Who Are We?

The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network is led by God to reach the lost, disciple the saints, edify believers, and equip the churches through the usage of media. We accept the revelation of the Triune God given in the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments and confess faith in the Gospel message of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. We assert that the Biblical doctrines of salvation, grace, and faith are crucial to walking in God's love, victorious Christian living, and world evangelism. We will ensure that all participating individuals, groups, ministries, and churches will uphold the same values.

Our Vision

Our Vision is to create, develop, and present good anointed, prophetic, inspired, and supernatural content in a spirit of excellence into every household around the globe, reconciling all people back to God, through Jesus Christ, by the power of The Holy Spirit.

Our Mission

We are led by The Holy Spirit of God to reach the lost, disciple the saints, edify believers, and equip the churches through the usage of various media types. This ministry endeavors to reach every household to hear the Gospel of Jesus Christ so that all people may believe in Him by calling upon His name to be saved. Through spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ unto the whole world, we further endeavor to build ministries, to break down denominational, racial, cultural, and traditional barriers, and to help people overcome the attacks of the enemy.

The HSBN Magazine “Global Fire” is here and declaring God’s glory all over the world!

More are crying out for revival but there can be no revival without the preaching of the Cross and the Resurrection of Jesus Christ by the fire of The Holy Spirit of God!

The Gospel is not for debate.

The only solution or remedy is God’s transforming power through His Word. Dr. Andrew Bills, Apostle and Founder of HSBN always says, “Anyone not concerned about reaching the lost are lost themselves and in need of redemption!”

If you really read and hear the words of the Great Commission by Christ then you will come to the realization that casual Christianity is unacceptable to God.

Always seeking the face of the Lord in search of new and different ways to lead people to Christ and make worldwide disciples is clearly at the forefront of the Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network.

Thanks for reading and enjoy our magazine!

“Have You Ever Had A Negative Experience While Trying To Share Christ?”

BY APOSTLE DR. ANDREW BILLS

One day while going door to door to share Christ, a woman answered her front door who was very interested in the gospel of Jesus Christ. But, within moments she kept telling me to whisper because she didn't want her husband to know that she was listening to a preacher. So as I continued sharing, she constantly kept looking back over her shoulder in fear. So, I finally inquired as to what was the matter.

She told me that her husband hates preachers, the Bible and God and even threatens Christians throughout the city and again she motioned for me to whisper to her. As her face filled with fear and stress, I told her that Christ loved her and died to set her free. The more I shared, she cried and began to reach out for Jesus Christ. But, suddenly I began to hear this loud animal like growling in the background. Then she screamed “please run” and quickly motioned me away from the door. The sound grew louder, then as I backed up a few steps, her husband came bursting through the door like a manic to get me.

I quickly thought about The Apostle Paul and how he went from city to city preaching the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Some of the cities received his message but others threw him out and one even stoned him. What compelled him to later return to those cities, even the more hostile ones? It's the love of Christ Jesus which is shed in our hearts that compels us to go onward and take the good news to the world, even despite the dangers of persecution.

Romans 10: 13-14 NIV says, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?”

Rejection, slander, criticism, mockery, unkind words and ungodly gestures are just a few of experiences that no one likes having as you're trying to share the good news of Christ to people. Although you're concerned about their eternal life, because they're dead in their sins, they think that you're trying to shove your religion down their throats and may even attempt to say or do ungodly things to scare or stop you.

Having preached on the streets, door to door witnessing, park rallies and through a variety of other methods, while I've encountered numerous negative experiences, none can compare with the overwhelming joy when you lead a sinner to Jesus Christ or encourage a person, whose faith has been shipwrecked, to return back to the church and begin studying the Bible again.

Are you aware that all Heaven rejoices when a sinner comes to Christ? Heaven isn't moved by the NBA Finals, the World Series, the Stanley Cup or even the Academy Awards. No, all Heaven rejoices when a sinner opens his or her heart to Christ and a multitude of sins have been repented of and forgiven by God.

The reason for negative reactions to our witness is that people are bound in the sins in which they actually believe that they love or are held prisoner too and they don't want to be told or reminded of God's eternal judgment that's to come. They want to walk in their own will and have things their way, so they do all that they can, as they're influenced or led by Satan to try to withstand the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Continuing with my experience, repulsed by my message, the husband came bursting through the front door after pushing his wife to the side, growling like a wild animal in an attempt to scare me. He suddenly got right up into my face and angrily told me what he thought of God, the Bible, preachers and especially me.

I looked him straight in the eyes and told him about the love of Jesus and the blood that was shed on Calvary's Cross just for him. (I had earlier thought that if I'm going down, I'm going down lifting up my Lord and Savior).

He ceased the growling and told me that he was a Muslim and rejected the foolishness that Jesus was God. Again, I kept sharing Christ as his frightened wife kept watching from the door.

He finally shook my hand but said that he didn't want anything to do with Jesus, asked me to leave his premises, not to come back and walked away into the house. I stood out on his walkway and prayed for a few moments then left.

That next Sunday, the wife came to church with her teenage son and they both gave their lives to Jesus Christ. She told me that she knew her husband would be upset about it but she needed Jesus.

Again, although some people will be repulsed by us and our message, we must continue to share our hope with gentleness and grace and believe that Christ will change hardened hearts and set people free from their sins.

THEREFORE, HAVE FAITH IN GOD!

Diamonds In The Rain

By Evangelist Lisa Lomelin

Before the sparkle there was darkness all around me and my future, I was a lost depressed alcoholic. I had my first drink of alcohol when I was thirteen and oh man, I loved that buzzed feeling! Little did I know what was only meant for fun led me into becoming a functioning alcoholic. My life spiraled downhill at age twenty after meeting a man I thought loved me. Instead of loving me, I endured years of abuse, betrayal and had a broken marriage. I looked for happiness through partying and drinking, but it was all only temporary satisfaction. I was on my way to the pit of hell for all eternity. The sad thing is my children witnessed it all.

My children have seen me at my lowest moments panhandling in gas stations parking lots to being arrested because I was drunk in public. I endured homelessness with my children and ran out of food more than once.

My children and I used to stand in long lines at the Inner Faith and Salvation Army to receive food and diapers. In those hardship moments, I was not ready to surrender my life to God. I knew God was real. I knew God was the answer and yet I did not want Him. The enemy had me blind, locked up and dancing in a bottle of alcohol. Honestly, I was dancing with the devil. I became a car show model and a background dancer for rap videos. I thought dressing provocatively and hanging around celebrities was building my self-esteem. I now know this was a form of sexual exploration. The VIP life in the clubs with star rappers was a fun and flashy lifestyle until I was kidnapped and sexually assaulted by an upcoming rapper after a night of partying. I put myself in a lot of danger. And still I was not ready to surrender my life to God.

I am a mother of five amazing kids and their fathers were never around. I have raised my children on my own most of their lives and still am.

There are three different fathers of my children and I am not ashamed to share this because my past does not define my future! My past is a story for His Glory! In 2015, God allowed me to be arrested again but this time I wasn't getting out after detoxing in the Vista Conty Jail. This time I was booked and was facing eight years in prison. All I could think about was not seeing the faces of my children ever again. That feeling was the worst feeling I had ever felt in my life! I knew God was trying to get my attention and He did. I was being accused of a crime I didn't commit and this made me think of all the innocent people locked away in prison. This couldn't be happening to me but it was!

I cried out to God in my cell and I surrendered my entire life to Him! I felt the Holy Spirit come into my cell and into my chest. As I cried out, my spiritual language unexpectedly started coming out of my mouth!

This was one of the most precious moments that I have experienced with God since being a small child. I knew this was the power of God breaking the chains of alcohol and depression of me. Generational curses of gang life and trauma were also being dismantled due to both my parents previous gang related past. Growing up, I remembered my parents arguing, fighting, drinking and partying. But I also remember when they both walked away from the gang life and surrendered their lives to God.

As a child, my parents planted a seed in me. I was the kid on the playground that was leading kids to the cross. Unfortunately, during that time I also experienced a very traumatic event that affected me so much to the point my mouth closed to the things of God and at the young age of six years old I wanted to take my own life. Nevertheless, the moment I surrendered my life to God in my cell that seed that was planted in me as a child began to grow and speak. My mouth wasn't closed anymore. I was healed right there in jail. Scripture states, "Train up a child in the way he should go; even when they are older, they will not turn from it." Proverbs 22:6 ESV In 2019, my dad Pastor Freddie Lomelin and stepmom Pastor Nancy Lomelin asked me shared my testimony for the first time in Fresno, CA at their church Breakthrough Christian Church.

Today, I am an International Evangelist Prophetess with a lioness unique ROAR!!! Best-selling author, TV host, mentor, entrepreneur and the founder of my own family ministry Diamonds In The Rain.

My mom Jeanette helps me run my ministry. I'm so grateful for my parent's prayers over me. I recently just launched Diamonds In The Rain in Pakistan. I'm in the process of learning Spanish to go preach one day in Mexico. I believe in laying hands on the sick and casting out demons in Jesus name!

My children have seen me at my lowest moments in life but today they see me shining like the diamond that God always intended for me to be. I may not be perfect, but my God is perfect. Our home and family ministry are rare and unique. My book Diamonds In The Rain is my testimony of a single mother's journey under God's underserving grace over my life. I encourage people to read my story and tune in to my show to see the goodness of God! If He did it for me then He can do it for you!

I am a friend of God and very humble. My desire is to reach as many people as possible with the true Gospel of God and share my testimony for his Glory. Scripture states, "And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto death." (Revelation 12:11 KJV) I wrote my testimony Diamonds in The Rain in 2023 through Project I AM which became a best-seller on Amazon in six categories.

It took me two years to write my story, but you know what they say, it takes years to make a diamond! The hand of God is over my life. He has pulled me out of a pit of alcohol into the palace up unto a pulpit. By the favor of God, I became a TV broadcaster with HSN and CWWN networks. The name of my show is Diamonds in The Rain International. I have learned that there are Diamonds in the rain, meaning God will always show you the good from something bad. I know some may not agree with me but if you ask God what was the good from a bad storm, He will reveal it to you like He did for me! God has always shown me the unexpected sparkle in it all!

My Life

By Evangelist Anthony Brown

When I was 9 years old, I woke up one morning and found my mother laying on the living room floor with a gunshot wound to the head. Alcohol and domestic violence were common in our household and I am sure that these were involved and resulted in her almost dying.

Later, these two elements created a perfect roadmap to my demise. She did survive that day but the tempest inside of me was born. Comfort was my booze until the drugs showed me solace. I finally found a way to escape from my emotions. But to get away from the physical pain, I ran away from home at the age of fourteen. I didn't know that the problem was within me, so inadvertently, the problem never left.

Before, I was just another lost soul that was fortunate to be homeless for multiple years due to unresolved suppressed childhood trauma. For twenty-three years of my life from age 14 to 37, I was homeless both in Ohio and California. Writing this article has allowed me to reflect on my past life. I get to look back as to where I came from the journey it took to recover and the life that I have now.

During that time, I knew something wasn't right but I couldn't figure out what was wrong. I was sick and tired of being sick and tired but there was something going on inside of me that had developed from early childhood. The pain that I felt being in that situation was so intense that my dignity had to die for me to survive.

Throughout that part of my life, I got to visit the area of addiction, trauma, incarceration, as well as the byproducts that comes from that lifestyle, low self-esteem, low self-worth, isolation, and loneliness.

I understand that for some it may be uncomfortable with not having access to their basic hygiene needs such as soap and water or acquiring nutrition by eating out of dumpsters or not having a place of regular sleeping accommodations. Yes, it was painful on all levels: Mental, physical, emotional, and spiritual. But I have come to realize that I had to lose it all to gain everything.

I know that this sounds all too familiar because I have discovered that I am not the only one on this planet that has had this experience. Unfortunately, most don't make it out of that situation much less live to be able to articulate the story in which others can relate to. But I have and here I am.

I discovered the love and forgiveness of Jesus in 1999. I have been on this pathway to a new beginning since then. I found a new freedom, necessary in the form of money, psychological, or physical, but more spiritual.

To say that I found a relationship with God is an understatement; for those around me know this to be something almost beyond belief. I have captured most of those events in the book that I authored titled "From Park Bench to Park Avenue" in which I use to demonstrate the power of God in my everyday walk of life.

From the creation of that book, I have set upon a personal quest to do my part to resolve the homeless situation. I have firsthand knowledge of what it's like to live or shall I say survive that life. God has made me a new person and with that I want to share this with all that I am blessed to encounter. With almost 25 years living in a completely different light, I have been blessed with a new life that includes my Masters of Science Degree in Nursing.

With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, I was gifted the opportunity to purchase an abandoned mansion in Mansfield, Ohio that I refer to as Brown Manor. God has led me to implement a program that is a different approach towards resolving the homeless situation. I can honestly say that I have a new lease on life and for me to keep what I have it is imperative that I am of maximum service to others.

Compassion is one of the many fruits that I have received as a gift from my experience and with this comes the quietness of the heart, as well as a peace that surpasses all understanding.

As I sit today contemplating the completion of this article, I look at the tattered bible that I found in the trash can during my prison days of years ago. This one important gift that God has blessed me with as I found freedom in that cell has become the ongoing passage to my best friend Jesus. For 25 years, I have had this constant companion with me and still to this day, I find all the answers to the questions of the world as I see it today.

I want to leave you with a blessing that I have brought from those days and want to leave you all with a quote from within these scriptures. In James chapter 5 verses 10 - 11 that states:

"As an example, brethren, of suffering and patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. Behold, we count those blessed who have endured. You have heard the endurance of Job and have seen the outcome of the Lord's dealings, that the Lord is full of compassion and is merciful."

Lystra Inspires inspire, create, evolve

Rejected By Men Adopted By God

BY APOSTLE LYSTRA WILSON

Original Purpose

God knew us before we were born into this world. He planned the exact time when He needed us to enter and He chose our family of origin. Jeremiah 1:5 (NLT) tells us: “I knew you before I formed you in your mother’s womb. Before you were born I set you apart and appointed you as my prophet to the nations.” He knit us precisely in our mother’s womb to be who we are. 1 Corinthians

My Early Life

I was conceived as the result of an affair. I was then given up for adoption, following my birth with the request from my birth mother that I would only be given to a Christian family. This was miraculous considering my birth mother was a practicing Jehovah’s Witness at the time. During the adoption process, the Lord spoke to my mom-to-be during a Bible Study covering Acts 14. That night, the Lord told my mom to name her new baby girl, Lystra. At about 9 months of age, my Christian parents left the judge’s chambers with their new baby girl, and the signed adoption papers confirming Lystra as my new name.

Personal Revelation

It wasn’t until I was in my mid-40s that I discovered the true meaning of my Greek name. The Greek lexicon defines Lystra as follows: free; [to] loose, unbind, or disintegrate.

That [which] dissolves or disperses. This initial discovery instantly brought tears because I knew that I was more in spiritual, mental, and emotional bondage than freedom. I had accepted Jesus at the age of four, so it wasn’t salvation I was lacking, it was something deeper. The revelation of Truth (Jesus) gives us an opportunity to make a choice: Let it stay in our mind as information or allow it to saturate our heart for transformation. I had received Jesus but was never taught about relationship and intimacy with Him. Romans 12:1, tells us to submit to God as a living sacrifice. This means crucifying the flesh and separating ourselves from our sinful ways. This submission then renews our mind, which supplies the power for transformation (Romans 12:2). It was time for me to make a drastic change in my life and to discover the lane that God created specifically for me!

Biblically, Lystra was the birthplace of Timothy, the apostle. It was a place of education and enlightenment but it was also a place of persecution and courage. Paul and Barnabas went to Lystra preaching the Good News to unbelievers. They brought enlightenment about the things of God encouraging them in their faith. Jews, who were unaccepting of their message, stoned Paul and Barnabas dragging them outside of Lystra assuming they were dead. Not only did they arise from the stoning but they courageously went right back into the town returning later to make disciples and to set up godly leadership in the established church there.

My Testimony

Learning the meaning of my name, not only helped secure my Identity in Christ, but also gave me the strength to fight for my freedom. I had struggled my entire life, up to that point, with low self-esteem, clinical depression, victim mentality, pessimism, and lack of value. I was prescribed depression meds that never worked, so I stopped taking them, but still lived with the horrible symptoms. I thought these were simply the “cards I was dealt” and there was nothing further that could be done.

My mom gave that name to me by inspiration of the Holy Spirit. God knew that one day His baby girl, Lystra, would need to know that He called her FREE! I began to clean up things in my life that were not pleasing to God, repented of sin, renounced negative thoughts and words I was speaking and forgave those that had hurt me. Through this process, I was healed of all my soul wounds of rejection and abandonment, and miraculously delivered from the spirit of heaviness. Clinical depression left and has never returned! Praise God! I have learned one very important lesson: Never accept the diagnosis of man over the healing power of God!

My Purpose

I learned and accepted the meaning of my name. That prophesy of Lystra, now fulfilled in my life, transformed me into a cleansed temple of God where others can now come to be enlightened on the Good News. They can receive power from my ministry, to become loosed and unbound from the shackles that have been blocking their God ordained purpose and identity in Christ.

My Challenge to You

Purpose is only revealed through the process of securing our identity in Christ. We can only discover our identity by submitting to God and allowing Him to transform us. We cannot live like the world and expect to discover the deeper truth of the spirit. Do you know how valuable you are to God? Have you discovered your identity in Christ? Have you completely turned your back on the world’s ways and the devil’s lies? Are you walking in your God-ordained Purpose? If so, that is amazing! If not, why not exit the highway you’re on and turn it around TODAY? I’m here to partner with your choice to deepen your relationship with Jesus and move into your Purpose!

Come to Jesus, to repent for any sin in your life (known or unknown); forgive anyone who the Holy Spirit indicates (you may not be aware of some of them); and give God any fear, insecurity, or lies you have been believing. Allow the Father’s love to heal your soul in ways you may not have imagined. Once you “get real” with God and yourself — taking responsibility for decisions you have made and consequences you may have to face — God may then lead you to make amends with others you have wronged. This is a powerful healing process and we all must go through some version of this.

Get Real! on HSBN.tv and CWWN.tv

My program on Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network is called Get Real. I called it that because that’s what it took to recover my identity that the enemy stole from me at conception, and that’s what it will require from you as well — getting real with God, yourself, and others. I have real conversations about controversial topics, from a biblical perspective. My mission is to see people set FREE from demonic mindsets and practices that can cause them to be in spiritual bondage. Come and be a part of what God is doing in His Kingdom!

Sharpening Minds With The Sword Of The Spirits

By Pastor Richard Thomas

In his letter to the Ephesians, the Apostle Paul refers to the WORD of God as The “Sword of The Spirit.” In Hebrews 4:12 the WORD of God is said to be “...sharper than any double-edged sword, piercing even to the point of dividing soul from spirit...”

I was raised in an Christian household. From a young age, I believed that there must be a creator. At the age of twelve, I attended a summer camp with my church. I knew I was a sinner who needed a Savior and that according to the Bible, Jesus paid for those sins with His life on the cross and that Jesus was God himself. When we were offered the chance to be baptized with water, I was encouraged by a friend to be baptized. All I understood about baptism was by doing so I was saying in front of everyone that I was on Jesus’ team and not the devil’s.

When I rose up from the water, I became sad that my parents weren’t able to see me get baptized. What I didn’t realize at the time was that the adversary was trying to destroy my allegiance by sending doubt into my mind.

Over the next year, I found myself questioning things that I was hearing. Questions such as “Can I lose my salvation?” or “Once saved am I always saved?”

This resulted into questions like “I know what the Bible says but how do I REALLY know that what the Bible says is the truth?” At about 13 or 14 of age, I said to God, “I know what the Bible says and I want to believe it but I don’t know how to believe it for sure. I am going to try my best to live as upright as I can and IF you truly are who the Bible says you are, I know if I get too far off track you will pull me back to where you want me to be.”

Fast forward to the age of twenty-two by that time I felt lost. I was drinking with friends every weekend and smoking weed to try to numb the pain of being turned down by several girls that I had feelings for. Being rejected as a potential boyfriend was devastating to my ego. This came to its climax when a guy that was in my group of friends slept with someone that I had feelings for. I wasn’t just hurt, I was enraged. I decided I would slash one of his tires. I drove around planning how I would do it without being caught. It was during this time that God was trying to persuade me to leave it in his hands. I went through with it anyway and immediately felt like trash as soon as I had done it. I still believed there was a God but refused acknowledge him.

Months later while sleeping in bed, I fell into a dream. In my dream, I saw a young boy, maybe 3 or 4 years old, climbing a small rockwall in a play area.

As I watched him, I believed he was my son (something I desperately wanted in real life was a family of my own) and I felt the most complete peace I had ever felt in my life.

I saw him climbing on something that was too high, so I gently grabbed him and set him back on the ground saying “Alright that’s a little too high for you right now bud.” The dream suddenly ended and realizing that it was all a dream I immediately burst into tears and cried out “WHY GOD! Why would you allow me to experience such perfect peace and then rip it away from me!” God was up to something but I didn’t realize it yet.

Over the next few months, I came to learn that things weren't exactly as they seemed in the situation I felt betrayed in. I felt I had the right to be still be angry. On that Sunday, my cousins came to visit and invited me to my Grandmother's church which was couple cities away. The LORD had something in store for me that day.

After worship, the Pastor announced to the audience that the youth pastor would be giving the sermon. The youth pastor preached about anger, bitterness, and forgiveness. While he stood there preaching it was like he had been reading my thoughts. Step by step, he described everything I had gone through and had been feeling over the last several months. Much of it I kept to myself and had not discussed it with anyone else. In my mind I was asking myself "Is this what my parents meant when they said they felt God speak to them in the sermon?"

Silently, I was crying and asking "God is that you speaking to me?" In the message the Pastor explained that these burdens needed to be given to God. Right then, I suddenly had a vision of Jesus panting for breath on the cross in darkness. I said, "LORD I can't carry this weight by myself. It is too much for me to bear please carry this weight for me." As soon as I cried out to God, I immediately felt weight lifted off of my shoulders and when I turned my head I looked at my shoulders in utter amazement.

As I was staring at my shoulders, I heard a still small voice say to me, "You pride yourself on knowing everything you possibly can about the things you love....But you know almost nothing about ME." This statement hurt but it lit a fire in me to start reading and studying the entire bible because now I KNEW that Jesus is who the Bible says He is. Also I no longer had anger over what had happened.

Seven years later while working at HSBN, I was asked to be a guest on a show and afterward Apostle Andrew Bills, my boss said I needed to prepare to have my own show. I asked the LORD what the show would be called, He reminded me of all the unnecessary division and hurt I had seen in the Church because of misteachings that were well intended but misapplied. He showed me that when these things happened it was like taking the Sword of the Spirit but having knicks and dull spots in the blade that led to unintended injuries. To make sure we use the Sword in a sharpened manner we have to rely on the one who made the sword, The Swordsmith who is The Holy Spirit.

The Goal of the show would be to grow closer to God by better understanding His WORD. It took almost two and a half years for me to actually start recording but everything happens in God's timing. If God can do all this for me, I guarantee if you submit and seek His will, then he can do it for you too!

The Swordsmith

Testimony of Miracles

By Dr. Tony Davis

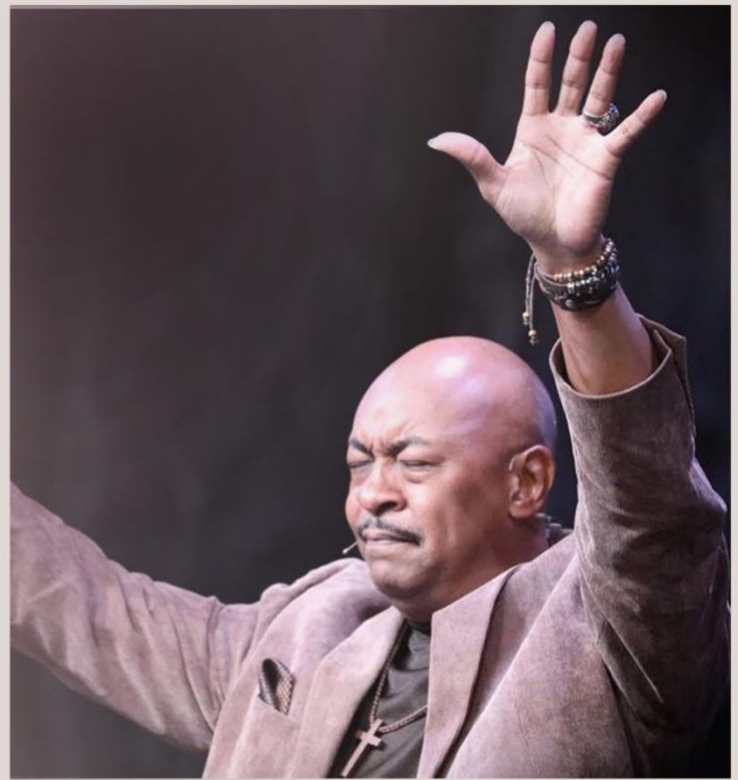

On the evening of June 30th, 2003, during a routine trip to pick up my wife Chriselda from work a harrowing incident occurred. I found myself unexpectedly caught in the crossfire of a gang-related shooting. The countless bullets mercilessly pierced my body left me riddled five wounds and ten bullet holes.

In the aftermath, I succumbed to death for what felt like an eternity only to be later informed that I had been gone for a total of 30 minutes. During this profound moment of passing, my guardian angel lifted my head from the ground initiated an extraordinary out-of-body experience.

As I ascended towards the heavenly clouds high above, a captivating scene unfolded before me. A window materialized in the sky, unveiling a vast city in the distance. Within this celestial metropolis, radiant sparkles of light danced freely, accompanied by the graceful movement of angelic wings.

The heavenly voice of the Holy Spirit resonated in me revealing the angelic beings as Archangels who eternally praised God. Amidst this heavenly chorus, the jubilant voices of the unknown yet familiar individuals mingled joyously. The symphony of nature enveloped me – the chirping of birds, the gentle cascade of a waterfall to my right and the soothing caress of a warm breeze from my left. In the heart of the city, a palpable aura of pure and boundless love emanated embracing me in its divine essence.

Suddenly a powerful voice which resonated from within me brought an unimaginable power and compassion in my spirit. It was the voice of God Himself! "Tony," He spoke softly yet authoritatively, "It is not your time yet to return." Overwhelmed by the splendor of the heavenly realm, I hesitated expressing my reluctance to depart from this realm of peace and light. However, God's divine will prevailed as He entrusted me with a profound message of forgiveness and triumph over adversity.

In an instant, a gust of wind swept through the celestial realm, propelling me backward with increasing speed. The rush of air filled my senses until, with a sudden jolt, I drew a deep breath and awoke to the tangible reality of the hospital room. Surrounded by medical personnel, I observed the flurry of activity as doctors and nurses hurriedly attended to my still body.

A senior physician preparing to cover me with a sheet recoiled in shock as I drew breath once more shattering the illusion of my passing.

As I lay there recovering from the ethereal journey, my gaze fell upon a long tube protruding from my throat, a stark reminder of the thin veil between life and the transcendent realms beyond. With a sense of peace washing over me, I closed my eyes and surrendered to the embrace of restful slumber.

I then remembered maybe a day or two later when I opened my eyes and saw my wife Chris standing beside my bed praying and crying simultaneously. I felt a pang of guilt seeing her in tears prompting tears to well up in my eyes as well. I closed my eyes and drifted back to sleep. Another day passed, and I recalled regaining consciousness to the cacophony of doctors conversing around me. One of the doctors solemnly informed me that I had endured a harrowing ordeal - I had been shot multiple times and had died. He explained to me that five bullets had pierced through me creating a total of ten bullet holes in my body. While shaking his head in disbelief, he left the room glancing at my medical chart.

Another doctor entered and delivered the heartbreaking news that due to the damage caused by one of the bullets to my Femoral artery in the left leg, my left leg tissue had died resulting in having to have my leg amputated despite all of their efforts to save my leg with a plastic stint.

Lying there in disbelief, especially after the heavenly encounter during my near-death experience, I felt an overwhelming and a confused feeling of joy and sorrow upon waking up alive on earth again.

Subsequently, the doctor explained the series of emergency procedures performed on various parts of my body. Unfortunately, an emergency tracheostomy had to be carried out, resulting in an accidental cut to my vocal cord, resulting in me losing my ability to speak or sing. However, they offered to implant a plastic voice box on the side of my throat for communication.

Devastated, I gazed at the wall and wept. That night, around midnight, I found myself in the amputation room, being readied for the surgical removal of my left leg. At the stroke of midnight, a profound calm enveloped the room, and I sensed the presence of God.

In a moment of divine communication, God's voice resonated within me, uttering a single word: "Forgive." Despite my initial anger and disbelief, I eventually surrendered with the understanding that forgiveness is a choice rather than a feeling. As I voiced my forgiveness, a warm sensation enveloped my body, starting from my leg and spreading throughout, leaving me with an inexplicable sense of wellness.

The following morning, I awoke to a strange sensation at the soles of my feet. Startled, I opened my eyes to find a crowd of medical personnel in awe as they discovered that my supposedly dead leg was miraculously alive. They swiftly moved me to another room for further examination.

The next day, a doctor visited me to evaluate my vocal cord. Intrigued by the inexplicable improvements in my body, he encouraged me to attempt to speak. My first attempt to speak failed but when I tried to speak again it led to a miraculous moment as I uttered the words "Jesus, my healer and my deliverer!"

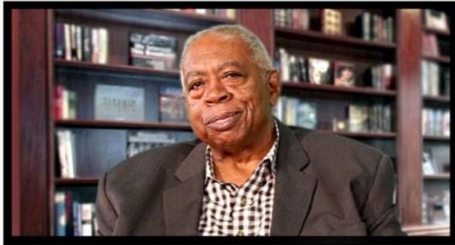

With skillful hands, the doctor repaired the hole in my throat, enabling me to speak and sing again. From that day forward and until my life up until now, I have been praising God for my healing and the miraculous events that has shaped and prepared my journey into my destiny and purpose.

CHRISTIAN MEN'S MINISTRY NETWORK

After the very successful launching of the Christian Women's Word TV Network at CWWN.tv, we have just launched the Christian Men's Ministry TV Network at CMMN.tv.

Our goal is to lead boys and men of all ages to Christ by impacting lives, transforming culture, and emptying prisons as we attack immorality, abusiveness, bring deliverance from drugs, and corruption, and help build spiritual endurance, mentor students, and train men how to become role models, leaders, husbands, and better fathers.

Make sure you tune in to watch CMMN.tv, which is another Global Outreach Division of the HSN network.
