From the outside, the Delaneys appear to be an enviably contented family. Even after all these years, former tennis coaches Joy and Stan are still winning tournaments, and now that they've sold the family business they have all the time in the world to learn how to 'relax'. Their four adult children are busy living their own lives, and while it could be argued they never quite achieved their destinies, no-one ever says that out loud. But now Joy Delaney has disappeared and her children are re-examining their parents' marriage and their family history with fresh, frightened eyes. Were things never as rosy as they seemed in the Delaney household?

THE MAN WHO DIED TWICE

Richard Osman

Paperback RRP $32.99

14 September release, advance orders welcome

The second novel in the number one bestselling Thursday Murder Club series featuring the old (but far from past-it) team as they pursue a brand new mystery. It's the following Thursday, and Elizabeth has just had a visit from a man she thought was dead. It's (one of) her ex-husbands, and he's being hunted. His story involves some diamonds, some spies, and a very angry mobster. Can our team find the killer before the killer finds them?

MRS MARCH

Virginia Feito

Paperback RRP $27.99

George March's latest novel is a smash hit.

None could be prouder than Mrs. March, his dutiful wife.

A creature of routine and decorum, Mrs. March begins each morning with a visit to her favourite patisserie, but her latest trip proves to be her last when she suffers an indignity from which she may never recover: an assumption by the shopkeeper that the protagonist in George March's new book is based on Mrs. March. A razor-sharp exploration of the fragility of identity and the smothering weight of expectations, Mrs. March heralds the arrival of a wicked and wonderful new voice.

THE GOOD WIFE OF BATH

Karen Brooks

Paperback RRP $32.99

This funny, picaresque, clever retelling of Chaucer's 'Wife of Bath' from The Canterbury Tales is a cutting assessment of what happens when male power is left to run unchecked, as well as a recasting of a literary classic that gives a maligned character her own voice, and allows her to tell her own (mostly) true story.

TENDERNESS

Alison MacLeod

Paperback RRP $32.99

14 September release, advance orders welcome

The spellbinding story of Lady Chatterley's Lover, and the society that put it on trial; the story of a novel and its ripple effects across half a century, and about the transformative and triumphant power of fiction itself.

'Powerful, moving, brilliant ... An utterly captivating read' - Elizabeth Gilbert trying for a baby. Then one day she receives a call that punctures her perfect life. Modern Marriage will cause you to question what lies beneath the appearance of perfection.

SNOW COUNTRY

Sebastian Faulks

Paperback RRP $32.99

31 August release, advance orders welcome

Sweeping across Europe as it recovers from one war and hides its face from the coming of another, Snow Country is a landmark novel of exquisite yearnings, dreams of youth and the sanctity of hope. In elegant, shimmering prose, Sebastian Faulks has produced a work of timeless resonance.

THE ECHO CHAMBER

John Boyne

Paperback RRP $32.99

From the author of The Heart's Invisible Furies and powered with the Boyne's characteristic humour and razor-sharp observation, The Echo Chamber is a satiric helter skelter, a dizzying downward spiral of action and consequence, poised somewhere between farce, absurdity and oblivion.

BILLY SUMMERS

Stephen King

Paperback RRP $32.99

Billy Summers is part war story, part love letter to small town America and the people who live there, and features one of the most compelling and surprising duos in King fiction, who set out to avenge the crimes of an extraordinarily evil man.

It's about love, luck, fate, and a complex hero with one last shot at redemption.
