Lecture: 3:30ish Michael Ammar...

...is world renowned as the greatest teacher of magic. A modern master of the Topit, the cups & balls, the rings and coin miracles – Michael not only can perform but instruct equally well. He has been lecturing magic for over forty years. In Arabic, Ammar means "Immortal." You will see why. In 1982, Michael won the FISM Gold Medal in Close-up Magic at Lausanne, Switzerland. His many TV credits include magic week finale on Late Night with David Letterman, multiple appearances on The Tonight Show, the Merv Griffin Show, CNN, Travel Channel and on NBC's 1998 "World's Greatest Magic 5" special.

Michael has also performed onscreen in England, France, Canada, Japan, Sweden, Norway, Australia and Russia, and other lands. He has made private performances at Universal Studios and the Vatican and performed and coordinated the magic talent at George W. Bush's Presidential inauguration. He was the first featured performer at the Caesars Magical Empire at Caesars Palace. Now he reaches the apex of lecturing with an appearance at MAWNY!
