' mentioned in the bible. The Christian narrative suggests that the unjust steward is 'Mammon' which when searched suggests Mammon is the child of the 'Devil'. The bad guy religiosities have warned us of. We know it is not some evil dude out there but is simply a mentality that any living soul may become hypnotised by.

The best definition of the mentality of this condition of the thinking I have found on the net is - to paraphrase - any living soul who has a superior knowledge and understanding of the mechanics and dynamics of the psychology of man and mankind and then uses it against their fellow man for command, power and profit.

There is a mentality, a condition of the thinking I will describe as the spiritual blindness of the separated ego condition of thinking, and condition of the heart. The separated ego is separated from nature, and our true human nature, and our cosmic spiritual nature. The separated ego falls prey to phantasmagorias of every type, social conditioning, consensus trance, logical fallacies, incorrect assumptions, wrong conclusions. Our greatest soul vulnerability exists in our cosmic strength of trust and innocence. The separated ego perfidiously uses these inherent human virtues as a weakness it can groom and capitalise upon.

Our cosmic spiritual nature is most certainly meta-physical and meta-rational and can only be figured and fathomed with the feminine aspects of our beingness as a living soul experiencing a gendered universe. Our living cultures across the globe display a patriarchal attitude and suppression of the feminine especially in religiosities. It is this diminishing of our species inherent yin gifts, our feminine aspects of intuition, empathy and creativity that has us not able to readily figure and fathom the paradoxical nature of our own personal unique individual living soul and our true relationship with our wholly reality. Intuition and instinct must be as readily equally available to any psyche as rationale.

As any one thing may be a holographic fractal of the entire universe, then the All is contained in each and every part. Therefore our cognition of law natural, law universal and law commercial when all in balance and harmony are the subjective experience of law moral.

We exist in a free will reality and it stands to reason that All law that has ever existed and all law that does exist exists so we may all establish equity and honour in our commerce of will between all living souls. So this being the honourable measure of the liberty of will and it's relationship with consent. Any who seek to take liberty with the gift of free will is advised to commerce honourably with all or any who need to consent to that liberty. This is the definition of universal law and is a foundation stone for all or any legislation. Any legislation which does not align with the foundation stones upon which it is founded is moot.

When your gifts of imagination rationale and freewill act as one then it is obvious that the law of commerce is the law of karma. The management strategy, (usury debt slavery) dominates our consciousness in our every day life, and it exists to teach each and every living soul the harsh mechanics and dynamics of karma and dharma.

Ethic is to identify and observe the highest fidelity of law that exists, and law moral is our honourable balanced and harmonious usury of that which we have identified as the highest integrity of our honour of commerce of will between living souls.

Ones relationship with the involve of the evolve of soul individual and collective is consequent to the study of lore of law.

To be involved in the shared external infinity out of balance with an involve with ones inner infinity can lead to obsession in one or the other.

It has been pointed out by wise others that we as ordinary folk have been systematically dumbed down and deceived of soul. So for many the ponders shared in this notice may well affect negative emotional response, may affect a discrimination against, rather than a discrimination with attitude, and may even be beyond cognition for some.

This notice brings notions to the attention for no other reason than to hopefully affect a self correction of our collective body as a human family one individual at a time.

Correct and Heal the condition of the thinking and the condition of the heart of our species.

Our world suffers from a gender rift love loss condition of the heart and mind.

If you truly love people and you want them empowered you will stand up and share freely all you know. - Jeremy Corsi

"Share your knowledge. It is a way to achieve immortality"

Dalai Lama Instructions for Life no. 14

Let us begin with a summary of a few basic premises which are sewn throughout the following work but are worthy to isolate here in one group.

Our personal inner infinity is where we may connect to the magnetic, still, silent, invisible, empty, nothingness within, as our very own personal means to subjectively touch the mystery of life and creation. We do this in memory, meditation, prayer, contemplation, dreaming etc. and also in our inner infinity is where we exist with our 'Imaginarium', Here is our place within where we may lay out all that which we draw in through our senses, all that which we absorb of our participation in our shared external infinity and there we may blend mix and morph it all with our memory, imagination, fantasy, rationale and meta rationale. All as prescience for our own personal free-will-choice.

We may ponder that as advised by the tomes of ancient wisdom, it is our living ego which is the god head of each and every being, which we may wear out into our shared external infinity and through which we may access our external infinity via our living senses.

The Ego concept for this notice - logically it is the character and intent worn and expressed out into our shared external infinity. In our commerce together we form our collective social body, our society and it is through 'ego' where we all meet each other.

An other interesting concept was if we ponder our each unique individual personal self as an atom of the human form realm of our wholly reality, it is our forming into family and tribe that is the integrity of our molecular structure that underlies the fabric of our society. The molecular structure of family, tribe, community, society and ultimately our whirled world separated-ego soap opera comedy/tragedy.

We may ponder that the notion of 'god' or creator, or supreme intelligence of consciousness, or source, or great spirit, or the cosmos, or the wholly see of the living

All of our wholly reality, what ever it is that you would like to term it. Is simply all of every thing of both of our infinities and we logically can not, not be a living experienter of it. So belief in some god is moot when we logically observe the astonishing living majesty of nature, human nature and creation and make conscious effort to involve with the evolve of the notion of soul in all its expressions.

Deism from wikipedia - derived from the deus, meaning "god") is the philosophical position and rationalistic theology that generally rejects revelation as a source of divine knowledge, and asserts that empirical reason and observation of the natural world are exclusively logical, reliable, and sufficient to determine the existence of a supreme intelligence as the creator of the universe

More simply stated, Deism is the belief in the existence of 'god' solely based on rational thought without any reliance on revealed religions or religious authority.

We may ponder that our living ego may exist in one of two conditions. A separated ego separated from nature and our true human nature.

OR

We may ponder that our living ego may exist as a soul centred ego where we are consciously involved with the evolve of thine soul, that state of being is a growing of consciousness and an exploring of the lore of law of our universe, law natural, law commerce and law moral.

We may observe that it is our living awareness beyond all of these pondering s, simply aware and hidden in plain sight as the immortal part of any of we all. Presently our awareness is aware of being a living soul inhabiting human form performing in a whirled world soap opera comedy called the human race to the portal of death. Presently we are witness to the phantasmagorias of the spiritually blind who do not see their immortality and act accordingly. Trans humanism, and all it's techno distopia's is the spiritually blind grasping through phantasmagorias for that which it can not see that it already possesses.

All you can take to the portal is what you have come to know and understand and innerstand, and your every thought act and deed is that which you are deliberately involved with or not, as that which your freewill has scripted as a signed-confession upon arrival to the portal of death.

The very essence of the creator/source/great spirit/the cosmos is innocence and ones attitude toward innocence is testimony of their relationship to creator/source/great spirit/the cosmos

Our commerce with other and all others creates the energetic dynamics of the narratives we are growing into. As we emerge out into our shared external infinity we leave the innocence of our youth, move into the evolving wisdom of our coming to the age of majority and choosing our way in the world, and then as decisions are made and we thread our selves into the collective tapestry of our collective social body, we meet the 'karma' of our decisions.

The law of commerce is a holographic fractal of the law of karma informing that which we are yet to be aware of beyond the portal.

This following Potential Pants Shitting Frightening Truth is presented with unconditional respect for all. It has emerged as a feeling of moral obligation to share certain seemingly overlooked points drawn from the tomes of the wisdom traditions of our species .

It is important that we ponder the difference between that which is principles of the lore of law, that which is cosmic law, that which is law of the land and of the sea and that which is legalities.

It is fair to add here that this notice has been inspired by observation of the bad behaviour of those who have been granted the sacred duty and trust of the office of public servant but have not had the maturity to honour the power that authority grants access too. We would expect that we could relate to these beings as our warrior hero's but when one has not the spiritual maturity to innerstand their living soul or that the mechanics of commerce are the mechanics of karmic-debt then we end up with bad actors who use the power of authority malevolently leading the innocence of their fellow man into soul damage. This notice is inclusive of all public servants and exists to bring to their attention that they are soulee responsible for their every thought act and deed despite what handing their will over to another brings. If you are involved in the frivolous and vexatious extortion, hurt, harm, injury and damage of your fellow man then ultimately what degree of honour and ethic are you self responsible for?. So from the hidden elite controllers of our world right down to a check out chick the same soul mechanics apply.

The reason corporations are called corporations is they are a corpse-oration, the dead which speaks through paper and digital record. So as the actual church and state corporate bodies are dead, the only life they can have exists with those who accept the sacred duty and trust to steward justly these organs of our collective social body. To steward justly one would best make oath to have their life force honour the health, harmony, vitality and enlightenment of our species-organism-mankind. Oaths to queens and other egos is testimony to spiritual blindness of the separated ego condition of the thinking and condition of the heart.

It stands to reason that living souls in command of our collective social body organ of church would skew or weaponize the understanding of the mechanics of our living soul if it served them, if they were endeavouring to hide or obscure some particular concept. The logic presented herein in regard the simple notion that our living soul is the record of our every thought act and deed, self crafted, and exists upon arrival to the portal of death, as our signed confession of who we truly are, all we have ever done, the agendas we have served, the honour of our commerce of will with all or any other living soul and most importantly our relationship with and attitude toward innocence. If our organ of church presented the notion of these utterly self responsible mechanics of soul then all those who choose to be public-servant would do so with quite a different approach.

We are the victims of our having not taken the responsibility to figure and fathom the truth of our shared reality. From our inattention and complacency with allowing things to get as bad as they are , to our innocently placing implicit confidence in the integrity of those who lead we all, it is our own fault. It would seem we invite our destruction from those perfidious deceivers who profess the infallible blah of church and state. We have failed to properly scrutinise their and our own conduct. The Jewish holocaust is example of leaving till to late a resistance to the bad behaviour of government. Lock down today, execution by vaccination coercion tomorrow?. By our giving governments the assumption of authorised use of force presents important need for our serious forensic consideration of its behaviour.

For me personally I like to think of my self as an honourable man who has never hurt or harmed another or used deceit or fraud in my commerce. I have most definitely experienced frivolous and vexatious revenue extortion and I have been an observer of all that the world is doing. The is much the spiritually blind can not see. So over the years I have been attracted to surveying the 'common law' or alternate law remedy initiatives to satisfy my own forensic unpack of the mechanics of justice and injustice, to unpack the degree to which malevolence is established in place and to explore and discover the deeper philosophic and spiritual mechanics and dynamics of what we are all a part of and ultimately inform my own personal preparations for my arrival to the portal.

What we learn from alternate law remedy initiatives is that there is certain assumptions existent that are used to control we all. We all are existent with a condition of the thinking and a condition of the heart and should that be with a morality then the ensuing commerce will be in honour. It would seem we as a species are either yet to figure and fathom and express the highest fidelity of the mechanics of honour in commerce, or our collective innocence and collective ignorance is being used against we all by bad actors using the sacred duty and trust of the authority of the organs of our collective social-body perfidiously and malevolently.

(a legal system would present freely all correcting and healing of behaviours that do not align with the health, harmony, vitality and enlightenment of our collective social body.

Life guidance and counsel) The basic condition of state presented by the legal industry is the concepts of we existing as living souls inhabiting human form and that being a different condition of state than the legal 'person' which exists as a dead vessel through which a living soul may communicate with the dead corpse-orator/corporation government which speaks through paper/digital record. This very simple nuance of identity assumption is the very fulcrum upon which power over we all sits. The appellation or phonic utterance of our name technically only truly becomes a 'name' when it is held in script of the hieroglyphs of our alphabet and styles manual. As words can only be dead constructs and nobody can show us a living word and then the holding of such constructs in copy right has it that once you have submitted to 'being' a name you have effectively been removed from the realm of the living and held in assumption to be in the realm of the dead. This is what I have heard called the 'Justinian Deception' or from my own humble observation, the deception of the ego masturbation gratification hypnosis of the spiritually blind separated-ego mentality.

This courtesy notice exists to share insight with those who with their free will have chosen to serve the organs of our collective body. We appreciate that the malevolent usury of authority would prey upon the ignorance and innocence of its prey we the people, and to maintain full control would also through compartmentalisation, through the commanding of the narratives of church and state then issue that same attitude upon its public servant minions, so they in its service will deliver their malevolence to the people.

We appreciate the existence of the human weakness to think only as much as is necessary so to not have to think; we appreciate the human weakness to be poisoned by laziness, envy, jealousy, resentment and greed; we appreciate the human weakness to be ego-distracted by the desire for money, fame, fortune and power; we appreciate the human weakness to be ignorant of ones soul, to sell it for power, fame, fortune or to just jump through the hoops necessary for a pay packet. All these conditions of state distracts one from focusing their gift of rationale upon self knowledge, universal lore of law and the meta-physical mechanics of honour in commerce and consequently their own personal dharmic and karmic preparations.

We appreciate that beyond the infallible blah of the mind boggle of religiosity we all exist only with a speculation of what it is that is our soul and the hereafter. The mystery of life and creation has equipped each and every living soul with a yin gift of imagination and a yang gift of rationale so as to fathom the mystery of life and creation in our own subjective wholly experience. We have also the gift of free-will-choice so as to involve with the evolve of our personal speculation of soul and the hereafter, or not. We have also been hypnotised away from the very simple and obvious hidden in plain sight fact that it is our very living awareness that is the immortal part of we all and is that which our living commerce evolves the karma of.

We the people observe the human condition of gullibility and naivety where one may be hypnotised by the grandeur of mammon's separated-ego soap opera, whirled world. Then in one's natural innocence be defiled of their innocence by a malevolent intent, and then in one's own ignorance of their ignorance sell that which one is ignorant of - their soul. Think of your soul as an accounting sheet for all your actions exercised as your own, and also all your actions exercised as all those you have (knowingly?), willingly and intentionally action-ed on behalf of another.

We the people observe the human condition of trust and acceptance and the damaged other people who perfidiously use this innocent human strength as a weakness for their advantage. The oaths and blood oaths to secret societies and to royalties and institutions is the act of soul selling and compromises one's personal soul contract with the mystery of life and creation, in exchange for ego masturbation's. The totally gullible swap access of the greatest gift imaginable for an ego wank.

So even for the spiritually blind it is the importance placed upon the taking of an oath which is testimony of humanities acknowledgement of the existence of soul.

We appreciate the challenge affecting society with the conditioning of the mind of man by the perfidy of church and government. We appreciate the gullibility of people to accept the irrational directives of an authority exemplified by the armies of people not only wearing face masks but issuing violence against those fellow others who do not. Trusting souls tormented by their lack of knowledge and then through taking on of fear propaganda righteously defending their lack of knowledge.

When one stands far enough back from the institutions of religiosities and government and looks objectively at their behaviour one may objectively assess their affect upon the very capacity of our critical thinking in mankind. One can assess what affect these institutions we have invested our innocent trust in, has upon the antennas of our soul, our critical thinking and discriminating wisdom. What is it that is their agenda, what is it that is the narrative they groom as an authority.

We may observe the subjective nature of religion in man; and the trusting nature of man has the typical mind of the ordinary mankind construct their critical thinking in the employ of conditioned presumptions, in good faith, in align with the agendas and narratives of the organs of our collectivities.

We see that narrative delivered to we all by church and state is either all they have the intelligence to deliver or is deliberately malevolent. They deliberately play on the ignorance of their fellow man, they deliberately defile the innocence of the collective population. They and their minions when defiling collective innocence deliberately craft/earn the karma of raping innocence or we could say more harshly the same karma as raping a child.

If you trust government you have not studied history

The single most important message in this Notice is the need for individual living souls who have with their free will choice become public servants and the consequent karmic mechanics determined by logic alone. What you do on behalf of another you do yourself. When you hand your free will over to another you effectively become a Minion. A minion only knows what they have been told to know, the policies of their master becomes their voice, the agenda of their master becomes their karma. The commerce they do for their master they do themselves. The minions of the Holocaust did knowingly willingly and intentionally murder their fellow man on orders from their master in the vane illusion that they would be immune from the karma of doing so. The minion who enforces vaccinations also do so in the vane illusion they are immune from the karma of doing so. We are all as unique individual living fractals of the mystery of life and creation are totally self responsible for our usury of our freewill gift.

To take a journey into the logic of the mechanics and dynamics of karma and dharma requires one to border on speculation. But that is all we have to guide us as to what the Mystery of life and creation is. We do have millennia of speculations as to what it all is and what exists beyond the portal of death. But all we truly have as an individual is that which we have come to know and understand for our own self with our own faculties of reason for our own preparation for our own arrival to the portal-of-death. What we do have though is the living mechanics of the law of commerce as our immediate means of knowing, understanding and inner standing the mechanics of karma and dharma. The living mechanics of our world of financial commerce is a projection of the inherent cosmic lore of law of the mechanics and dynamics of karma and dharma. So also the emerging surveillance state is a projection/reflection of our living soul recording of our every thought act and deed as our signed confession.

So upon this logic one has a moral obligation to bring to the attention to all public servants of monarchy, church, government, justice, police, military and any and all corporations, knowledge of their ignorance of their ignorance, knowledge of the consequences of their wrong doings, an urging to consider for themselves the rationale of the mechanics of karma and dharma.

In the Christian narrative it has identified 'Mammon' as the unjust steward. The unjust steward is the mentality of any beings who betray the sacred duty and trust of service to the organs for our collective humanity body. The mammon attitude uses knowledge of the mechanics of the psychology of man and mankind against their fellow man for power, command and profit. The mammon attitude of selfish greed steals from, adulterates and kills the fellow cells of the organism of which it is a part, acting as a cancerous autoimmune disease upon the body of humanity, the expression of omnicidal self loathing. Your every thought act and deed emerge from your attitudes and opinions toward your fellow man, toward your fellow individuating cells of our collective humanity body.

Testimony of the mammon attitude existent in government is exemplified in the whole notion of the vaccine agenda. It is presented on the controlled media as a forgone conclusion and its defence exists only in logical fallacy not truth. It defies nature and is provided total protection from liability by legislation created by mammon government and enforced by minions and profited upon by the perfidious justice industry.

We as ordinary folk are at the mercy of soul-zombies and will have our life continually destroyed by their perfidy. We have only one consolation and that is each and every one will ultimately arrive to the portal-of-death. We each and every one will have our living soul as our own signed confession of all we are and have done, will have our soul as the currency available for our traverse of the afterlife and most importantly as the very script for our next arrival to innocence.

You can not solve a problem with the same mind set that created the problem.

Albert Einstein

For the knowledge is with the data. For the wisdom is with the application of knowledge.

For police and sold-iers are both officers of our collective immune system of our collective social body. The difference between poli-ce (city-judge) and sold-I-er ('sold' past tense of the selling of the soul, 'I' - the ego god head of any individual, 'er' one who has) so the difference is that one is employed to use force (police force) the other is employed to use lethal force. Both of these forces are commanded by mammon infected hierarchies. Both as minion offer their living soul as a karmic fire wall for their master in exchange for a pay packet and the glammers of power and authority. This deep and unidentified soul wound is the very source of the suicide epidemic in military across the planet.

By virtue of the present dominance of the mammon nature of the living system any being who holds any position of office is compromised into selling their soul. By virtue of the existence of the organ of church and the religiosities of our species is testimony of our collective acknowledgement of the existence of supreme intelligence of the mystery of life and creation and the notion that we can not not be a living experiencing aspect of it all, and any materialistic, atheistic condition of thinking is simply one of the conditions of mind conditions of heart that can be worn by any living soul inhabiting human form.

Under the current soul acknowledgment system of 'Oath', if you are a cop, you have sold your soul, there can not be any other logical conclusion. The same holds true of any being in any situation of dealing with the public. Any government, justice system, religiosity, corporation which deals with the collective body of man kind has their employees as public servants. All beings whose life force affects those of the public jurisdiction are in the soul condition of state of a public servant.

Any of these entities which operate on agenda that does not honourably steward our collective species-organism-mankind body is as described by the christian narrative an unjust steward and hence mammon. The entirety of the military industrial complex and all who serve it, the entirety of the pharmaceutical corporatocracy and all who serve it, the entirety of the energy corporatocracy and all who serve it - all share the same karmic-debt of rape, pillage, theft, adultery, perfidy. That is simply how the universe balances itself - you and any collective of fellow living souls you make free will choice to serve.

The ego maturity of a being who comes into the realm of hierarchy is very vulnerable to the psychic illness of ego masturbation. The mammon nature of external hierarchy has it that the underlying attraction of working ones way up through the ranks, or simply enjoying power over your fellow man is the access to the 'power trip'. A trip as potent upon a human psyche as any hallucinogen. The degree of mammon attitude worn in any collectivity is the degree of potential hypnotize-ability one becomes vulnerable too.

In many situations of mammon hierarchies beings are not selected for their intelligence but for their potential exchange of obedience for access to wealth, power and the gratifications of ego masturbation hypnosis. These beings content to do their duty as instructed have cremated all care for the bigger picture of their office and its ultimate service to our collective social body. Their hypnotised access to the smorgasbord of ego gratifications has their highest aspirations, their heart powers of dedication and their soul honour completely owned by the Mammon attitude. The antennas of our soul are our critical thinking and our discriminating wisdom and our humour, but when we have become a minion and know only that which we have been told to know we turn over our soul antennas to the employ of our master.

There exists two potential attitudes for the organs of our collective body, the common good of all or the mammon attitude, which ever one dominates by number of those indulging in it will be the attitude which will affect we all.

Deep ponder of the mechanics and dynamics of karma and dharma reveals that it is your behaviour that is your conversation with the mystery of life and creation, not your reasons. Your reason exists so to serve your imagination, your rationale and your freewill. It is your freewill which allows you to choose to become a minion or not, it is your freewill which allows you to choose to act and do.

As a cop your soul contract with your victim is your soul commerce with them personally, your legislation reasons for your damage of them is your soul contract with your master.

Now particularly during the covid phenomena all those whose cognition of reality rely upon that which comes from the main stream media and the government are in their ignorance complicit with the agenda that damages the lives of mankind. If you enforce the agenda of the deceivers you also share the deceivers karmic-debt.

Nobody gets away with anything, your every thought, act and deed is indelibly printed upon your soul. Everything that holds form in the universe has a soul, you can't not have one, though you can be ignorant of it, ignorance is a condition of choosing to ignore. Don't wait until you are at the portal of death to indulge in the sober realization that it is only in life that you have the opportunity to deliberately involve in the evolve of your soul. What you do to your fellow man and our living planet you do to your soul. Your every thought act and deed are writing the script for your next arrival to innocence.

Are you creating the sort of world you would trust to be born back into?

For we are co-creators with creation and each other and what we create for another we create for ourselves. It is how the mystery of life and creation balances itself. What you do to another you do to yourself and you will ultimately experience the all of your creations. Know the living All wholly sees all your creations, if you choose to not wholly see and balance your own actions as a co-creator, then the cosmos must do it for you.

The universe is a tapestry of light and shadow and it perpetually performs a balance dance which allows it to exist eternally. That which was revealed by light may next be in shadow and that which was in shadow is at the mercy of light. Your life adventure is a tapestry of enlightened action and shadows of hurt harm to either self or others. The perpetual balance dance of eternity has you play out the inverse of your actions.

Minions are the soul-zombie order followers and in their ignorance they harvest for their own personal living soul the karma of the wrong doings they do on behalf of another. Ignorance of natural law, ignorance of the mechanics of karma and dharma is no defence, you will reconcile all that you have willingly and intentionally done to harm another, to harm other fellow cells of the organism humanity, you will reconcile all that you have done to not serve the collective well being, vitality, harmony and enlightenment of our species, our collective body. The karma of dishonour, perfidy, deception, betrayal and dereliction of duty exists for all who choose to participate mindlessly of heart and soul.

Existing in a dumb-ed down state via over involvement with the mind boggle of religiosities, processed by the school system and its science and academia 'universe as machine' nihilistic dementia is no defence. The soul antennas of critical thinking and discriminating wisdom exist so to serve the cosmic traveller. It is only those who have chosen with their gift of free will, to take possession and engage usury of, the antennas of their soul will have unpacked the maze of deception and fraud of those who wear the attitude of the unjust steward. The management strategy existent upon the ailing monetary system, all wars, the perfidy of the justice industry, the nihilistic dementia of the mainstream academia, science and media, the fraud of the pharmaceutical industrial complex, the unfettered greed and unaccountability of the corporatocracy - all are testimony of the almost full spectrum dominance of the separated-ego ego-masturbation hypnosis spiritually blind condition of the thinking and condition of the heart.

Conscience

All con and com words suggest a coming together, a contract with. In the word conscience we see our contract with the full use of the antennas of our soul, our gift of rationale, our discerning, discriminating, inductive, deductive, common sense, critical thinking, objective, practical, pragmatic dealing with the unfolding of the mystery of life and creation. As well as our personal responsibility of honour, to our relationship as an individual, with the collective living body we are but a small though dynamic part, the law of commerce.

To use your free will to enter the dimension of another and do any harm, you, to maintain the equilibrium of the laws of dimensions, will need also to experience that which you create for another. Survey of the wisdom traditions of all the ethno-expressions of our species present the collective understandings of the archetypal geometry of universal law of giving and re-giving, cause and effect, what you put out you will receive, what goes around comes around, you reap that which you sow, the law of karmic return, the law of consequentialism. Just return for all things given or received. The golden rule of do unto others as you would them do unto you. All this is the fundamental message we have all been given from the cultures of our entire species. Why?

Karma is like gravity.
It depends not on your understanding or belief.

Self hurt and harm, self detriment, self-diminishment of your own light, the turning down of the dimmer switch of your potential conscious enlightenment/soul knowing/innerstanding is the true karma for those who continue to sell their souls. Their karma is not measured by their pay packet and stripes on shoulder, ego prestige and all the glammers of the ego masturbation hypnosis.

It is the vibrations of hurt or harm your free will causes in another which vibrates in your auric field, for your holographic time dimensions are now connected until the soul commerce is settled and closed to zero, either in life or to be negotiated at the portal of death. We have only hearsay speculation of ancient wisdom to suggest that our transmigration of soul at the portal is dependent upon the balancing to a zero point of balance in the souls commerce, or our reemergence back into the wheel of karmic return. The proverbial heart weighed against a feather alludes to the actual weight that exists in a soul is the unreconciled vibrations of dishonour in commerce, the violation of our primal natural, universal and cosmic law.

Remember ancient wisdom reminds us that your every thought act and deed is recorded upon your living soul, all that you do and all that you commerce, all that you affect and all agendas you promote and perpetuate are recorded within your auric field as living vibrations for your future attention and reconciliation. Your selling your karmic accounting sheet for a pay packet does not immune you from the consequences of your actions.

Your spirit, your soul, your psyche, your being a unique individual fractal of the mystery of life and creation, your gifts of imagination, rationale and freewill are all treasures you choose to ignore.

For the mechanics and dynamics of the karma and dharma is with the deciphering by the personal-rational-mind.

Participation with any form of deceit or fraud is your personal command to the mystery of life and creation to deceit and fraud your awareness of your personal soul knowledge. If you betray trust you command the cosmos to betray your trust, if you defile innocence you command the cosmos defilement of innocence is something you accept as good and will to have for your soul and will to experience in your next arrival to innocence; if you create horror for another you command the cosmos to create horror for you. If you work in a factory that makes bombs, the lives they take are on your soul, you will to be a victim of bombs. If you are involved in the adulteration of mankind with nuclear radiations, vaccinations, fracking, flouride, 5G, GMO's, chemtrails ect then all the damage of others is recorded upon your soul and is your reflected adultery of your very own personal soul.

This is simply how the universe balances its awareness - you.

For the Deed of the soul is with the life by the deeds.

You Have Duty of due diligence to explore your human mystery and discover direct knowledge of your own soul beyond the befuddlement mind boggle of religiosity, beyond the perfidy of government and justice, beyond the collective nihilistic dementia of mainstream science, academia and media. Beyond the unfettered greed and unaccountability of the corporatocracy. Self knowledge cannot be found in the external world, although it is participation in the external world which is responsible for the programming of your soul or the crafting of your soul.

Ignorance is that which you choose to ignore.

If you believe something to be true your destiny will at some time call upon you to demonstrate that truth, know well that which you profess upon another, that which you espouse as truth will come to meet you . If you are a police officer issuing damage to your fellow man for having cannabis the cosmos may deliver cause for yourself or a loved one a need to ponder the inner conflict of the reality of cannabis remedy while you wear the wilful damage of others upon your soul.

Remember in the deciphering of the word Police - Poli is City and Ce is judge and as a city judge you are responsible for the damage you have initiated upon another, just because your co conspirators have weaponized legislation and back you up with their justice proportional to wealth justice industry does not immune you from your soul commerce with those you have damaged. As a judge you have created the soul commerce which your co conspirators enforce and profit from. You allow your soul to become a karmic fire wall between your victims and your master. Your contract with your master is between you and your master, the soul contract you have with those whom you damage is between you and they. Ones compliance to avoid the violence the power of your office yields is not consent, all action against consent is rape by degree.

So Please refer to Moto Proprio the Papal Bull issued by Pope Francis in 2013 the master of the corpse-oration you serve, declaring that you as a public servant operate upon your own impulse. To say you are following orders, or just doing your job does not spiritually immune you from your free will self responsibility.

While the totally corrupt are off performing for their 'gods', while they are off justifying their bad behaviours to themselves by identifying others as heretics, goyim and infidels and non believers, useless eaters or fools they are choosing to ignore their own personal cognition of the mechanics and dynamics of karma and dharma. Regardless of what dna one possesses one is a fractal of the universe, and by virtue of holding form one has a soul. With the law of commerce we may reason that we may either involve with the evolve of our soul or not. It is speculation alone, that to ignore soul evolution or not is prudent.

'They' tell we all that one cannot serve two masters we either subscribe to the common good of all and the involve with the evolve of your soul and the soul of All.

or

we may choose to subscribe to mammons vane self interested greed and ego masturbation.

For the selling of the soul is with the oath by the individual.

For the duty of the due-diligence is with the minion by their free-will-choice.

So do you author the programming of your soul from the integrity of your own authority in your inner infinity innerstanding or is it programmed for you by external hierarchy authorities, those you have wilfully chosen to serve in our shared external infinity.?

Authority = one who authors, creates the narrative of your life.

When we see a true collaboration of focused effort we as humanity are capable of creating creation as an abundant permaculture garden of vivid ethno expressions issuing forth their own flavour of creation in the style and culture of their uniqueness.

wholarchy is decentralised sovereign guilds of sovereign free souls.

If you are a public servant serving an institution which is not volunteering a forensic integrity audit so to reveal clearly the volition of its agenda, then it is probably prudent to leave your position immediately until you are able to negotiate your part in the serving of the protecting and preserving, the promoting and perpetuating of the innocence, health, harmony, vitality, honourable commerce and enlightenment of our species.

So Be It
Whom do you serve?

This courtesy notice brings knowledge of ego masturbation and wrong doings to your attention,

With knowledge comes (re)-sponsibility.

There is knowings once known which can not be unknown.

It is the freewill gift we all as a species-organism-humanity exist with that is our cause and this notice is a token remedy to correct and heal our human family.

: Public-Servant-Courtesy-Notice

PRESENTS A PONDER WHICH

CAN NOT BE UNKNOWN

the institutions of church and state do not hurt and harm we the people it is public-servants that do.

ARE WE

THE LIVING WITNESS

TO YOUR CRIMES?

Thanking You in Anticipation of your volunteered forensic integrity audit

We the people
We the fellow members of your human family
We the fellow cells of your collective species body humanity
We the fellow units of unity consciousness of your universe.
We the living witness and witnessing judge
Your Conscience

As a living soul we make contract in our commerce of will with all or any other living soul.

Our primary contract is a soul contract and is our real life, life force auric field connectivities, secondly there exists the system and its legal fiction and its contracting with the dead system via a dead person vessel.

So you as a public servant seeking to initiate a contract with my legal fiction are on notice that a soul contract with your living soul and mine exists by virtue of your proposing to contract.

We as living souls sharing life breath and living community reserve our rights to not be compelled to perform under any contract or commercial agreement that we have not knowingly, willingly, intentionally, voluntarily and individually entered into.

In the Australian court case of Till versus McGill the courts announce that 'sovereignty' is the law, there is nothing but sovereignty, which is true when we are not standing in the assumed dead copy written script construct. A true just steward benefactor would not allow for there to be this deception or any fraud, wars or the poisoning of our world with chemtrails, 5G, fluoride, and countless other adulterations of our species-organism-humanity body.

We have come to point the finger at 'They'.

We have come to a sober realization that the 'They' is simply put - a mentality which can be worn by any living soul inhabiting human form, or even a non human form. All have an 'I am' connection to the mystery of life and creation and all have capacity of conscience.

So 'they' are those who choose to use a supreme understanding of the psychology of man and mankind and use it against their fellow man for control power wealth etc. Self importance lived as a virtue saturates the realm.

The separated-ego ego masturbation gratification hypnosis separates one from nature, the true nature of their humanity, their true spiritual nature. Has one groom trust and innocence as a weakness upon which it can take advantage.

we the people call BS on the behaviours of those fellow living souls who command the organs of our collective social body. This notice is to inform all public servants that our primary contract is a soul contract and your coming to me with any proposal to contract is met with immediate soul contract. Living soul to living soul forensic-integrity-audit.

To be forced into a contract with the corporation you represent I as the living have no name, no age, no address, no title nor subject by virtue of the copy right upon script which would hold me as a construct and assumed dead. The conspiracy to murder me is any public servant seeking to record any word toward me. The imposing of religious observance is demanding that I have a name, an age, an address, a title and subject.

We the people appreciate that the 'system' itself can be used with good or malevolent intent. Casual glance of the unfolding of these last few years is testimony to the intent and agenda of those we call 'They' and the nature of how they command the functioning of the organs of our collective social body.

If you are working in good conscience and represent a just stewarding of our collective social organs you will not hesitate to take this solemn soul oath over and above any preceding oaths, a true cannon of your soul

I the living who is the authorised possessor of the legal fiction honouring the office of as a public servant in the capacity as.....do make this solemn soul oath that I will steward justly and protect, preserve, promote and perpetuate the innocence, health, harmony, vitality and enlightenment of all my species-organism-humanity body. I accept full responsibility to disclose any potential deceit or fraud in any contract I establish with you.

"There is only one religion in the world and that is the religion of Law. Long time ago the priests made concepts, images and symbols, then they taught the scribes and after they taught the scribes they taught the rich, which then made the KJV and all the holy writings. All words are religious constructs trying to describe the living. Now if you do not want to be a part of their religious construct you have to tell them, loud and clear cannon the natural law of our living soul and our commerce together as a species-organism-mankind. In language there are two types of words generally, the verb and the noun, the verb describes an action and the noun is an object or thing. As soon as you say you are a proper noun you are suggesting that you are a thing or an object and have no rights. There are no Living Words." - rock

So the obvious question we may ask any public servant that proposes that we contract with them and have us be scribed as a word and assumed to be that word - is

'are you conspiring to murder me?', by virtue of being assumed to not be the living soul and assumed to be the dead construct held in script.

Then we must ask 'are you imposing your religious observance of name, age, address, title and subject upon me?'.

The coercion of will demonstrated by the public servants during the covid plan/scam-demic and much more is testimony to the intent and agenda of those granted the sacred duty and trust to steward justly the organs of our collective social body.

Legal Maxim - Once a Fraud, Always a Fraud.

You Fellow Living Souls who have been granted the sacred duty and trust to steward justly the organs of our collective social body are in breach of our social contract.

Honourable remedy is with this counter claim conditional acceptance.

For the honouable-remedy of the breach of the social-contract of the living-souls-stewarding-of the organs of the collective-social-body is with this conditional-acceptance by the counter-claim.

So if those who hold the levers of power are truly acting in good conscience and honesty and are truly stewarding justly the organs of our collective social body they will not hesitate to share open, honest, honourable volunteering of their personal integrity audit and forensic integrity audit of the systems they command.

Any of we the people who issue this notice are removing our implied consent with the 'system' until such time it presents full disclosure via a third party forensic integrity audit. A fully televised solemn soul oath testimony by the prime minister and all other ministers and heads of departments, premiers, ceo's of corporations. All presenting their fully televised solemn oath soul cannon, and full disclosure of the strategy upon which they are endeavouring to establish the protecting, preserving, promoting and perpetuating of the innocence, health, harmony, vitality and enlightenment of our wholly human family.

Full open, honest, ethical and honourable disclosure of all that which was/is behind lockdowns and mandates. Full disclosure of the whole understanding of germ theory and terrain theory. Full forensic-integrity-audit of the whole of the mrna injection ,

And much much more.

We appreciate that things have got out of hand for those in command and we invite them to come back into honour with a volunteering of a full disclosure via a third party forensic integrity audit.

So we issue this notice in good conscience so we may together correct and heal our species-organism-mankind. The public-servant receiving this notice is put on notice that a fee-schedule exists for this no name, no age, no address, no title, no subject living soul to deal with the dead fiction estate until such time the forensic integrity audit is presented.

My fee-schedule is as follows-payment to me personally of 33 troy ounces of gold per attempt, within 21 days after any unwanted attempt to contract.

This fee is payable by the agent in person and the equivalent payable by the corporation.

Continuance to try and contract after having been given these terms and conditions shall be taken as agreement of my terms and conditions.

An interest rate of 33 percent per week shall be added to any late payments.

The beauty of our world during the unfolding of these last four years is we have the internet with which we have been able to self reflect upon our selves as an entire species. By watching the behaviour of our collectivities as herds in nation states we get to objectively forensically unpack our collective psychology. It is more than obvious that our species suffers from a mental illness of what I like to call the spiritually blind separated-ego ego-masturbation gratification hypnosis. Where beings disconnected from our truth as living souls sharing life breath and community for the short time we call a life and are lost masturbating their ego to the point where they uphold their self importance as a cultural virtue. The spiritually blind appear to have established full spectrum dominance and all those who do have their soul antennas in tack and in full use are identified traditionally as being those who are not apart of their religion, the 'heretics', 'the infidels', 'the goyim', and now 'the useless eaters', 'the conspiracy theorists', 'the anti-vaxxers'.

The antennas of the soul are our inherent capacities of critical thinking, discriminating wisdom and humour which are developed by our own personal usury of our yin gift of imagination, our yang gift of rationale and our collective gift of free will.

The true mentality of the all different expressions of our species-organism-humanity body may be surveyed by the attitude toward and relationship with woman and children, war and the poisoning of our planet.

So why does this mental illness command full spectrum dominance? Simply because those who are not spiritually blind can see through the fog of the mind control of religiosities, the fraud of governments, the perfidy of justice, the nihilistic dementia of mainstream academia, science and media, the unfettered greed and unaccountability of the

know it matters not what the spiritually blind do, even if it hurts or kills us all.

Because it is every man and woman for themselves at the portal of death. Those who have been granted the sacred duty and trust to steward the pineal organ of our collective social body failed to make clear that - Upon arrival it is your personal every thought act and deed recorded upon your living soul which is your signed-confession of who you truly are, all you have ever done, the agendas you have served, your honour of commerce of will with all or any other living soul, and most importantly your attitude toward and relationship with innocence in its every form and expression. for it is innocence that is the very nature and face of what our whirled world soap opera comedy calls 'god'.

So if you are a fellow living soul who has participated in the adulteration of your fellow man with the jab, or 5G, or chemtrails, or flouride, or any other thing that adulterates your fellow man.

Good luck at the portal

so if you are a fellow living soul who has betrayed trust, defiled innocence and destroyed beauty

Good luck upon your next arrival to innocence.

Thank you

your conscience.
