GENERAL INFORMATION

- All racers must wear muzzles and racing blankets.
- Racing blankets can be purchased by contacting Laurie Soutar at Sirius Supply.

- All races are ~ 200 yards, and dogs will run three times unless scratched, dismissed, or disqualified. All programs will be a maximum of 4 dog races, with dogs running within their own breed only.
- All races will be box started — exceptions may be made for individual breeds ,as necessary, and will be hand slipped.
- Track will be drag, with real fur lure and/or white plastic.
- Exhibitors (a.k.a., dog owners) are expected to help in re-stringing the lure following each run by walking the lure from the finish line back to the starting line. Suitable footwear is highly recommended. Thank you!!

CERTIFICATION

- Certification runs will be available following the official race meet program.
- Please let the Secretary, Ms Jennifer Johansson, know if you have dogs needing qualification on your arrival.
- NCHC will help to make arrangements in finding two (2) dogs that can race with the ‘dog to be certified’ in order to complete the required two (2) qualifying runs.

PRACTICE

- Practice runs will offered on both days.
- Practice fee is 5$ per 2 runs per dog.

Note. For this event, NCHC will NOT offer free practice for any volunteers including club members, field workers, and foul & finish judges.
