uBIPOC Research Database ("URD" or "uBIPOC RD")

This is a first place to search for building research literature reviews, meta-analysis, presenting unknown/new/unique methodologies, and for future research collaborations, as well as to provide subject matter expertise for media interviews and institutional/practice/research referrals.

Underrepresented BIPOC researchers, scholars, practitioners, clinicians, and professionals are encouraged to submit completed, published and/or presented quantitative, qualitative, mixed methods, conceptual, and theoretical research. Non-uBIPOC researchers with unique methodologies and/or civilizational justice research are also encouraged to submit.
