

Community Plaza

In order to provide alternatives to formal and non-formal education to Mexicans living abroad, mainly in the United States, the National Council of Education for Life and Work (CONEVyT), the National Institute for Adult Education (INEA), the Ministry of Public Education (SEP) and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (SRE), have joined forces to offer this particular population, an educational model called Community Plazas e-Mexico in the United States, project in which predominates the use of new technologies in education and training..

The Community Plazas in the United States offer a wide range of services, including literacy courses in Spanish, elementary and open high school and distance education for youth and adults, courses to excel at work, access to digital libraries, online courses and forums through which you can maintain communication with other people, as well as links with other educational institutions. They also allow remote Baccalaureate study offered by the School of Bachelors.

Tutoring/ESL

Community volunteers go through extensive screening, training and qualification to offer tutoring and education from Early Childhood to high school.

Adult Literacy/ESL

To empower parents to help, encourage and inspire their children to strive for excellence in their education, we work with them to become literate, learn the English language and be education role models for their children.

Career and Continuing Education Advise

Our goal is to help educate and inspire parents and students to continue their education and journey to empowerment and independence.

GED

In partnership with Chemeketa Community College, we offer GED courses, test preparation and exam proctoring.
