

Veterinary Anesthesia Support & Service

PREVENTATIVE MAINTENANCE SERVICES

An anesthesia machine safety-check (Preventative Maintenance) is critical to ensure this life providing device is working properly (within manufacturer specifications) and to prevent the exposure to clinic personnel from excessive agent from a leaking machine. Timely, routine service provides the best performance results within the anesthesia equipment increasing the odds for survival and overall health and recovery of the patient.

VASSERVICE COMPREHENSIVE ONSITE PROCEDURES

Quality Testing/Repairs of anesthesia machines and vaporizers through multi-point system checks

- Check and repair the anesthesia machines for performance and leaks
- Detailed inspection and cleaning of absorber
- Inspect and test inhalation and exhalation valves on rebreathing system
- Inspect and test operation of pop-off valve and occlusion valve
- Precision vaporizer leak test, bypass test and calibration verification
- Service vaporizer exchange performed on-site
- Leak test and inspection of oxygen supply system including quick connects
- Confirm calibration and performance of flow meters
- Confirm proper operation and measure output of O₂ flush valve
- Inspect and test operation of waste gas system and ensure waste gas system conforms to the
- ACVAA standards
- Inspect all rubber goods
- Train hospital staff: pre-use checkout, cleaning, maintenance and performance
- Written report detailing work completed, findings and recommendations
- Minor labor repairs included
- Major labor repairs and parts will be quoted on-site

CONTACT US TODAY (800) 498-5575/INFO@VASSERVICE.COM FOR A QUOTE TODAY!

HAVE DENTAL EQUIPMENT?

We service, repair & sell the Dentalaire (TM) dental machines

