SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

ROCON is Western New York's longest running scale model contest and show, being held this year in an exciting new location! Modelers from all over the Northeast and Canada display their modeling skills on scale models of all types. Spectators also come from near and far to experience the world in miniature.

Awards are presented at the end of the show in over 60 different categories. As a sponsor, you will receive various signage placement at the show and on the RocCity Scale Modelers website. You also have the opportunity to distribute literature, coupons etc. at the show.

$20 sponsorships are available in the following categories: Please check box.

Aircraft

Automotive

Figures

Armor

Ships

SciFi / Fantasy

$35 sponsorships are also available in the same categories for "Best Of."
