Our Vision

Our Vision is to create, develop, and present good anointed, prophetic, inspired, and supernatural content in a spirit of excellence into every household around the globe, reconciling all people back to God, through Jesus Christ, by the power of The Holy Spirit.

Our Mission

We are led by The Holy Spirit of God to reach the lost, disciple the saints, edify believers, and equip the churches through the usage of various media types. This ministry endeavors to reach every household to hear the Gospel of Jesus Christ so that all people may believe in Him by calling upon His name to be saved. Through spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ unto the whole world, we further endeavor to build ministries, to break down denominational, racial, cultural, and traditional barriers, and to help people overcome the attacks of the enemy.

Who Are We?

The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network is led by God to reach the lost, disciple the saints, edify believers, and equip the churches through the usage of media. We accept the revelation of the Triune God given in the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments and confess faith in the Gospel message of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. We assert that the Biblical doctrines of salvation, grace, and faith are crucial to walking in God's love, victorious Christian living, and world evangelism. We will ensure that all participating individuals, groups, ministries, and churches will uphold the same values.

COVER STORY

By Apostle Dr. Andrew Bills

The HSNB Magazine "Global Fire" is here and declaring God's glory all over the world!

Many are crying out for revival, but there can be NO revival without the preaching of THE CROSS AND THE RESURRECTION of Jesus Christ, and that by the FIRE of The Holy Spirit of God! The Gospel is not up for debate. The only solution or remedy is the transforming power of God through His Word.

Apostle Bills always frequently says that, "Anyone not concerned about reaching the lost, are lost themselves and in need of redemption!" and that all preachers today need to have "a sense of urgency."

The match has been lit, will you help us fan the flame?

Always seeking the face of The Lord, in search of different or new ways to lead people to Christ and make worldwide disciples, is clearly at the front of The HSNB Movement.

Since then, we've experienced countless blessings and miracles by the hand of God. Supernatural doors have opened, as God's Divine Favor and Grace have been experienced as there have been numerous demonic oppositions and attacks.

But according to 1st John 4:4, "Greater is He that is in me, than he that is in the world."

Inside this introductory edition are the testimonies and accounts of lives of those that have been shattered, torn apart, broke down, suffered emotionally, faced tremendous discouragement, gone through divorce, experienced financial loss, buried children, and lived through a myriad of other gut-wrenching situations. But through faith in God, all have experienced their lives being transformed into ministries through which viewers are inspired, elevated, and empowered to arise from brokenness, confusion, and discouragement, and take hold of their God-given position of victory, one for which Christ died and rose again.

If you really read and hear the words of the Great Commission by Christ, then you will come to the realization that “casual Christianity” is “unacceptable” by God. Believers have been saved and filled by God’s Spirit to bear witness of Christ Jesus and make a difference in this world to impact the lives of countless others.

Since launching The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network on March 2nd, 2015, in less than 3 years, HSBN is being currently viewed or listened to in 185 Countries by over 50 million people via Internet TV & radio, the social media sites, our HSBN mobile app, our HSBN Roku Streaming Channel and by our HSBN Youtube Channel, AND WE’RE JUST GETTING STARTED!!!

Since then, we’ve experienced countless blessings and miracles by the hand of God. Supernatural doors have opened, as God’s Divine Favor and Grace have been experienced as there have been numerous demonic oppositions and attacks.

In the fall of 1996, I experienced a great love encounter with Jesus Christ. It wasn't long after this my whole life would go through a drastic change. I was completely set free from addiction and depression. I began to adjust my days to be about living for and serving the Lord. Church attendance, Bible Studies, and Ministry became my new normal. I loved it! I had found something worth living for and purpose was being awakened inside my heart. I was radically on fire for God and everyone I came in contact with knew it!

However, there have been times when my passion would start to fade and my love for God would begin to cool off. This would usually happen when a prayer I had been contending for would go unanswered or a trial in my life would last too long. Some examples include: My parents marriage that I was trusting God to restore sadly ended in divorce. The family member I was praying for and trusting God to save and heal didn't happen and even ended up in a worse state than before. Some people I had loved, trusted, and served in ministry with for many years had hurt me deeply. During these times I would feel disappointed, frustrated, angry, and at times rejected. At these times, it would feel as though a wet blanket would be thrown on my excitement for God.

Have you ever experienced anything like this? I believe many have! Our hearts could start to get cold and even bitter towards God, His church, and if not dealt with we start to shipwreck our own faith. Others times we try to continue to live for God because we know it's right. We look and even find a place and people that can offer us comfort and safety. However, any small trigger of past situations can quickly put a wet blanket on us and send us running. We can be tempted to eventually give up while carefully placing walls of self-protection around ourselves. This can become a rut or pattern we just can't seem to break out of.

However, the word of God offers us hope in these situations.

John 16:33 I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

God's plan isn't for us to live in a disheartened state. Jesus warned his disciples that they will have troubles in this world but to 'Take Heart' because He is the answer to these troubles.

I had experienced this very early in my walk with God. I had the opportunity to journey across Canada as a young woman. I was certain God had sent me to evangelize the small province of Prince Edward Island. I went by faith with a friend of mine who originated from there and we were planning to stay there for about two months. We booked our flights with no extra money to show of. We were certain God would take care of us. I quickly became employed at a beautiful seasonal resort near the ocean known to have filmed TV shows and even hosted royalty. I was able to live in the staff quarters and I had weekends off for touring around the province and visiting churches. It was perfect...well, almost!

I quickly found out the staff I was living with was really a chapter out of my life before I knew God. There was plenty of alcohol, drugs, and party scene all around me. I couldn't escape it! How was I going to evangelize in this situation? Was coming here a mistake? Would I somehow get tempted and go back to a life of addiction? Disappointment and frustration quickly set in. Then I remembered Jesus' words, 'Take Heart...I have overcome the world!' This sparked a glimmer of hope inside my heart.

Most days while working at the resort, I worked a split morning and evening shift. This meant I had every afternoon free. Looking to escape my living quarters, I would take my Bible and walk over to a small pond with a bridge nearby. It was a quiet place with no one around. For about two hours, I would walk and pray and read my Bible. I would pray for many things including God's presence to keep me and protect me, salvation of people on the island, for encounters and miracles to take place and so on. I would pray in the Spirit and pray with my understanding (1 Corinthians 14:15). At times, I would just practice exalting and worshipping God. Unbeknownst to me, I was learning how to get in the "secret place" with God.

Matt 6:6 (NIV) But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

This afternoon getaway was actually teaching me how to find this 'Secret Place'. As I drew close to the Father, disappointment and frustration started to disappear. God's presence felt strong in my life. An inner resolve rose up to passionately pursue God and His plans and purposes for me that summer. I was drawing close to God and he was drawing close to me (James 4:8).

I love the way the Message Bible translates this verse;

Matt.6:6 (MSG)
“Here’s what I want you to do: Find a quiet, secluded place so you won’t be tempted to role-play before God. Just be there as simply and honestly as you can manage. The focus will shift from you to God, and you will begin to sense his grace.”

When we discipline our lives to get away from the noise and distractions of the world just to be with God...He will heal our hurts and disappointments. He will also re-ignite our passion and purpose that brings joy and adventure in our lives. God’s Word promises...He will reward us when we come into this secret place.

Back to my story...what was my reward? On a personal level, my passion and purpose was restored. I was not tempted at all to go back to the things God had previously set me free from. Once again, I was excited to talk to anyone who would listen about God. I quickly discovered and started learning about hearing the voice of God and even how to prophesy. I received several unexpected monetary blessings. Several young adults who had either never known God or had walked away from him years’ prior, came into relationship with Jesus Christ and the church as a direct result of us reaching out to them. We saw people healed and encounter God’s presence for the first time. What a summer of adventure!

This set a foundation for my whole life. Trials and troubles have come in my life just as I’m sure it has for many of you. I have made it a part of my life to remember to always go back and dwell in the secret place. As you saw in my story, the secret place not only helped me on a personal level. But, it also was a part of the story of the lives we touched and helped restore back to God.

Throughout Psalm 91, David the psalmist is actually explaining and reminding himself about God’s loving protection and His saving and delivering power. However, if we are to receive this we must remember how important it is to ‘dwell in secret place of the Most High God’. The word ‘dwell’ in Hebrew actually means to sit, to remain, to dwell or live in.

Psalm 9:1-2 (NKJV) He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”

Watch Sheri's show "Equip" at hsbn.tv, on Roku, and YouTube.

To sum it up, as we spend time in the secret place of God’s presence the following happens:

1. We will become more aware of God’s active and loving presence in our lives.
2. Negative emotions such as: frustration, disappointment, discouragement, and even hurts will start to be washed away.
3. Hope and purpose will be ignited and/or restored in our hearts.
4. We will be empowered to help others encounter the goodness of God.
5. God will reward us and fill us with a renewed sense of joy and adventure.

I believe God is looking for people who desire to spend time in His presence and really just love on Him. James 4:8 encourages’ us as we come near to God, He promises to come near to us. Let’s not allow our love for God to grow cold due to temporary circumstances in our lives. Scripture warns us that this will happen. (Matt. 24: 12-13, Rev.2:4) However, as we purposefully take the time to shift our focus off ourselves and onto God, it sets us up for a life full of great adventures with God. What an amazing secret!

Is Gluten-Free For Me?

with Joyce Goodman

Hello! My name is Joyce Goodman, and I am so thrilled & grateful to be a part of The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network on www.hsbn.tv. I am overjoyed to be able to share vital information on how you can live a healthier, joy-filled life, with the help of the most perfect manual ever written, The Holy Bible! Indeed, it's a blessing beyond belief.

The purpose of 'Good Health, God's Way' is to share ideas, recipes, & messages from the Author of the Manual – our dear Father in Heaven, to help you get on the right health track in a positive and loving manner.

Do you realize that for the most part, you are the result of every 'yes' or 'no; you have said throughout your life? It's true! It's time to start living your life God's Way – in Good Health. What exactly does that mean? It means that God gave us specific directions on how to live long and healthy lives.

In Genesis 1:27 we read: "So God created man in his own image" But then man came along and invented pesticides and chemicals to make His perfect food last longer and grow bigger, then man super-sized our portions and we became bigger!

Do you think God is pleased when He sees some of us being 'super-sized'? What do you think

He thinks when he sees that our precious children have statistics showing that the rise of diabetes and obesity "diabesity" is in epidemic proportion?

Hosea 4:6 tells us that "people perish for lack of knowledge". It has been my absolute passion to find ways to help people find information that will help bring people back to the way God intended them to be and live. I have seen and experienced too much loss due to illness. I have prayed to be led by the Holy Spirit to find ways to help change the course of ill-health and disease in people.

As we read in Colossians 3:10, I pray that you will join me and 'put on the new self' which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator.

In each issue of 'Global Fire', I will offer health tips, encouragement and recipes to help you. You don't know what healthy is until you truly ARE!

So, let's get started! Here is one of my favorite family recipes – Lasagna! It's really healthy & delicious. I call it "'Less on Ya' Lasagna." It's much lower in calories but really tasty. Your family will love it, and it is gluten-free!

"Less on Ya' Lasagna"

Prep Time: 40 minutes

Cooking Time: 1 - 2 hours (depending on squash cooking method)

Oven Temp: 375 degrees

Serves: 6 to 8

Ingredients:

1 - 2 zucchini squash, sliced thin, lengthwise (you will need just enough to cover the bottom of the dish, with a bit of overlapping. If you have zucchini left over, it makes a great snack). I like using a mandolin slicer for even slices.

1 large spaghetti squash, cooked, pull the flesh into strings with a fork.

2 cups fresh spinach

Marinara Sauce (recipe to follow)

Ricotta Cheese Filling (recipe below)

4 cups shredded mozzarella cheese - you can purchase the mozzarella in a ball and shred it yourself, or buy the package of shredded cheese.*

9 X 11-inch baking dish

*Warning for gluten free dieters. Some manufactures add gluten to shredded cheese to keep the cheese from clumping.

Directions for Cooking the Squash: To BAKE the squash, preheat oven to 375 degrees. Wash squash and prick skin with fork on all sides. Place in a baking pan and bake until fork-tender, which is about 1 hour depending on size of squash. Let it cool and then cut in half.

After baking, cut squash in half, remove seeds. Using tines of a fork – drag fork down each half of the baked or boiled squash. Voila! You have created “spaghetti”! Place spaghetti on a platter, blot with paper towels to absorb extra water. There will be approximately 3 cups of spaghetti. You can also clean and dry out the seeds, sprinkle with some sea salt and toast – yummy! The seeds are great on a salad or eaten as a snack.

Marinara Sauce: Prepare this sauce while the squash is cooking.

Ingredients:

2 onions, chopped

2 garlic cloves, diced

2 tablespoons balsamic vinegar

2 tablespoons Madhava® coconut sugar

1 tablespoon dried oregano

1 tablespoon of basil

2 - 28 oz. cans crushed tomatoes

1 small can tomato paste

Salt to taste

Lemon pepper to taste

Preparation:

Sauté onions & garlic in olive oil until translucent

Add tomato paste and crushed tomatoes

Add vinegar, sugar & seasonings. Sugar cuts down on the acidity of the sauce

Let simmer while you are preparing your Ricotta Cheese Filling

Ricotta Cheese Filling

Ingredients:

2 cups ricotta cheese There are dairy-free cheese alternatives like pine nut ricotta – check with your local natural foods market

1 teaspoon coarse garlic powder

1 teaspoon coarse onion powder

1/2 teaspoon lemon pepper

1/2 teaspoon salt

Preparation: Mix ricotta cheese, garlic, & onion powder together along with the lemon pepper and salt.)

Putting it all together:

Divide the Marinara Sauce into fourths, the mozzarella cheese into thirds and the Ricotta Cheese Filling in half.

Use a 9 X 11- inch baking dish and spread 1/4 of the Marinara Sauce on the bottom of the pan.

Layer the zucchini, sides touching, until the sauce on the bottom of dish until it is covered.

Evenly spoon 1/2 of the Ricotta Cheese Filling over the zucchini layer. Next, spoon 1/4 of the Marinara Sauce over the Ricotta Cheese Filling and layer with 1/3 of the mozzarella cheese. Layer the spaghetti squash over the mozzarella cheese, repeat with the remaining Ricotta Cheese Filling. Top with a 1/4 of the Marinara Sauce and layer with a 1/3 of the mozzarella cheese.

Layer spinach over the mozzarella cheese and top with the remaining Marinara Sauce. Make the final layer with the rest of the mozzarella cheese.

Bake uncovered at 375 degrees for about 30 minutes or until cheese is golden brown.

Love & Blessings, Joyce

Cathy Coppola International Ministries & House of Glory Church

with Pastor Cathy Coppola

Whenever I think of Pastor Cathy Coppola, Spiritual Warfare, Deliverance, and Healing come to mind. Learning to walk in the supernatural and be yielded to The Holy Spirit of God to minister healing, deliverance, and salvation to broken lives did not just automatically happen. It has come through many years of trusting The Lord despite the all the pains, sorrows, grief, and tears in her own life.

From the fire of adversity to the fire of His Love, she teaches people how to get ignited through God's Word and soar at the level God desires, to be contagious for Jesus Christ. She faithfully declares, "If you allow Him to walk through your pain, you will encounter Him in inexpressible ways beyond what this world has to offer."

Her broadcast, "Where the Fire Meets the Clouds," can be seen online daily at The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network, at www.hsbntv.com, and on Youtube, and on the HSBN Roku Streaming Channel. With a strong healing, deliverance and prophetic gifting, God is sending her to the nations to release His kingdom authority and power to churches, cities, and regions. She has ministered abroad in South America and Africa speaking at Women's Conferences and praying for the sick.

Pastor Cathy Coppola is the Founder of "Cathy Coppola International Ministries" and senior pastor of her church, "House of Glory." Her weekly services are full of the demonstration of the power of the Holy Spirit, as He floods the meetings with signs, wonders, healing, and deliverances. A ministry where the physically sick are healed, the emotionally hurting are restored, those bound by demonic spirits are set free, and families are reconciled to their Heavenly Father's original design. The Lord has done tremendous things in and through her life. She has spoken many times that she is grateful to the Lord for her beginnings and will never forget what the Lord has brought her through.

The Years of Testing- "Will You Trust Me No Matter What?" These were the words the Lord asked her during the many years of spiritual warfare against her family. She responded, "Yes, Lord, no matter what. I am the handmaiden of the Lord. My life is yours." With that affirmation to the Lord, again she was stretched and tested to extreme measures. But by the grace of God, she never let go of His hand.

At that point, she had what she refers to as her "Job dream." Like in the book of Job when he was tested in every way. Satan came to the Lord and said to him, "What about Cathy? Sure, she loves you. Sure, she worships you. But cause her kids to go haywire, destroy everything that is important to her. Then let's see if she loves You?" She woke up from the dream, thanked the Lord for giving her a heads up at what the enemy was planning and told the Lord regardless of what she would have to go through, "I will love You and serve You no matter what!" For 12 years the testing did not stop, but the encounters also increased. She discovered that she was being carried along by her Father. She has learned and continues to declare, "When your greatest pain meets the greatest love of all, the love of our Heavenly Father, a collision occurs in the atmosphere and your spirit becomes awakened to Him."

The Prayer Meeting Began January 2010-

She started the prayer meeting with the two people the Lord told her to invite. Her family was under a massive demonic attack at the time. She contended for her family and the families the Lord brought to her. The Lord told her to bring her guitar and start with worship. Years later they outgrew the room they were in and had to move to a large room. The Lord told her to bring a message and teach them. In fear and trembling, she obeyed. The meeting continued to grow. The Lord told her to have altar calls. She obeyed, and people started being set free! The Lord spoke to her "You will teach and preach, but you will be known for signs and wonders." From A Prayer Meeting to A Miracle Service The Lord told her to call the prayer meeting a Miracle Service. She obeyed. The miraculous began happening. Healings and deliverances grew each week.

Her Cry in 2015- "Lord, bring me the gays, the prostitutes, the drug addicts. The ones the church doesn't want and doesn't understand." The Lord began answering her prayer and one by one they started coming to her Miracle Service on Thursday mornings and getting set free!

The Birthing of "House of Glory" May 6th, 2017, on her birthday and spiritual birthday, she planted her first church, "House of Glory!" She holds two services each week, Thursday mornings at 10 am and Saturday nights at 6 pm!

She pastors at House of Glory, an apostolic church where the miraculous invades earth, a church of His presence, His healings and His miracles. An Apostolic church raising up an army of believers who walk in holiness, usher in His glory, release signs, and wonders, preach the Word of God and establish churches throughout the nations. It is her passion to minister to people and gets them filled with the Holy Spirit and set free by His captivating love. Mark 16:17 is their foundational verse. She travels abroad and ministers the Word of God and heals the sick and sets those bound by the demonic free by the power of the cross of Christ.

HSBN - Phoenix Is On Fire

with Directors - Pastors Jerry & Brenda Iacovelli

My husband Jerry and I moved to Phoenix, Arizona a year ago from Southern California. We had followed the leading of the Lord when the opportunity presented itself to oversee the new HSBN television and radio studio in Arizona. God provided the space and had told us to come but you could not help but wonder how it was all going to work out. After the construction stopped we had both a radio and television studio. You could feel the excitement in the air. God was up to something and it felt big.

We began to meet the amazing people and ministries from the local Phoenix area. We soon realized that Arizona has a lot going on for ministry. We have met former NFL players who pastor, people who minister to millennials, people making a difference to the unwanted living on downtown streets, people who lead worship, teachers who make the Word come alive, women that minister to other women trying to pick up the pieces of their life. We sometimes sit in awe of the mighty men and women of God who are so powerful in the kingdom and yet so warm and unassuming when you meet them.

Many times after taping a program, people will minister and pray for each other.

We have come to realize that there is a storm brewing in the atmosphere over Arizona. It is a Holy Spirit fire storm and HSBN Phoenix will be right in the middle of it. Jesus is coming soon and we have the privilege of broadcasting fire to the world from the desert of Arizona. Stay tuned!

Deeper Waters Today – is a very dynamic 30-minute talk show in which Brenda invites some of the most interesting, unusual, or even controversial believers in to discuss hot topics, current issues, family concerns, and amazing testimonies.

Some of her guests have been former motorcycle gang members, a woman that survived an airplane bombing at 30,000 feet, former inmates now preaching the Gospel, and a host of many other exciting guests. She had a great interview program featuring a singing family group called, “The Broken Chair Band.”

Brenda, along with her husband Jerry, are also the Associate Pastors of Bible Christian Church, 2860 East McKellips Road, Suites #5, Mesa, AZ 85213. This congregation receives all that enters in the Spirit of God’s Love. The Church was founded and is being pastored by her father, Rev. D.D. Williams.

Pastor Williams has an extensive history in ministry, having spent many years as a world traveling Evangelist, operating under the anointing of The Holy Spirit, preaching God’s Word. His rich history not only includes crusades throughout the United States, but amazing miracles were done by God through his hands throughout many areas of African Continent.

Jacquelin Priestley is an ordained minister of the Gospel, and is regularly invited to speak for various chapters of AGLOW International Ministry. She has also taught internationally in Romania, Kenya, Zambia, and New Zealand. Her weekly teaching program is called HIS HEALING WORD and featured on www.HSBN.tv. She is also a regular panel member on the show A VIEW from the UPPER ROOM, also featured on www.HSBN.tv

Jacquelin is the author of HIS WORD HEALED ME, published in 2010. Her book is endorsed by Senior Pastors Bayless and Janet Conley of Cottonwood Church in Los Alamitos, California, featured in his June 2010 Father's Day message, it quickly became Cottonwood bookstore's all-time fastest selling book for eleven straight months. To date, it remains one of Cottonwood's most asked-for and recommended books on healing. It is also available in Spanish, and 5,000 copies were produced in Arabic and distributed throughout seven countries in the Middle East in 2012.

It is also in audio-book form at cdbaby.com/cd/jacquelinpriestley, and is also available on Kindle.

Her book chronicles a remarkable journey of hope and healing through a medical diagnosis that threatened loss of a vital organ. Her fiercely passionate grasp of the revelation explained in Hebrews 4:12 – that God's Word is literally alive and full of power – enabled her to receive astonishing answers to prayer, despite the prognosis of five oncologists. Vulnerable, candid, and humorous in the way she shares, readers consistently comment the book is extremely relatable, an easy read, and something they refer to again and again.

Those who have heard Jacquelin preach know she is passionate about Jesus as our Healing Savior today. Her often humorous, straightforward, “make-it-plain” teaching and preaching style brings unique and powerful illumination to the Word of God. People often comment that she makes the Scriptures make sense and she inspires great faith in those who hear her.

Packing at the Pulpit: This Man of God May Arm Himself to Protect His Flock

By Archbishop Council Nedd II

As a law enforcement officer, I can and do carry a gun almost anywhere, but I never take it to my other workplace – a church. Besides being a state constable, I'm also a church rector and an Anglican bishop. I am, however, rethinking that personal gun ban for the greater good.

My reconsideration began while I was trying to enjoy my post-church nap. I was awoken by multiple chirps from my phone. People were texting me about another church shooting. Some craven individual – for motives still not entirely known – opened fire in a scared space in Sutherland Springs, Texas – killing dozens and injuring more.

It's shocking that, in a nation founded on the idea of religious freedom, there are monsters out there who now think it's fair game to target people of faith with deadly force. I'm no stranger to religious bigotry and the condescension of non-believers, but recent church shootings like those in Charleston, South Carolina; Antioch, Tennessee and this latest one in Sutherland Springs bring intolerance to a frightening new level.

When I previously assessed my duties as a law enforcement officer, priest and bishop, I decided not to carry my pistol with me when participating in Sunday services. I made this choice at my own personal peril because I have recently received credible personal threats and routinely come across people I've arrested.

This is also despite the fact that, in my capacity as an officer, I have provided protection at synagogues and churches concerned about the safety of their congregations. But, until now, I didn't think it was appropriate for me and my church.

I've always seen my job as a bishop as that of an overseer. That's why a bishop carries an ornate staff called a crozier. Like a shepherd, it's his duty to collect the flock and guide it clear of the wolves.

From the founding of my parish, St. Alban's, in the mid-1970s, we usually left our doors unlocked. That changed about five years ago. The sad fact is that people are more willing to ignore, defile, and deface sacred spaces these days. The lines that no one would dare cross before now largely go unacknowledged.

Maybe the crozier is no longer enough.

At Sutherland Springs, there were good guys with guns. Residents near the First Baptist Church heard the shooting, grabbed their guns and came to the defense of the congregation. This effort undoubtedly saved innocent lives. Similarly, in Antioch, an usher confronted the assailant and tried to wrestle the gun away.

While liberal politicians and activists immediately took to social media to call for more restrictions on guns, it's obvious they fail to understand how a gun can also serve as a tool of salvation.

A pistol in the pulpit may sound extreme, but – when people of faith increasingly appear to be targets of armed evil – a good shepherd must do what he must do to protect the flock from the wolves. From my perspective as both a bishop and a cop, people must be protected. This includes in sacred spaces. In the coming days, I'll be speaking with the members of my parish and examining our approach to future safety and security.

"30 Inspirational Quotes To Feed Your Spirit"

From The Director, Bishop Dr. Kazumba Charles

1) God has made us kings and priests, not for decorative purposes or so we can feel good about ourselves, but for the demonstration of His kingship.

2) Inside of you resides the fire of the Holy Spirit and the light of the glory of God that need to burn brighter to the world so people can see Jesus in you and through you.

3) There isn't anything humble about not doing what God has commissioned you to do. To set aside God's will to appease others is false humility.

4) Humility is responding to the Word of God by doing what it says you are to do out of love for God and people and with consideration for others.

5) Sitting and doing nothing or saying nothing isn't humility at all; it's a destroyer of your destiny.

6) If you don't fight for your destiny, no one will fight for you.

7) When you know what you want in life and know that the God of all power and strength is with you, no criticism, opposition, or negative words can stop you.

8) As long as your intention is to bring glory to the name of God, help others, and build up the body of Christ, you should never be discouraged by any storms of life that come in the form of criticism, resistance, rejection, and hostility. You must fight all those things to reach your destiny and fulfill your call in life.

9) Show me a person who has never failed in life, and I will show you a person who is scared to try anything new in life.

10) Courage does not come by listening to negative, fearful, and timid people.

11) Your testimony is crucial because it tells the enemy God is powerful enough to turn your mess into a message, your test into a testimony, and your tribulations into a great triumph.

12) When you are going through the challenges of life, don't see yourself as a victim or a failure; see yourself as God sees you—a victor.

13) Your testimony is powerful, and it can help you have courage in the face of adversity because it reminds you of the miraculous deeds of God and His matchless strength and power.

14) Our God is full of power, and His eyes are like a blazing fire (Revelation 1: 14; 2:18), so why fear man or Satan? If God is with you, who can be against you or stop you from carrying out His purposes (Romans 8:31)?

15) No one is stopping you from becoming what God created you to be, and no one is stopping you from using your gift—but yourself.

16) It's only through the Word of God and sound doctrine that we are able to revive our faith in God and connect to His power.

17) Knowing how to connect to the power of God during adversity is critically important. Being "religious" alone cannot help you in difficult times. You have to know God and connect your heart, soul, mind, spirit, and body to Him through fellowship, prayer, worship, praise, and your testimony of Him.

18) When you are in a storm, remember God's plans for your life and what His Word says concerning you and all His promises to you, and let that be the anchor of your soul and of your faith in God.

19) Not knowing who you are in God and what you can do through Him can make you a "fake," a person who seeks attention, tries to please others, and is easily manipulated by people.

20) We make a grave mistake trying to find our identity through people or through our careers, titles, or gifts. Our identity cannot be found in any of those things; it can be found only in God, our Creator.

21) When you know who you are in God, you won't compromise the calling of God upon your life just to gain man's approval or to gain wealth or popularity, because it doesn't profit a person to gain the whole world and forfeit his soul (Mark 8:36).

22) One way to kill our kingdom calling, mission, and purpose in life is by dancing to the tune and music of Satan's fake promises. He promises power, fame, wealth, recognition, and influence only to trap people in His evil schemes and kill their true identity in God.

23) Don't fall for Satan's fake promises because in God and with God you have all that He tries to offer you. Set your eyes on God and on the kingdom of God, and you shall be lifted up and blessed in every area of your life.

24) Kingdom power is not for showmanship or self-importance or dominating others.

25) You should be able to live for God, proclaim His gospel, and declare His goodness with or without money, ministerial position, or title—that is true dedication and commitment to God.

26) People may have their own perception of you and tell you who they think you are, but at the end of the day what matters is what God says about you and not what people say you are.

27) One of the great characteristics of God is that He is able to use any willing soul to do the work of His kingdom, regardless of the person's culture, race, nationality, or education.

28) Jesus used His kingdom power to set the captives free, not to oppress or look down upon the very people He was sent to save.

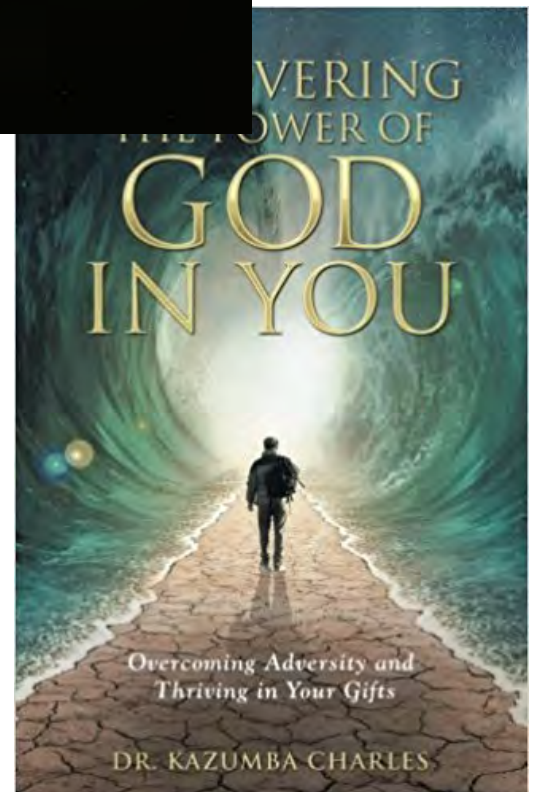

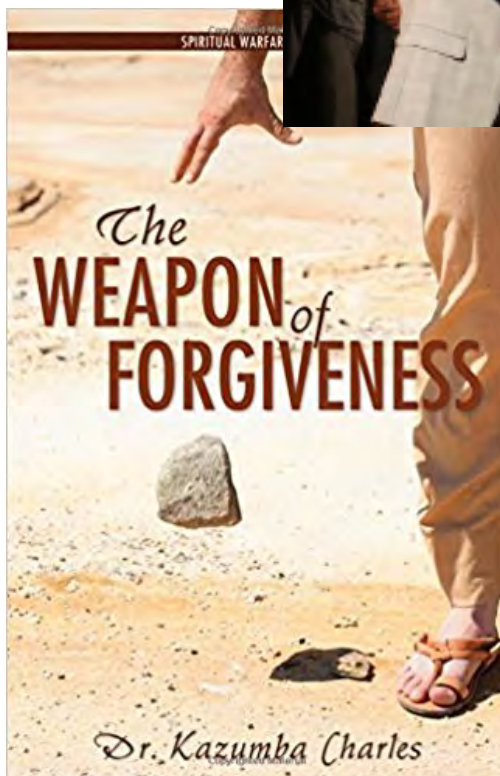

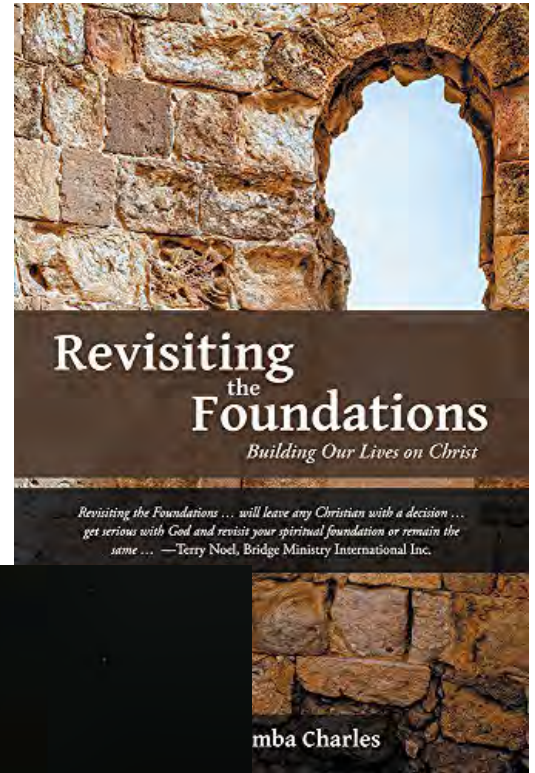

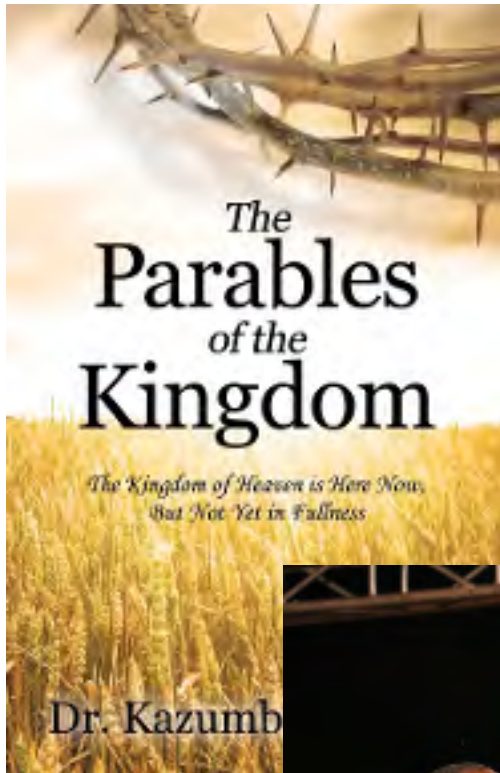

29) God wants to use you, not because you are the most qualified, holy, or gifted person on the planet, but because His grace specializes in transforming what man has labeled useless or foolish into powerful instruments of the good news of His kingdom in order to shame the spiritually and religiously wise people of the world.

30) This is your season and time to rise above every setback and challenge and become all God destined you to be. Let the Holy Spirit rule and reign in you, and you will live a successful and fruitful life in the Lord. With God's power you can do and be all He has called you to do and be and thrive in His presence.

Four Slippery Steps To Adultery

By Nancy C. Anderson

At work and church, in our neighborhoods and during our daily activities we all encounter people of the opposite sex who are attractive. That's not the problem. Our selfish choices after the attraction create the problem. Adultery has a progression and most people (even Christians) take these steps before they slide down the slippery slope.

I know, because I chose this dark path when I left my husband for a coworker named Jake. I know the lies I told myself, the selfish decisions that broke my husband's heart and the sins I committed. I also know the healing and restoration that took place when I confessed, broke off the affair, and found forgiveness from my husband and God. Although I have healed, there are scars that remain, even 37 years later, so I pray you will learn from my mistakes as you consider these progressive elements of adultery.

An Unguarded Mind

This is the "What if...." stage where your thoughts begin to grow unchecked. You may ask yourself questions like "I wonder if he thinks I'm attractive?" or think "I hope she sits near me during the meeting."

Perhaps you try to manipulate your schedule or activities to create more opportunities for contact. Nothing inappropriate has happened yet, but you think about the possibilities. If you allow this to continue, your emotions will grow, the fantasies will take root, and you'll think about the other person in romantic or sexual situations.

Solution: If an inappropriate thought pops into your head, do NOT allow it to linger. Quickly remove yourself from any tempting situations. Follow the advice in Proverbs 7: 25 "Don't let your desires get out of hand: don't let yourself think about her." Look up Philippians 4:8 and learn how God want us to think.

An Unguarded Heart

This is the stage where your emotions run wild and you begin to lie to yourself. (In my case, I told myself "I deserve to be happy.") You may start to build emotional bonds with the other person by creating excuses to spend time together. You may try to increase the positive contact and do things to please him or her. Example: If he mentions that he likes red: you may be tempted to wear a red dress or if she talks about a favorite flower, you may want to bring her one.

Solution: Ask the Lord to help you get control of your emotions and to give you a clean heart, which seeks after Him. "Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded."(James 4: 8)

Consider the negative consequences if this flirtation continues: your spouse's pain, loss of respect from children, friends, and relatives, and financial losses. You may need to confess your temptation to your spouse or a trusted friend who will hold you accountable because dark secrets have less power when you bring them into the light.

An Unguarded Mouth

This step includes verbal flirtations and taking the relationship beyond theory into reality. Perhaps you begin by offering or responding to personal compliments such as, "You are the perfect match for me" or "When I'm with you, the rest of my life fades away."

Knowing that compliments are like magnets, you begin to form an attraction and create a verbal intimacy that includes whispers, code words, pet names, and intimate secrets. This can also include flirtatious or sensual/sexual email conversations and texts.

The next verbal step is to talk about the "what if's." For example, "If I weren't married, you'd be my soul mate." "I wish I'd met you before I got married." Jake and I used to imagine our future together: "If we could run away together, where would we go?"

Then the negative words about your current mate begin:

- "My husband treats me like a maid and never compliments me."
- "My wife just treats me like a paycheck and I'm not attracted to her anymore."
- "My wife/husband and I are just roommates and if it weren't for the kids, I'd have left years ago."

Solution: Focus on the good things in your marriage and try to compliment your mate at least once a day. Be aware that any emails or texts you send are not truly private. If you would be ashamed to have your pastor or mother read it, don't type it. "Let no corrupt word proceed out of your mouth." (or keyboard) (Eph 4:29)

An Unguarded Body

This is the step where emotional adultery becomes physical. Some people think that only intercourse defines adultery, but I strongly disagree. If you have intimate, sensual contact, with someone other than your spouse, it is a breach of your marriage vows. Ask yourself, "if my actions were photographed, would they condemn me?"

I know how exciting the forbidden kiss is and how electrifying the stolen, passionate caress is but also know how costly they are because I almost lost everything, including my marriage. I walked away from my relationship with Christ as I chose to follow my selfish heart into sin. But I, like the prodigal son, came to my senses as I ran back to the Lord and He welcomed me home.

Then I begged my husband's forgiveness, broke off all contact with Jake, and rebuilt my marriage. Ron and I now help couples see that no marriage is beyond God's ability to heal. For our full story read "Avoiding the Greener Grass Syndrome: How to Grow Affair Proof Hedges Around Your Marriage" or watch our show "Growing Healthy Marriages" on HSNB.tv

Solution: If you've already crossed the line, stop all contact with the other person, confess your sin, ask for God's forgiveness, and follow the instruction in Romans 12:1 "Present your bodies as a living sacrifice to God." Then read and comply with 2 Corinthians 7:1 "Since we have these promises, dear friends, let us purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, perfecting holiness out of reverence for God".

PRAYER: Oh Lord, purify my mind, my heart, my mouth, and my body. I want to be a clean vessel, always ready for your use, available to serve your purposes. Deliver me from evil as I flee temptation and run to the shelter of your outstretched arms. I want to be holy and set apart for you Lord. Help me to stand strong and bring honor to you and my family. Through the power of Jesus' name, I ask these things, Amen.

From Ashes to Beauty

A Ministry Moment with Sheryl Giesbrecht Turner

"They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the Lord for the display of his splendor."

Isaiah 61:4

Follow Sheryl on her social media!

God will rebuild the ashes of our losses. He will restore, renew and regenerate our lives. I came across Isaiah 61:3 at a time when I didn't think I had anything to offer God in ministry. Isaiah 61:3 says, "to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes the oil of joy instead of mourning, a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair."

I am a delivered drug addict, a stage four cancer survivor and a former widow. I looked the verses over and was struck by the truth that God can remake our ashes into beauty if...we are willing. I needed to be obedient and surrender to God. It was up to God remake my losses, bitterness and mistakes into something beautiful. I had to make a decision. I made the choice: to let go of my pain and brokenness, to trust Him with the results. Life doesn't work when something is broken. God takes broken hearts, broken spirits and makes them whole. He takes the broken pieces of our lives and puts them back together again. We must take steps toward renewing our minds, and this is what transforms us into the image of Christ

You can find out more about my story at www.fromashetobeauty.com

There was a horrible Yellowstone Wildfire that burned uncontrollably for nine months – from early June through the first snow in September 1988. Flames wiped out 1.2 million acres about 36% of the park's over 2 million acres. As the damage was tallied, the financial losses could not be recovered. Years after the Yellowstone wildfire, amazingly, the sequoia trees actually increased in productivity. After the fires, the forest was more open and more light reached the forest floor. Where the fire had been hottest was an ideal seedbed for the young giant sequoia seedlings. The heat of the fire causes giant sequoia cones to open and thousands of seeds are released and fall to the soil. In the Yellowstone National Park – it's amazing to behold as Lodge pole pines now fill about 80% of the park's extensive forests. What had been considered to be a 'natural catastrophe' was restored and regenerated into a lush forest, which has come back thicker and healthier than before it was burned.

God's specialty is rearranging ashes – our losses, the ashes of our disappointments, despair and dismay into something beautiful. He takes our mess and changes it into His message. It's remarkable, exciting and something only God can do. God has a plan for the ashes of our losses. With our cooperation, He will take the ashes of our losses, uses them as fertilizer to make us more spiritually healthy than ever! He wants us to draw close to Him, become more and more spiritually healthy. He wants us to give him glory. God has a plan for the ashes of your losses. He will restore, rebuild regenerate your life. He wants you to be rooted, grounded deep in his word.

It is my desire through my From Ashes to Beauty ministry with Transformed Through Truth, radio and television programs, to teach, train, coach and counsel take individuals and groups how to apply God's word to their lives, families, workplaces, ministries and leadership. Growth and change is possible and probable by the individuals' choice to believe and practice applying biblical principles under their own choice and full dependence on the Holy Spirit. This happens when individuals hear teaching, apply and believe God's word is true by taking him at his word.

Through facing and accepting the truth found in God's word, the individuals' hurts, habits and hang ups more than likely will experience transformation into hope and possibly promote mental, emotional, spiritual and physical healing. Though you might feel like your pain will never end, God has a plan for it when you choose his way and his time to be healed. He will restore, rebuild and regenerate our life. God wants to restore our broken relationships, transform us more into the image of Christ, he wants to bring us closer to the wholeness God has for us. Why? It's all about Him

Dream Big and Make it Happen

By Bishop Gale Oliver

Greetings in the name of Jesus!

I would like to share a little about myself and how God got me started on my way in the Ministry. First, my dreams were to be an actor. I began studying acting in 1991, my daughter and I both took classes under Susan Delarentis. When we graduated, we both got many parts and roles the very next month of our graduation because I had my mind on becoming greater than Denzel Washington. To me, he was the best while I was striving to succeed. I came up with the philosophy, "Dream Big and Make it Happen," in the early 90's. It was merely just my philosophy at the time that I lived by. I had no clue that it would one day become my Media Ministry, given to me by God.

Now, fast forward to the year 2000. I was incarcerated April 12, 2000, in a prison camp. The very next month which was May 2000, God called me into the Ministry. I also got engaged to Bernadette Ares in the same week. God began a good work in me immediately. I started teaching bible study quickly, and I preached my 1st sermon in May of 2000, under the leadership of Pastor Benjamin Lopez out of Los Angeles. Within the same year, God gave me a dream about, "Dream Big and make it Happen." I wrote it down this time and pondered on why God gave me that dream, while I was going through spiritual boot camp that year. God had me start an English and a Spanish Bible Study in 2003, while in San Bernardino County Jail. In 2004, God had me start another Bible Study on Terminal Island. In 2005, I became an associate Pastor at Star Light MBC in Santa Ana, California. In 2009, I got ordained to become the Pastor of Greater Light Family Church, located in Santa Ana, California, about a mile from Starlight MBC.

In 2012, while attending a Supernatural Conference Lead by Guillermo Maldonado, at the City of Refuge, Bishop Noel Jones Church. Elder Hood an Evangelist in Orange County, had a dream from God, and God told him to bring me on board on his media ministry, and in the same week, Apostle Maldonado prophesied, that God is giving me a media ministry, which was started two days before that prophesy. We began recording, "Dream Big and Make it Happen Ministries," in the summer of 2012 at Zion Media Ministry located in Downey, California. We did 25 recordings, and could no longer afford it.

In December of 2014, I heard that there was an African American Pastor who had his own Broadcasting Studio in Santa Ana, California. So, I had made up my mind to look for him in January of 2015, I did not know his name nor the name of the Studio, so I purposed to investigate the matter in the 1st week of January 2015. On New Year's Eve December 31, 2014, I was the 1st pastor to preach at that service in Pasadena, I shared my testimony, and the next speaker said that he had a testimony similar to mine's, so I stayed to hear his testimony. God is so Good and Big, the next person who was scheduled to preach was Bishop Andrew Bills, the CEO of The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network, located in Orange, California. So we had a divine connection, and now we can record and air, "Dream Big and Make it Happen Ministries," twice a month, Praise God!!! So we are building locally and going globally.

HSBN - Orange, California

Kaitlyn Cook, Director

The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network started with a very small hand-held camera and a vision from The Lord on March 2nd, 2015. Bishop Andrew & Pastor Ann Marie Bills, with their 30-minute program, along with 3 other broadcasters began airing over the Internet TV that proud day, filming in the sanctuary of Saint Matthews Ecumenical Catholic Church in Orange, CA.

Just as The Lord had promised him, "That as He brought the animals to Noah, He would bring people to him" God was faithful to His Word and within 6 months, HSBN had acquired its first office / studio, had grown to 20 broadcasters, was creating new programs, conducting revivals, working to help develop ministries, was developing national contacts, and the vision was being enlarged. Up to this point, Bishop Bills was doing all the filming, the editing, the planning, etc.....and was praying for help to arrive.

Kaitlyn "Katie" Cook, affectionately called "Genius" by Apostle Bills, joined HSBN towards the end of our first year in 2015 and has been his right hand in this studio ever since. Wherever he and Pastor Ann Marie travel, they take Katie with them as their "daughter in—the-Lord," their personal director and organizer. Katie not only has mastered all the operations, but her keen insights are helping to take HSBN to a higher level. Not only does she have a heart for God, but she's been chosen and gifted by The Holy Spirit and is being positioned to do greater things for Christ in the future.

Apostle Bills has been slowly handing over the reigns of the full operation to Katie, who is continuing to demonstrate her skills and capabilities. This has been allowing Apostle to get out and promote HSBN, establish conferences & crusades, help work with ministries around the globe, and advance the Kingdom of God.

Katie faithfully attends her Church, Desert Reign Assembly of God Church in Downey CA, where Don Medcalf is the senior pastor and friend of Apostle Bills. She oversees all the filming operations there at her church on Sundays and is faithful in many of the other activities.

Kaitlyn "Katie" Cook is definitely developing into a "Millennial Inspirational Leader."

Transitioning to Joy

By Judy Glenney

“Hey, Mom, we’re going to play basketball – you’re going to be on my team,” Scott informed me one sunny afternoon. Having been a basketball player in college and still loving the sport, I jumped at the chance to play; no matter my son was a teenager and I was in my fifties. The other boys engaged fully, with no reservations. The game went on for an hour or so, then broke up.

Afterward, Scott raced into the garage and picked up his skateboard. “Be back after a while, Mom – the guys are going down to the skate park,” he shouted as he rolled down the street to join the others.

Standing in the driveway, I relished the fact my son was so active and athletic, enjoying the many activities I did, and was very good at them. He certainly was all boy – the boy I had prayed for and the boy that God had graciously given me. Due to a knee injury, my husband, Gary, wasn’t able to do many of the things I enjoyed. Therefore, Scott and I engaged in such things as playing football, snowboarding, tennis, bike riding, and hiking. During those times together, my heart would sing with joy. That joy was shattered later, however, as he entered his latter teen years.

I had put off having children later than most women. But, then again, I wasn’t like most women. Gary was a weightlifter when we got married in 1971. I immediately became interested in the sport as I had always been intrigued with strength. Weightlifting wasn’t something women got into in the seventies, however. That didn’t stop me from engaging in something I found fascinating. I started competing with Gary as my coach. Starting weightlifting for women became my focus.

We decided to put off starting a family until I was finished competing and I knew the sport was on the road to Olympic inclusion. By 1989, I had accomplished much of what I wanted in the way of my own achievements in the sport. I had won several national championships and had gotten the sport recognized on the international scene. That’s when my only son came into my life. He truly was the light of my life from the first time I saw him on September 8, 1989.

When he was about eleven, he asked me a question that I didn’t think all that unusual at the time. “Mom, did you ever think you should have been a boy?” he asked one night during our ‘before bedtime’ talks. “Well, many times I thought it would have been better if I had been a boy but I knew God created me a girl so that settled it for me,” I answered with a little chuckle.

At that time, I thought it was a simple matter of him starting to question his own identity as most preteens do about that age. Of course, knowing my background in weightlifting and doing the things we did together, I didn’t question his motive. He was probably wondering where I was coming from in respect to my inclination to many “non-girl” activities.

He didn’t ask anything further about it. I thought it was just that, a natural pondering of life and where he fit into the scheme of things.

A couple of years roll by and he is now into his teen years. Passing by his room one afternoon I noticed him silently lying on his bed, very contemplative. I stopped and peered in.

What's up? Do you want to talk about it?" I posed nonchalantly. "You don't want to know," he stated, matter-of-factly, head down with arms crossed. "Well, give me a try," I said as I stepped into the room and sat down on the bed. Lifting his head and looking me in the eye, he clearly said, "Mom, I know I should have been a girl. I'm tired of living a lie and I'm going to transition into being what I know I should have been."

"How long have you felt this way?" I queried, trying to get a handle on what I just heard. I couldn't process exactly what was going on. Surely, "this is just a passing phase and once we talk it out it will all be O.K." "I've known for quite a while - just didn't tell you and Dad because I knew you'd get all weirded out. But I can't go on pretending." He was visibly distraught as he continued to stare at me without flinching. Now I knew this was serious. My heart started racing as the questions swirled in my head.

Transgenderism wasn't something on my radar. I knew next to nothing about it. What is it? - a mental illness? A mental disorder? Is it hereditary? Did I cause this? Is it caused by a traumatic experience? Where is this coming from? Did we, as parents, cause this? He's a Christian, he knows God created him a boy! He always has been a boy. He acted like a boy, he thought like a boy; there was no indication of anything otherwise.

As I delved into this situation more seriously, I began to get some answers. First of all, this is a decision that the individual makes on their own. It is all psychological, not physiological. It is not hereditary. It may be caused by some traumatic experience but not always. I do not believe this to be the case with Scott. He was vastly influenced by the Internet, his peers, and even the school. He obviously had done his homework in this area as he had all the facts when I would approach him with questions regarding this. His mind was fast tracking now as to how he could get his reassignment surgery. Meanwhile, my confusion and frustration were raging as the family conflicts began. My once happy home was being torn apart.

After he graduated from high school he started working to get the necessary funding for the surgery. Since he knew we were not going to help him in any way, he needed to get the money on his own. He started working at a local restaurant. He scheduled his surgery to take place in Thailand. Then the floor dropped out from under him.

He lost his job, thereby losing his opportunity for the scheduled surgery. On June 5, 2009, three months shy of his twentieth birthday, we read part of his note he left beside his body. "Since I can't live my life as a woman, I won't live it at all." God allowed my son to come home to be with Him. But my life continued. More doubts, more confusion, and now the overwhelming guilt that I may have contributed to this outcome. I questioned God as to why He would take the only son He had given me. As I tearfully approached my Heavenly Father in the ensuing weeks, He began to impress on me the word trust. Could I fully trust in His divine will even in this? Could I trust all His promises? Slowly, He transitioned me through the guilt, the frustration, and even the anger to finding unexpected joy.

Shalom!

My name is Donna Taggart and I was delighted to be asked by Dr. Bills to contribute to this new and fresh move of the Holy Spirit, which will be spreading the Truth of the Anointed Word of Almighty God through writing!

The Lord called me into Ministry back in 1991, although He had been preparing me for a number of years before that. As I look back over the years, I see God's hand preparing me long before I ever did any actual Ministry. I began studying the Bible in its entirety to get an understanding of His plan for mankind from before the Garden of Eden, right through Torah, Tanakh, and then Brit HaDashah, which introduces the New Birth and how God wants us to learn how we should operate in our Kingdom Authority in this life now on earth.

When God encouraged me to move out into ministry, it was to teach on the whole Word of God in its proper context, with the understanding that it is best understood when applied from the Hebraic Perspective as that is its biblical foundation. This was to prepare me to Pioneer the Hebraic Roots of Christianity throughout the island of Ireland, North and South.

This was further proven when God divinely arranged for me to be invited to take the last place available on a Pastors and Leaders Tour of the Land of Israel. This provided a reason of buying Judaica, directed and chosen by God for me to then use for the pioneering years to teach the Jewish Roots of Christianity throughout Ireland and then ten years later right to the seat of Parliament in Northern Ireland with the truth of the one new man in Ephesians 2:15.

One of the many teaching classes I held was for the UK Keshar Course, which means Connection. The classes show, through Scripture and History, how the Church and Synagogue became separated and the unity that Judaism and Christianity had enjoyed for approximately 100 years, 25 years ago in Ireland, this was such a hard topic for people to even think about, so there were always small numbers that would sign up for each class.

In 2006, the Lord spoke to me one night while I was cleaning the table after dinner to 'Hold a Night for Ireland to Honour Israel' and I said, "Wow, that's a great idea Lord." Then, within the hour, He said "at Parliament." I spent the next few days seeking the Lord and the way forward. I knew very little about NI Politics, but I did know that, at that time, there was no Parliament sitting in NI.

But, I moved in faith and accepted God's plan and I started broadcasting in 2016, which then led to Bishop Andrew asking me to be the UK & Ireland Branch Director. Although still in a wheelchair, in faith according to Hebrews 11:1, I am completely healed.

I am off all medication and have no pain or spasms. God always fulfills his promises. In September 2017, from Stormont, we had a fabulous anointed Event to Launch the HSBN UK & Ireland Branch. Then, in October we had our first studio broadcast with a family of believers who are musicians and Cowboy Ranchers from Arizona, The Broken Chair Band. We were very blessed spending time with them and interviewing them.

Stormont Christian Initiative will be holding a 10th Birthday Celebration in Stormont in May 2018. All glory to our great and awesome God! "The Lord has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes." Psalm 118:23-25 NIV

In 2007, Mr. Jim Shannon and I held our first 'One New Man' Event in Stormont. One month after, the Lord spoke to me to start a Ministry so, in 2008 we Founded SCI and went on to host the first-ever night for Ireland to Honour Israel on the 40th Anniversary of the Recapture of Jerusalem. This happened exactly seven days after a Government was put into place at Stormont. We have an awesome Abba Father! The next year was Israel's 60th Birthday and, again, we had a packed event in the Great Hall at Government under Stormont Christian Initiative. Jim was an MLA [Member of the Local Assembly at Stormont] when we Co-Founded SCI and within three years, he was Elected to be an MP at Westminster UK Parliament.

At the end of 2015, my good friend Sally Klein O'Connor from California, who is a broadcaster for HSBN, skyped me to say that Bishop Andrew Bills from the Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network would be contacting me. Bishop Andy asked me to be a broadcaster on HSBN. My agreeing to this was an almighty step of faith as I had been diagnosed in 2006 with MS and it had gradually gotten worse to the stage where I could not hold a pen or cup of tea.

MILLENNIALS - BORN TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN OUR WORLD

By Roxanne Grace

Dear Millennials!

This letter is straight from the heart of an '80s baby. I LOVE our generation! Some of the most God-loving, coolest, talented, innovative, trend-setting, and determined people I know are Millennials. Our generation truly rocks! And God is calling us to a more in-depth intimacy and greater leadership today than any previous generation!

I believe from such a deep place in my being that so many in our generation will lead and will fore-run for/in this next move of God.

I believe Millennials carry an Eleventh-hour anointing (see Matthew 20:1-16). My generation might be coming in on the coattails of many and coming in a way which may seem late to some, but we're about to wreak havoc for the Kingdom of God! We are a generation gifted with such God-given innovative leadership capabilities!

I believe it will be demonstrated hand in hand with other generations. I've seen this so beautifully modeled at my Church, Church for the Nations, in Phoenix, AZ. I've seen it in many other Churches that I've visited and here at The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network (HSBN.TV). It honestly works when the generations come together accepting each other's differences while learning from each other for the advancement of the Kingdom.

Forbes.com says "We believe that Millennials are typically more interested than previous generations in finding a mentor. Entrepreneur.com shares that one in four millennials are "asking for a chance" to show their leadership skills.

"So, what am I saying?"

I'm saying that I believe we, Millennials, were created and had been explicitly wired to be leaders and productive leaders at that. We aren't called to sit on the sidelines and watch everybody else lead. No, because there's too much creativity within our generation. Yes, we were born with a desire to lead. Millennials don't have to be like everyone else; we can do things well and uniquely.

Let me take this another step:

I find millennials to be 'ALL IN' or "ALL OUT" types of people. Some of the most radical lovers of God that I know are millennials. When we believe in something, we go all the way.

In that sense, we are a lot like our Heavenly Father who's all in for us! He's all in for our generation. He's looking for ones that are ALL in for Him.

2 Chronicles 16:9a

"For the eyes of the Lord range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him." I may be speaking to my generation, but God is looking for those that are "All In" in every age -- whose heart's desire are to be entirely His.

Let me shake things up a bit here:

Recently, I had a dream where the Lord showed me that if I genuinely wanted to walk with Him in this season the way my heart desires to, I would have to lay a particular thing down — it was a new opportunity that came my way.

Even though it wasn't clear in the dream what He was pointing out, I knew exactly what He was talking about and requesting (often in the spirit, there is a knowing of details without always seeing them.)

When it came to the application of obeying what God said in the dream, it was indeed challenging to surrender to this opportunity. In the natural, I couldn't see why this wasn't best for me. I was excited about the opportunity, and it made me feel good about myself. But, God has my heart, and I trust Him. When He puts His finger on something in our lives, it's always in our best interest to deal with it. (Isaiah 55:8-9)

Usually, I'm the type of person that when I face challenging situations, I hang onto God, just like Jacob did in the Bible. (Genesis 32) I'm an "I will not let go until you bless me," kind of girl. "I'm an all in for Jesus," kind of girl! To me, there's no other way. I know where I was before He saved me. I know where I'd be and where I'd be going if it wasn't for Him. He saved me from a reckless, deadly and abusive lifestyle. Because of His great love, I am entirely indebted to Him, and my heart's desire is to live that way.

A lot of people that know me would say I'm radically on Fire for God. I'm burning "HOT" for Him. But I started pondering the question "What does God, the Almighty, the One who sits on the throne, think? He's the One that knows our hearts and who we are. In the end, that's all that really counts.

Does He see me as burning hot for Him? Does He see you as burning hot for Him?

What do I mean?

I recently heard a teaching on Revelation 3:15-16.

"I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! 16 So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to spit you out of my mouth."

Wow!!! We need to really take note if this scripture means what it appears to.

This passage of Scripture that we read in Revelation 3, was a letter written to a specific Church at that time in Laodicea. It was an unbelieving Church that was only about 10km away from the Church of Colossae, that we read about in the book of Colossians.

It is possible that the heretical teachings that infiltrated the Colossian Church made its way over to Laodicea.

But, the unbelieving Church in Laodicea, that God is calling lukewarm, also says that this church is rich, they have everything they want and don't need anything. It goes on to say that they are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked. (Rev 3:17)

I don't know who will read this article. Know that I'm not judging in any way. The only one I'm judging is myself. Recently I started taking a new inventory of my own life and my walk with God through the leading of The Holy Spirit because I do not want to be lukewarm. I do not want God to see me as tepid or lukewarm. We can't afford to ride the edge on this one.

I don't know where you're at while reading this, but this sounds a lot like privileges/challenges that we, Millennials, face in North America. We are so rich, with so much that surrounds us, that we can so easily get wooed to sleep while not even realizing it. We can so quickly go on thinking that we are okay when we are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked.

Even those in America that don't consider themselves to be rich are rich to most of the world. I recently read that if you make $1500/annually, you're in the top 20% of world income earners ...if you earn more than $50,000 annually, then you're in the top 1% of the world's income earners. I've heard statistics like this before. Our perspectives have been wrong. We are the rich that the Bible addresses.

Regardless where you stand economically, we can't afford to mess this up. Being right with God is more significant than anything on this earth. We so often complain about needing more money or a spouse, a fit body or whatever. All these things are okay, but are they replacing your desire to be close to God? Do you still cry out "God, I need You more than anything?"

God! Give us today our daily bread! We need you! We are desperate for You!
(Matthew 6:11)

Here's application:

I firmly believe that if we intentionally do ONE thing, then we can't mess this up — we won't be lukewarm or cold. It's so easy, yet at times seems so difficult when we are distracted.

Matthew 22:36 (Paraphrased) An expert of the law asked Jesus what the greatest commandment of the law is.

37 Jesus replied: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.'[a] 38 This is the first and greatest commandment. 39 And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'[b] 40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

I genuinely believe that if our highest intentional goal and desire is to love God with all of our heart, soul, and mind —we can't mess this up. Love God - love ourselves and come into our identity - and from there we can properly lead with love and disciple the Nations.

I just hope that this will be a wake-up call to somebody! There is NOTHING MORE IMPORTANT than our relationship with Him!!

Don't be lukewarm! Do WHATEVER it takes to be right with Him. I urge you not to go another minute without making sure that you're in right standings with your Creator, God!

Millennials, it's our time to go after God with all that's in us. Use the leadership and innovative capabilities that God has given to us individually to spread His Fire! Let's get off the sidelines and GO wake up the sleeping.

Don't Be Afraid to Fall

By Sharon Norris Elliot

I didn't learn everything I needed to know about teaching while I was in college. It wasn't until I was actually, physically on the campus and in the classroom that some things came to my understanding. The most profound things I learned during my early days of teaching high school were not about the curriculum, but about the culture.

Topping that list was a rule everyone knew: don't fall. If you fell down, you would be the butt of jokes for weeks, maybe even years, depending upon the artistry of the fall.

I soon realized that the psychology behind the "don't fall" rule had to do with more than just being judged as clumsy. Teenagers dread being embarrassed. They all want to be treated as their own person, but no one wants to stick out. That's the driving understanding of fads and trends. Let's all dress this way, wear our hair this way, choose these colors, buy these brands, follow these groups, eat these foods, go to these places, and repeat these sayings.

Some people never grow out of the all-consuming fear teens have about sticking out as individuals and chancing ridicule. However, as Christ-followers, we are encouraged to step away from the crowd, fall down at the feet of Jesus in a way that everybody can see, and use the attention to deflect all eyes toward Him.

Falling at Jesus' feet can be easier said than done. This means we are going to have to trust Him when what He says contradicts what seems to be going on all around us. We are going to be called upon to stand against the culture by espousing truths from Scripture that contradict popular sentiment. We are going to have to see with the eyes of faith what others can't see with their natural peepers. We are going to have to speak of deliverances not yet seen as though they are just around the corner. After all, this indeed is the essence of faith, "the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen" Hebrews 11:1 (NKJ).

When we fall at the feet of the Lord, believing in faith for what has not yet appeared, we can get scared about being embarrassed. What if God doesn't come through? What if things stay as they seem? I'll look like a fool having believed the opposite of what everyone else knew was the reality all along.

David, the great Psalmist, knew the feeling of not wanting to be embarrassed, so he wrote, "In You, O Lord, I put my trust; Let me never be put to shame" Psalm 71:1 (NKJ). To be put to shame means to be dry, anxious, confounded, or disappointed. David had found the key to the strength of the fallen position, and that is to realize whose feet we're in front of.

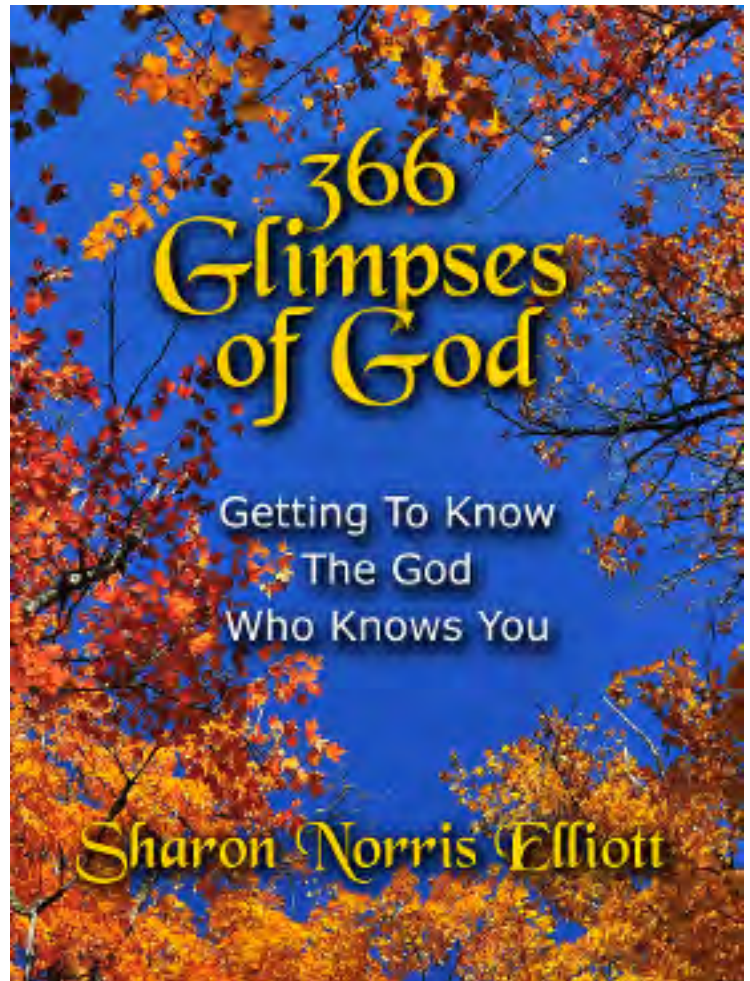

As long as we're clinging to God's truth about any subject, we can be assured that we will "never be put to shame." Another scripture says, "For what if some did not believe? Will their unbelief make the faithfulness of God without effect? Certainly not! Indeed, let God be true but every man a liar" Romans 3:3-4a (NKJ).

So, unlike the teenagers I teach, let's not be afraid to fall—to fall before the Lord that is. We will not be embarrassed. We can confidently worship God's trustworthiness, knowing that by falling at Jesus' feet, we are placing our faith in His word, and we will never be ashamed about whatever we are believing for Him to do.

A View From The Upper Room

What is A View from the Upper Room? It's intelligent women taking a hard look at current events. It's sensitive women grappling with matters of the heart. It's down-to-earth women sharing family concerns. It's ordinary women dealing with extraordinarily important topics. AVFTUR is a stirring talk show led by Spirit-directed, successful women talking about relevant topics from a realistic and biblical perspective.

Today's women are a new breed and a powerful force that are definitely making their mark in our global society. Several main goals of AVFTUR are to help viewers realize their true identity in Christ Jesus, and to viewers steam toward their dreams.

From the couch, the panel discusses such topics as how to rebuild broken relationships, how to turn challenges into stepping stones, how to move from adversity, and how to grasp opportunities and start celebrating the bright possibilities of the future.

Comprising the AVFTUR team are women who have suffered emotionally, faced tremendous discouragement, gone through divorce, experienced financial loss, buried children and parents, and lived through a myriad of other gut-wrenching situations. Through faith in God, these women have seen all of their adversities turned into advancements, and their mess has transformed into their ministries.

Through their straight-forward talking, viewers are inspired, elevated, and empowered to arise from brokenness, confusion, and discouragement, and take hold of their God-given position of victory, one for which Christ died and rose again.

Catch A View from the Upper Room LIVE every Thursday evening at 5PM PCT exclusively on The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network at www.hsbn.tv and watch the Facebook Live simulcast as well, you can send in your questions and comments in real time. # HSBN - UGANDA ON THE MOVE THROUGHOUT ALL AFRICA

By: Bishop Henry Mukisa - Director

of Entebbe, Uganda. Cornerstone is a vibrant, healthy, growing church in the area having an incredible impact in the community. We have grown from a handful of depressed and impoverished members into a vibrant people, full of hope through Christ Jesus.

To help reach out to the community through education, we also started Divine Royals Junior School, which doubles as an orphanage school. DRJS reaches out to mainly the vulnerable children in our communities, especially the orphans, as well as other needy children. Since 2015, God has sustained us to help bring hope to hundreds of kids enrolled at our school.

I am Kizza Henry Mukisa, called into ministry by the grace of God. For the last twelve years, I have been involved in active ministry as a missionary, a Bible school instructor, Educator, and traveling speaker for different Christian conferences. I am married to Jacqueline Mukisa with whom the Lord has supernaturally blessed us with two lovely children, Alpha Possible Mukisa and Esther Praise Mukisa. We also enjoy many spiritual sons and daughters in the faith.

By the grace of God, I started effective ministry as a missionary to Rwanda where I started a Bible school to train many pastors and leaders, especially those who had not had the opportunity for training. After this successful Bible school, I was led to Burundi and started another one as well as in Congo. Currently what started out as a small mustard seed is now a chain of Christian leadership institutes raising many revived kingdom servants who are helping to enhance the kingdom of God.

In the year 2011, the Lord led me and Jackie to plant Cornerstone Community Church

Cornerstone Community Church Entebbe is also very passionate about the lost and reaches out through evangelism; caring for the widows; and feeding the hungry, the prisoners, and those in hospitals as a way of extending God's love.

Many other kingdom initiatives are part of God’s vision for us like running two orphanages, one in Uganda and another one in Congo. Through these institutions, we seek to ensure a better livelihood for the oppressed and vulnerable children we serve. We also run a kids’ rescue mission initiative to help create awareness about the many kids missing out on basic needs, especially education. We run a vocational institute aimed at imparting skills as well as a feeding program to many needy children, the elderly, and the HIV-infected people from our community.

It is indeed a great blessing to partner with HSBN from 2015 through a trip that was led by Dr. Kazumba and later a mission trip where Apostle Bills and the team visited Kenya and Zambia respectively. I felt God had knit our hearts together for Kingdom purposes. Our kingdom friendship developed further, and finally in the 2017, I was consecrated and elevated to the office of Bishop, and appointed as the Director of HSBN Uganda, Africa.

Within a short period of time God has been very gracious to see HSBN grow in a supernatural way across the African continent. Africa is now divided into five main coordinating blocks being developed by HSBN: East Africa, West Africa, Southern Africa, Central Africa, and North Africa. A number of reliable kingdom-minded leaders have been discovered in these areas and are committed to partner with HSBN for the work of the Kingdom of God. We are looking to the future with great hope to hold leadership meetings, evangelistic crusades, and other mercy ministry initiatives in partnership with HSBN and HSBN partners for the benefit of the Kingdom.

I, Bishop Henry, am also thinking of steering a drive dubbed the HSBN Global Missions Initiative, which is aimed at helping the body of Christ in Africa connect and build kingdom relations with the body of Christ in North America, Europe, and other places. This will attract different categories of missionaries, from students in summer holidays; to volunteers, preachers, and skilled professionals like doctors and others; and even including Christian tourists wishing to enjoy African countries for pleasure.

I am so thankful to the overall leadership of HSBN in California, especially to our president, Ap. Dr. Andrew Bills and Pr. Ann Marie Bills, as well as all the supporters and well-wishers of HSBN. Thanks for helping to take the gospel of the Kingdom of God to the ends of the world.

Reader, I strongly encourage you to consider partnering with HSBN to enable the dream to become a reality. What dream? That of taking the gospel and revival to the world. I also encourage you and your family to watch the HSBN by visiting www.hsbn.tv for all your televised, Internet, and radio spirit-led teachings.

Many blessings for the brighter future with HSBN.

“Not A Good House-Guest”

By Diane Hunter, M.Div.

Do you have criteria for who you let into your home, which is your heart? The enemy will knock, disguising himself. He'll offer you anything and everything he can to get you to open the door. He promises to satisfy and fulfill you if just let him in.

If you open the door and let what he's presenting—often sinful pleasure—in, it will gladly come in, but it never comes in alone. Here's the hitch: if you open the door, blinded by your desire, you do not see Satan sneaking in behind this “feel good” thing.

Sin and Satan are a package deal. Always. It is not possible to welcome sin in without the enemy also taking up residence. Sadly, although he disguises himself with pleasure, if you invite him in, he has every right to be there. He has legal access to your life because you opened the door, and he is not a pleasant house guest.

He does not try to remain in the area in which you invited him in.

If you invited him in through premarital sex, for example, he will not stay there and merely accuse you in this one area. No, the enemy does not honor these bounds. He will not just accuse you here; he will take over the house. He will berate the very essence of your being. He will attack your security, your identity, and your self-worth. He will, like acid, begin to erode your confidence and disposition.

If you have invited a sinful pleasure in, you may wonder why you feel depressed, or lethargic, or oppressed. It's the evidence that the enemy of your soul has taken place in your life. You must guard the door of your heart. Romans 6:23 tells us that the effect of sin is death. Sin brings death—because it is attached to our enemy and it separates us from God, who is Life.

So, be aware when sinful desire knocks at the door of your heart. Resist it, knowing that the enemy of your soul comes with it. “...Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you...” James 4:7-8

So, here is the key. Here is our means of redemption: God Himself. “In Him, we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace which He made to abound toward us in all wisdom and understanding.” Ephesians 1:7

Remember that in Him, there is forgiveness, cleansing, redemption, and restoration.

"Purity By Design," Diane and Roger's book is available now in our web store!

This book is not only for people who have issues with sexual purity, it is also for:

- the person who is committed to purity but needs some encouragement
- the person who wants to help a friend with a struggle their facing
- the parent who needs some practical tactics for explaining why God calls us to wait until marriage to have sex
- the person who has been stuck in the bondage of sexual addiction and wants some practical tools to break free
- those who teach youth or young adults and want to empower them in understanding how to withstand sexual temptation.

"Breaking Free"

with Pastor Dawn Scott Damon

Dawn Scott Damon is a Pastor, Speaker, Television & Radio Host, and Author. Dawn is an ordained minister with the Wesleyan Church. Dawn is the Lead Pastoral Architect of a multi-cultural church called Tribes Church in the Grand Rapids, MI area. Dawn loves to coach and empower women to live in freedom and is the founder of the FreedomGirl Sisterhood Conference. She is a featured Internet Television Broadcaster on "Breaking Free" on The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network @ www.hsbntv.com and a Radio Host on the Radio for Divas Network. Dawn is an award-winning author of two books, "When A Woman You Love Was Abused" and "When The Woman Abused Was You."

As a popular keynote and conference speaker, Dawn is an engaging communicator who inspires her audiences to move beyond the pain of past trauma and to maximize their God-given purpose and potential in Christ. Dreams are ignited as Dawn uses sound biblical teaching, personal stories, and splashes of humor to awaken the gifts and callings in every person.

Dawn and her husband Paul Damon, have a full family of five children, two sons-in-law, one daughter-in-law, and ten grandchildren.

As a Pastor, Dawn believes: God has called me to the ministry to serve. It is an honor to walk alongside people in their most important moments, whether it's a joyful occasion, or a painful trial or storm. I'm there to be an expression of God's love and care for them. God has called me to preach His Word with clarity and boldness with the help of the Holy Spirit.

As a Speaker, Dawn says: It's so thrilling to witness a miraculous transformation in people's lives when I'm teaching and ministering the Truth of God's Word. The Bible is living and active, and it works to save, heal, deliver, challenge and change us from the inside out.

The Truth that we can live an abundant, victorious life in Jesus is the greatest story we can share. My passion is to open the scriptures and help people see the power that's attached to the Living Word. As I communicate the scriptures I pray that every heart becomes engaged, minds are renewed, souls are transformed, and dreams are ignited, so to live a full life in God on earth.

I keep it real, because I believe that what comes from the heart... touches the Heart. I don't just want to share information... We need Revelation.

We laugh... We think... We cry, and in the end, We are changed.

As an Author, Dawn comments:

As a writer I want to connect with my reader with authenticity and transparency, and that often means sharing my struggles and shortcomings. I want them to know that we are all on a journey—navigating this world through our many experiences. Through it all, we must remember, we have been promised victory.

I hope to inspire viewers, encourage listeners and provoke readers with my message—to nudge them to reach for more; to never quit and always believe. I hope to stir their thoughts, and their hearts; through the wisdom, I've gleaned, and perhaps challenge the "status quo" so because of my writings, therefore they are ruined for living an average life, and have sufficient courage to pursue the greatness God has planned for them.

The bottom line is, whether I am hosting a television or radio program, singing a song of deliverance, writing a book, or teaching in church or a conference, I am fully committed to spreading the great story of Jesus and His Redeeming Love.

International Author, Speaker, and Pastor, Dawn Scott (Jones) Damon was born in Holland, Michigan to advertising and marketing entrepreneurs, Jim and Cleo Scott, grew up in Grand Rapids, MI, and began her ministry and writing career after finding freedom and healing from the childhood trauma of sexual abuse. Dawn's first book, "When A Woman You Love Was Abused: A Husband's Guide to helping her overcome childhood sexual molestation," won the Reader's Favorite Gold Medal Award in 2013. Dawn's second book, "When The Woman Abused Was You: A Guide to Healing from Childhood Sexual Abuse," has just been released, 2017, and has already earned her a 5-Star rating from Readers' Favorite.

Dawn is a favorite keynote speaker at Women's Conferences, bringing in-depth teaching along with heartfelt honesty, laced with side-splitting laughter. Dawn Scott Damon resides in Rockford, MI with the love of her life, husband Paul.

“Windows on The World”- “The Persecuted Church”

By Apostle Andrew Bills

One of the premier weekly programs on our Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network (HSBN), is “Windows on the World,” which is co-hosted by international journalist, Dan Wooding, the show’s resident “guest expert,” and founder of the ASSIST News Service (www.assistnews.net), and Dr. Garry Ansdell, Senior Pastor of Hosanna Christian Fellowship in Bellflower, California, and the Co-founder of Ambassadors for Peace (<http://am4peace.org/>).

In his nearly 50 years, Dan has interviewed literally thousands of personalities, including Johnny Mathis, Burt Lancaster, David Soul, Paul McCartney and Ringo Starr from The Beatles. He also interviewed Mother Teresa in Calcutta, Mahalia Jackson and Coretta Scott King in London, as well as iconic singer, Pat Boone and Dolly Parton in Hollywood and finally, Archbishop Desmond Tutu in Sheffield, England. Together, Dan, who was born in Nigeria, of British missionary parents, Alfred and Anne Wooding, and Canada-born Garry, interview a series of fascinating guests, seeking to raise the awareness of persecuted Christians around the world in an effort to help remedy this tragic reality, where an estimated 100,000 Christians are murdered each year for their faith by terror groups like ISIS and Boko Haram.

“Windows on The World” began some two years ago, after Dan was a guest on “Holy Spirit Live” with myself and Pamela Christian, an award-winning author, international speaker, radio and television talk-show host and media personality.

“After the show, we began discussing how Pam and I could start working together on a

30-minute talk-show, featuring some of the top stories on my ASSIST News Service,” said Dan Wooding, 76, the author of numerous books, a long-standing broadcaster in both the UK and US, and a journalist, who has worked for some of Great Britain’s largest-circulation newspapers, and later as a writer with Billy Graham on some of his overseas crusades in Moscow, Russia; Essen, Germany; and also San Juan, Puerto Rico.

“Soon, we were up-and-running, and for about a year, we would tape our shows in the HSBN studio in Orange, California, until Pam was unable to continue because of her busy workload. I was sorry to end our excellent time together, but I then invited Mark Ellis, the senior correspondent for my ASSIST News Service and is also the founder of www.GodReports.com, a website that shares testimonies and videos from the church around the world to build interest and involvement in world missions, to join me as co-host for the program.”

Dan Wooding’s parents, Alfred and Anne Wooding, on their wedding day in Kano, Nigeria

Dan Wooding and Mark Ellis

Dan and Mark co-hosted “Windows on the World,” for some nine months, each week covering stories from the hot-spots of the world, until Mark felt unable to continue and so, Dan approached Canada-born Dr. Garry Ansdell to ask him to join him for the weekly shows and they, eventually, changed the format of the show and began interviewing a succession of fascinating guests who are making a difference for Christ in our ever-more-violent world. They have included: Bruce Sonnenberg, founder of He Intends Victory, a ministry that works with those affected and infected with the HIV/AIDS virus and Ray Comfort. Ray is the Founder and CEO of Living Waters and the best-selling author of more than 80 books including: Hell's Best Kept Secret, Scientific Facts in the Bible, and The Evidence Bible. He co-hosts (with actor Kirk Cameron) the award-winning television program “The Way of the Master,” seen in 200 countries. He is also the Executive Producer on the movies, “Audacity,” “180,” “Evolution vs. God,” and “Exit: The Appeal of Suicide,” which have been seen by millions. Ray, and his wife, Sue, live in Southern California, where they have three grown children. In fact, it was Garry who first invited Ray Comfort to move to Southern California and initially helped him launch his US ministry.

Other guests have included Pat Boone’s daughter, Lindy Boone Michaelis, who talked movingly about the terrible day when her oldest son, Ryan Corbin, who was 24 in 2001, went up to the roof of his Southern California apartment building, with his roommate, to get some sun. Ryan stepped over this skylight, his foot came down on it, and he fell three stories. When the paramedics arrived, he was laboring to breathe, his lungs had collapsed, and his spleen had burst. Also, his ribs were cracked, and he had a skull fracture.

“Pat Boone contacted me and ask if I would help start a prayer campaign for Ryan, and this was followed up by several appearances by the family on Larry King’s CNN TV show,” explained Wooding. “Eventually, millions around the world began praying for Ryan, and today he has made an extraordinary recovery.” Another astonishing interview was with Egypt-born Mona Estefanos and her American friend, Bonnie Brown, who shared about how Bonnie’s daughter, Jessica, had become a heroin addict, and was close to death, yet Mona, despite suffering from cancer herself, spent many hours praying for Jessica, and encouraging Bonnie.

Others have included shows with veteran Christian broadcaster, Harold Sala, and his daughter, Bonnie Sala, of Guidelines International Ministries which is a Christian nonprofit that transforms lives and communities with the message of Jesus by creating digital content that’s shared around the world. Also, Tim Timmons, who founded Orange County’s first mega-church, Attorney Brad Dacus, the founder of Pacific Justice Institute, who provides free legal help to individuals and organizations caught up in often anti-Christian legal struggles; and Peter Wooding, Dan’s youngest son, who is now a respected TV journalist in the UK, and who recently spent a week in Lagos, Nigeria covering the Reinhard Bonnke Farewell Crusade, attended by millions.

Apostle Andrew Bills with Bonnie and Harold Sala

What made this so special was that it was from Lagos that, in 1942, an infant Dan Wooding left Nigeria with his parents in a convoy of 28 ships, many of which were sunk by German U-Boats, and thousands died in the freezing waters of the Atlantic. Miraculously, the Wooding family were spared from death. (Dan's father had been told that he could soon die if he didn't get treatment for his various tropical diseases). During his trip to Lagos, Peter was able to find the actual spot where they sailed from all those years ago.

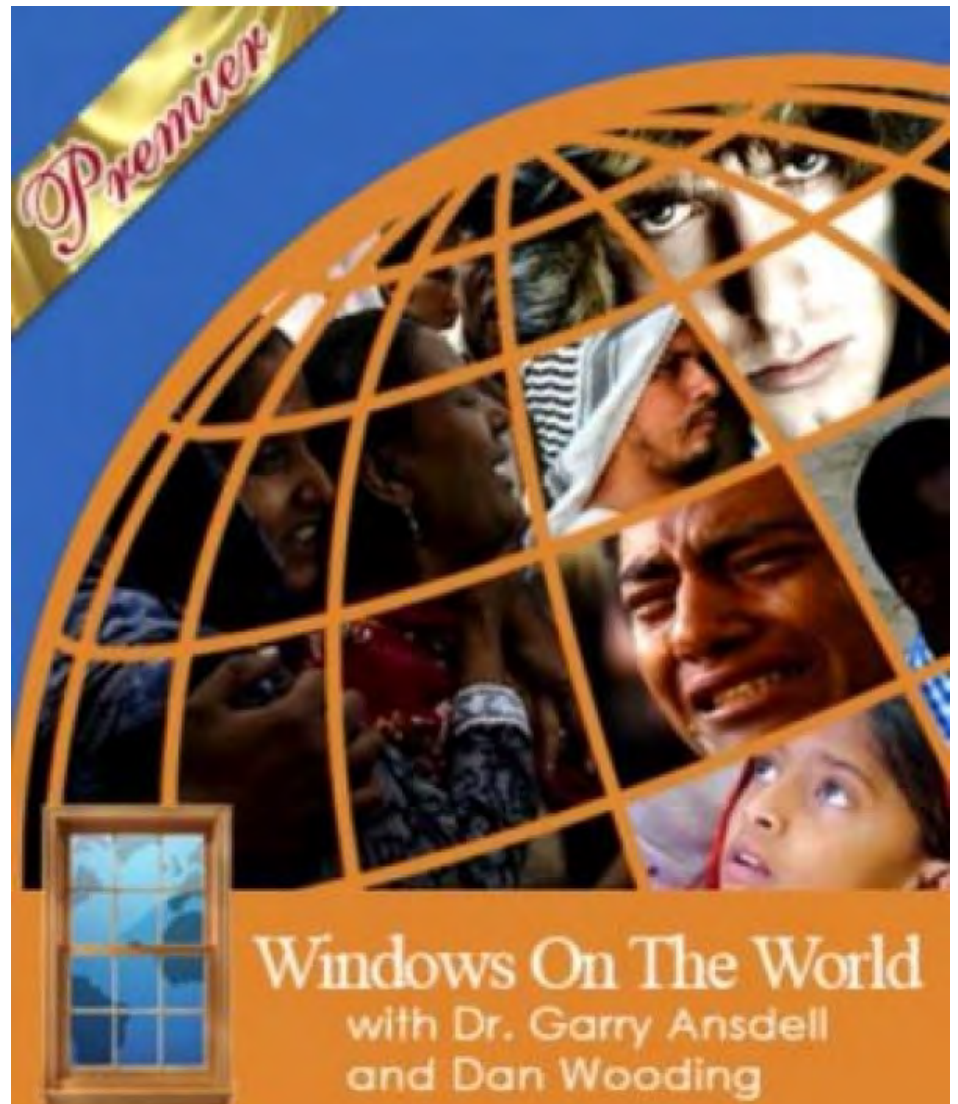

Besides his ministry at Hosanna Christian Fellowship, Garry Ansdell is the co-founder with the late Ameal Haddad, of Ambassadors for Peace (<http://am4peace.org/>), an organization that provides a religious rights document that people can sign, and which allows people of all faiths from around the world, to be free to share their faith with anyone, without the fear of retribution. Garry has traveled to many Islamic countries, where many religious leaders signed the document, and Dan has accompanied Garry on two visits to Indonesia, the world's largest Muslim country. Besides "Windows on the World," Dan also hosts "Inside Hollywood with Dan Wooding," where he interviews many movie celebrities about their faith in Jesus Christ. His cameraman/producer, Tim Hathaway, had previously spent some 32 years running the television ministry for the late Pastor Church Smith at Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa in Southern California.

We at the Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network are honored to have Dan Wooding and Dr. Garry Ansdell as part of our line-up and I hope you will take time to watch their many shows together.

The Way It Is

with Paul and Marla Reid

In 2015, Rosetta and Robert Daniels, the hosts of the show "Journey to Breakthrough" on HSBN.tv invited Marla Reid to share about her experience ministering with Harvest India and what the Lord revealed to her during her time there in 2014. After the taping of the show, Bishop Bills asked Marla if she would be interested in hosting a show of her own. Her initial reaction was laughter at such a thought. She mentioned this to her husband, Paul Reid, and he thought it was a funny thought too but, then both realized that they had not even considered if this was something that God desired of them. After they prayed about it, they realized that God was behind this opportunity! It was an open door, one that was being opened and they could not deny His hands were involved.

The decision to begin taping the show did not come without any obstacles, however. It seems that when there are steps taken towards radical obedience in what the Lord is calling His servants to do, there is often opposition. For Paul and Marla, the opposition came in the form of a severe stroke. Marla was paralyzed on half her body and hospitalized for several days. However, as she had a vision of Jesus and He didn't seem concerned, they held fast to the promises of things that God had been calling them to do, one of which was hosting a show on The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network at www.hsbn.tv.

Marla was released from the hospital a few days later. Her vision was blurry for a month, but she was given the word, "Walk by faith, not by sight" which was the important lesson to be learned in this.

The Reid's have been seeking God's direction on the topics to share on their HSBN show called "The Way It Is." Their heart is to bring the Word of God to life by sharing their own journey of faith and understanding of the Word through the help of the Holy Spirit. They have filmed several series. The first series was called, "Operating in the Gifts of the Spirit" and is an in-depth teaching on all the miraculous gifts the Father gives to His children that earnestly seek them.

The second series is called, "The Character of God" which was developed to enable viewers to grasp how wonderful God is. Knowing His character and how He interacts with His people throughout the Word helps us understand Him and know His voice, so we can obey Him in fullness.

The most recent series is a study called, "The Prophets." These are lessons on the character of God in even greater depth in understanding how God spoke to His prophets, how it translates to the prophetic ministry in the church today, with a comparison to how we view the prophetic gifts.

Paul and Marla co-host each episode. Paul brings his love of the Word to each show supported by his years of study and teaching of the Word. Marla considers herself as the "color commentary" to each episode. She asks questions the viewers may be thinking and is willing to share her candid struggles with some of the deeper topics as well as sharing personal testimonies of how God has met her in the difficult trials of life. Paul and Marla hope you will join them by tuning in to watch "The Way It Is" and they pray that each viewer will experience how God richly loves them and desires for them to grow in knowing Him and serving Him in fullness.

HSBN - Philippines - On Fire for God

Nhor and John Latinovich

Fueled by passionate hearts for souls, Nhor & John Latinovich are a husband and wife evangelist team impacting the world for Jesus Christ.

Focusing on the Philippines, Nhor founded and directs "God is Good" a Precious Life Christian Fellowship Church there. Out of their own resources, they frequently travel every year to the Philippines where they promote the ministry's growth by planting churches, organizing medical missions, feeding indigent children and sponsoring youth to achieve their educational goals.

Besides being devoted Christians, Nhor & John are great examples of people who have the heart for God and who want to make a difference in the lives of others. Nhor is also an author and a Leader in the assisted living industry in Arizona. Nhor is the owner of the Assisted Living Training School in Mesa, Arizona and is the Executive Director training facility managers and caregivers. With a passion for serving the elderly, Nhor provides guidance and mentoring to the assisted living community as the Founder for the Assisted Living Homes Organization, and she also hosts the Assisted Living Connect TV's "Let's Talk" program which tackles different assisted living issues.

Nhor & John Latinovich are not only broadcasters on The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network (www.hsbn.tv), but HSBN is working with them to promote God's Word throughout the Philippines. Their program is called, Precious Life Ministry International, a very insightful Christian program, which is now being viewed in 185 countries via HSBN. They're also the proud parents of two adult children.

Nhor's favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 3:5-6, "Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight".

Words of Wisdom from Evangelist Nhor Latinovich

When you surrender everything, it will lead to victory when we yield to God. When we make that choice, God can use us to do great things for Him.

Check ourselves before criticizing others, we might ask the Lord to reveal our own shortcomings. Before ripping out anybody, we could check to see if patience and forgiveness are connected in our heart. It's good to look inside our hearts and check ourselves. Christ like love is patient with the fault of others.

Too often, people spend so much time and energy dwelling on the past, dwelling on mistakes, or dwelling on disappointments. They don't even realize that their focus is keeping them from moving forward in life. But in order to fully experience God's blessings, you have to let go of those past hurts; you have to forget the former things to make room for the new. God has a new beginning in store for all of us, and the way we prepare for it is by getting rid of the old. Don't spend time focusing on where you've been; spend time focusing on where you're going. God's healing begins today by declaring that you are a new creation, receive the restoration and victory God has in store for you! I wish you the best of everything throughout the years to come.

DEAF To The World

Eighteen years ago, I was given an open vision, which is the strongest of all visions. What is an open vision? First, allow me to explain what a vision is.

A vision is a visible picture sent by God. A divine sent vision can be received while dreaming and is unmistakable when God sends it compared to any other ordinary dream. What is revealed bears witness with your spirit of the meaning of what is seen or could be literally what is to happen in the future.

Another type of spiritual vision may occur while meditating on the Lord and by the Holy Spirit led into the Spiritual realm to see things, as the Book of Revelation is described by John. An open vision is when you are neither asleep or caught up in the spirit like in a spiritual trance. An open vision is shown to you when you are wide awake and have full mental capacity and all-natural senses working simultaneously. You cannot feel a vision come on and you cannot conjure or create the vision yourself such as positive thinking. It is and must be granted by God to whomever, whenever to reveal whatever He chooses.

Regardless or however old I become, I will never forget where I was, what I was doing or what I saw in that open vision. That vision was the most impactful, meaningful experience of my life as it was the first day of my new life in Christ. It was the third time He called me, I had run from Him but this time, more than ever, He meant business. He knew I would never understand what I was to do and probably would be slow in my seeking to discover it on my own. So, literally, to cut to the chase, He gave me the vision, it played like watching a movie on fast forward on an old VHS videotape. So, no audio could be heard, just fast pictures with the static screen messed up in the middle until the tape ran out and would spit out of a VCR (video cassette recorder) player.

Once the flash of all I saw came to an abrupt halt, I was overwhelmed. Then I heard His voice, "Will you do it?" He was asking if I would do what I saw in the vision. Still overwhelmed and in awe, all I could say, "That's BIG!" Not realizing how much bigger GOD is at that time, He dismissed my comment and repeated His question firmly. "Will you do it?!" Somehow, I knew this wasn't a time to keep God waiting or to need to pray about it; God wanted an answer and now! So, I said, "Yes." Then God told me to go to a specific local church.

Originally, God called me to that church in 1995, but I made excuses that it was too far to drive. A few years later and due to circumstances, which God was orchestrating, I moved closer to that church and eventually answered my calling. In 1998, God spoke to me a second time, but I ran away not being familiar with how the Holy Spirit uses people to speak into your life with the gift of prophecy, word of knowledge and a word of wisdom. I was so freaked out, I refused the senior pastor's word and quickly left only to hear God correct me for telling a man of God, "NO!" Then God revealed to me to return, apologize and serve that House of God. I ran and never returned until, the third call, the open vision. Then I finally said, "Yes." I returned to church and served wholeheartedly for 17 years, and I never forgot the vision.

In that 17 years, God was introducing Himself to me, wooing me, loving me, growing me, healing me, restoring me, developing my gifts and talents for His purpose and Glory. He was becoming larger to me as our love and intimacy grew in our relationship. His voice became ever clearer and louder. What He was actually doing was training me, equipping me, strengthening me, preparing me to be a spokesperson, a weapon, a warrior for His Kingdom. Once I recognized how truly ENORMOUS my God is, then the opportunity to fulfill this vision began to unfold.

What was this vision? To travel, to evangelize, to preach the gospel to the people both DEAF and hearing in Africa. God has gifted me with the talent of communicating via American Sign Language (ASL). Upon accepting my assignment to serve in that local church, I was immediately put into ministry to interpret the Word of God to His children, the Deaf Community. As I served, His fruit, favor, faithfulness, and blessings were evident all granted but not without a price; however, the pain and suffering added to my development as well.

All of this was merely preparation for His true purpose for me, to join the Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network (HSBN) Team as a broadcaster of the program, Deaf To The World (DTTW). Then upon divine revelation was invited to embark on the first step, my first journey to fulfilling that vision, to travel to Africa to minister to the Deaf people of Kenya. I had 17 days to get ready to walk out the vision I had received 17 years before.

Those you see in the picture with me were the first group of deaf people that sincerely embraced me at the official government building for the Governor of Eldoret. That day, in that moment of meeting my deaf brothers and sisters face to face for the first time, I felt so much love, joy, purpose and a sense of Home. There is so much more to this incredible story, but I hope my initial article of this amazing story of this part of God's journey for me creates an interest for you to join me again in the future as I continue to share all the wonders experienced from this divinely ordained trip.

Most of all I pray it inspires you to believe God for whatever He is calling you to do no matter how long the wait and to restore to you an anchor of Hope to hold one to as you hold on to Him.

HSBN - Spotlights

A BRAND NEW PROGRAM

The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network is very pleased to announce the launching of a brand new exciting program to its weekly premier line-up called, "FAITH TO LIVE BY" with Pam Christian.

"Faith to Live By" is the title of Pamela Christian's magazine style, journalistic 30-minute dynamic show that brings solutions to difficult life-issues from the Christian perspective.

With the help of qualified guests, Christian explores real-world issues, familiar to most, with respect, compassion, and discretion. The show's focus will include:

- Significant Social/Cultural Issues
- Interpersonal Relationship Issues
- Mental, Emotional, Physical, and Spiritual Health
- Home and Financial Management
- The role of The Church in Society
- And more.

Christian's new show will begin airing in January 2018. Programs will cover controversial and intimate topics such as abortion recovery, depression and anxiety, teen trans-gender contagion, and suicide. Christian's focus is to help individuals apply God's truth to life's difficult issues and to help Church leadership better minister to people in need.

"From the beginning, God's intention for humanity was to take dominion over darkness, in His authority. Humanity failed in the Garden of Eden, and as evidenced by the immoral and corrupt conditions in our world today, we continue to fail. Jesus' post-resurrection mandate was for Believers to make disciples of all nations. Instead, we have generations of people going to hell in a hand-basket that's been woven by the Church—this has got to stop!" Christian boldly declared.

Considering that 1 Peter 4:17 clearly states that judgment will begin with the Church, the world needs brave Believers like Christian. She's already gotten the attention of several recognized Christian leaders for her ministry, and award-winning book series also titled, "Faith to Live By." Highly respected leaders such as Bill Johnson, Dr. Richard Land, Dr. James Goll, Josh McDowell, Dr. Craig Hazen, Dan Story, Dr. Charles H. Kraft, and HSBN.tv's own Andrew Bills are but a few who have endorsed Pam's work.

The general show format begins with a short video of an everyday person who is suffering, or has suffered, an issue common to most. Then, returning to the live broadcast Christian and her Guest Expert, explore the topic to help audience members either avoid the same difficulty, or best get through the issue, as Christian states "to embrace the victory Christ died to give us."

Pamela Christian

Christian shares, "My heart breaks for people. Deception is rampant in the world today. Barna Research Group and the Pew Forum on Religion and Public Life report sad realities among those who profess to have faith in Jesus. Even worse are the growing numbers of people claiming no faith, or believe that all roads lead to the same God and heaven. I want to help people everywhere discover and live in life-giving truth."

As Christian writes in the first book in the series, "Unless we examine what we believe, we could easily be deceived without realizing it. Deception's nature is that the victim is unaware. No one wants to live their life based on a lie, yet vast numbers of people do." Christian's direct, yet compassionate approach is evident in all her ministry work. We can look forward to the Faith to Live By television show offering the same determination.

Christian is no stranger to media. She hosted live Christian talk-radio in two major markets, covering social and cultural issues, pop-culture, politics, and has worked as the Guest Host on The Holy Spirit Live, seen on The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network at www.hsbn.tv.

Christian's ministry work began over twenty-five years ago as a Bible Teacher for Community Bible Study, an interdenominational, international ministry, which generated invitations to speak at retreats and conferences. She holds a certificate in Apologetics from Biola University and is an ordained, itinerant minister of the Gospel. Christian is also a member of the Board for Advanced Writers and Speaker's Association, member of the International Society for Women in Apologetics, and former leader for Christian Women in Media and faculty member with CLASeminars, Inc.

Christian's scheduled programs will focus on controversial and intimate concerns she believes the Church is not sufficiently addressing. Her style is not one of accusation, but one of compassion. People are encouraged to submit program topic ideas and testimonials that may appear on the show by visiting Christian's Facebook page "Faith To Live By TV." Upcoming programs and resources for her viewers can be found on the show's website: FaithToLiveBy.com

Faith to Live By TV is a ministry of Pamela Christian Ministries, which began in 1997. The ministry was initially established to provide teaching and speaking at retreats and conference, which remains available. In 2003, the ministry expanded into various media. Additional services include travel, turnkey conferences, fund-raising, and corporate events. She offers a complimentary bi-monthly E-newsletter to subscribers, and her blog is recognized among the top fifty blog sites for the category. # MORNING MANNA MINISTRIES

By Rosanna Roman

Danny and Evangelist Roseanna Roman have been married for 31 years and have 3 sons Paul, Tony and Isaiah. Tony has been married to Claudia for 7 years they are now and are proud parents of six year old daughter, Mellanie Jade.

Danny is a teacher in public school system and Evangelist Roseanna has been a housewife since 1986.

Crosspoint Church has been their home church since 2012 and is where their ministries are flourishing. Evangelist Roseanna is an author, conference speaker and a host of the Morning Manna Television Program. Danny is her greatest supporter!

In 2010 Morning Manna Ministry was founded in the living room of their home. This ministry to women began with worship, prophetic words, and sermons brought forth by the five fold ministry gifts from neighboring churches.

In Sept. of 2012 Morning Manna began ministering to women at Crosspoint Church, 6950 Edison Avenue in Chino, CA. Evangelist Roseanna and the local five fold ministry leaders teach women to advance in adversity, progress in pain and move forward despite hardships. Isaiah 43:2.

In 2014 Morning Manna hosted unity conferences called "Unifying Impact" (2014,-15, & 2017). Over 500 people joined us each year!

NO FEAR

By Christine Ellis

Notice that the title of this article is NO FEAR. Fear is the number one issue that we as the body of Christ are dealing with on a daily basis.

You may be at a point in your life right now where you have to strategically reject any notion of fear, because if you allow the fear in, it's got you. There is nothing worse than to believe you are moving forward only to realize you have not moved one step from where you stood. It's both frustrating and self-condemning, but that is what fear can and will try to do to you! As a matter of fact, after immediately deciding to do anything in life that is worth while and the initial euphoria wears off, the very next emotion will be the feeling of "Oh no! What did I just commit myself to? What was I thinking? There is no way I can achieve this monumental task!"

That, my dear friends is called the FEAR OF THE UNKNOWN! Some will say this is a very normal reaction to which I will answer, ABSOLUTELY NOT! Even a small ounce of fear can put you at a disadvantage. You are faced with two options: fight or flight. Both reactions can be beneficial depending on the situation, so why even risk allowing fear to enter.

Have you ever noticed that children are not born fearful of anything? Fear is acquired by all of us. I remember when my daughter was two years old. We had just moved to a new house, a model home, and we were standing on the balcony over our backyard where the builder had planned for the future owners to put in a pool. At the time, however, it looked like a miniature golf course. My daughter looked at her father and I and asked us if she could jump down there. Needless to say, we never put a pool in that house or any other house we lived in! What I just described to you was a fearless child. We recognized that in her early on and we started to inspire her to remain fearless. Today, she is one of the bravest human

My position has and will always be that fear has no place in you, your business, or anything you beings I have ever known. She will kill a bug and scream at the same time! At 20 years old, she has become such a beautiful soul. Prosperity and stability do not thrive where fear dwells. Although it is important to use wisdom when making decisions or embarking on new adventures, be aware of the presence of fear that could creep in. The cemetery is full of treasures in the form of great inventions that could have been invented, books that could have been written, destiny's unfulfilled all because of fear. Fear is a thief and has a way of grabbing a hold of you. They say, a little bit of paranoia can't kill anyone, but let me be the first to tell you that fear can start the process, so don't allow it! These days fear is rampant; in the business world, the uncertainty at the market place, the unstable and careless ways people are conducting their lives and business affairs affect many. Don't get trapped in that doomsday attitude that is so very paralyzing your business world. Remain steadfast on what you set out to do! Be determined to be the best you can be, and for the sake of your future, stand firm and say NO to fear!

I allowed fear to intimidate me when it came to my own business. I looked at myself as a failure because of what I assumed others were thinking. I was afraid people would question my intelligence if they saw I lost so much money and had to sell my business. I was afraid people would ask where I went wrong and why I owed money to others. These fears plagued my mind, until one day I had to stand up to them and let them know WHOSE I was! I am a child of God! By His grace and hand upon me, I have purpose here! I was given that business "for such a time as this." I am just a potter in the Master's hands. I am full of love. I am kind. In 20 years, I helped countless people, gave jobs to those who needed jobs, a place where they felt loved and I sent countless kids to school. I have the reputation of an encourager, a helper, a friend and a loyal sister through trial and tribulation! As I gained the upper hand and raised my voice to fear, its voice started to become dimmer until it became non-existent. I went from being told who I was, to declaring who I was in Christ! I now had the upper hand and the victory!

Working in the mental health arena, I have quite a bit of experience in the area of fear and I can tell you that almost 100% of those suffering from this debilitating disease are from some sort of fear factor. Why I am so sure? Because if we can get to the point where the fear is removed, the disease also leaves with it! Isn't that amazing! For the last 14 years, I have had the privilege to start and serve in a ministry that helped the homeless population in Phoenix, Arizona. In all those years, I have witnessed too many lives destroyed by fear. I have seen so many people lose their minds because of fear and the most bizarre thing is that most are oblivious to this killer. Since fear is subjective, we tend to downplay those who present symptoms of fear. Also, the majority of those in fear have an underlying issue with other diseases, so we can diagnose the disease, but not the fear factors. One of the major reasons is because of the code of silence that surrounds it. People don't like to admit that they are afraid, specifically in the context of what we are talking about now, which is the FEAR OF THE UNKNOWN.

Do you find yourself always making excuses as to why you cannot make decisions? Do you refuse to let others know what you are truly thinking? Is it impossible for you to believe that your situation can change for the better? Are you often feeling alone in a losing battle? Are you thinking that you will never succeed? Are you getting very good at self-sabotaging? These are some of the questions I would like you to ask yourself. A little self-examination can really bring you on the road to self-discovery, which in turn will take fear away from you! The most effective way to start this process of self-examination is to recognize that at one point or another we will all encounter fear. If you are going through a fearful episode in your life right now, be assured that this can be a temporary state. You do not have to live with that fear forever! Ask yourself this one thing - "Why do some people seem to bounce back easier than others from fear or life's adversities?" It is not by accident and it is not because they are better than you. One of the common denominators of such people is that they are believers in living intentionally!

Chiropractor to Crusader

By Dr. Dan Vanderford

Dr. Dan Vanderford graduated from the University of California, Davis in 1979 with a Bachelor's Degree in Biology. Later, he went on to graduate from the Southern California College of Chiropractic, summa cum laude and was awarded a Doctorate in Chiropractic Medicine.

He established a thriving practice in Capistrano Beach, California for over ten years. He was still a practicing doctor when God called him to full-time ministry in 2007. The call was to preach the Gospel in all of Latin America. He founded Godfire Ministries and beginning in 2008 he and his team began to do Evangelical Crusades in Mexico in their 1000-person tent.

As God began to expand their ministry, they added Children's Events and Medical Brigades. They begin to call the events "Tres Dias de Bendicion". In Central America, in 2012, Godfire Ministries ministered to a total of 150,000 men, women and children. In the Medical Brigades, they treated 5,000 patients. In total, they witnessed an estimated 5,000 souls receive Jesus as Lord.

In the last two years, God has opened the Nation of Cuba to Godfire Ministries. We have had the opportunity to travel the length of Cuba and do 40+ Evangelical Events, seeing hundreds of salvations, miracles, and healings. Our motto is "Stirring an awakening; co-laboring to bring harvest".

Dr. Dan's objective has been to join forces with the local church in the area which God has called us, so we can work together to see a harvest of souls. We aim to attract people to our events. We know we will see miracles and healing, and many will be baptized with the Holy Spirit. But the very first thing we always do is preach the Gospel and give people the opportunity to receive Jesus! That's our priority.

Dr. Dan not only believes in the demonstration of the power of God but in a commitment to the Word of God. As such he has spent the last two years completing the studies to become a licensed minister and is near completion for Credentials of Ordination.

Jesus Asks, "Are You Listening"

Christy Charles

Christy Charles' book, which is currently being published, is called "A Forgiven Child." It reveals the dramatic and rebellious life of a prodigal preacher's kid and the Power of God's Love and Forgiveness. Sexually molested as a young girl, pregnant as a very young teen, rebellious to her Christian parents, Christy became a "Girl gone wild."

Running with the wrong crowd, resulted in years of lying, fighting, fornication, drugs, multiple marriages, physical and verbal abuse, acts of adultery, being kidnapped, knives being held to her throat, abandonments, seizures, sleeping in cars while pregnant, along with many other destructive habits and negative situations.

Until The Holy Spirit of God arrested her and the prodigal daughter came home. You'll be greatly moved and inspired as you read her book called, "The Forgiven Child."- Coming Soon!

Christy Charles is now an Evangelist, preaching the Gospel in churches, park rallies, streets, over the airwaves on radio, social media sites, and now on television on

The Holy Spirit Broadcasting Network www.hsbn.tv. Her weekly program is called, "Jesus Asks, Are You Listening?" You'll be encouraged as you listen to her broadcasts.

ATtheWELL

By Pastor Ric Perez

Seven years ago I walked into Pitches Detention Facility, a men's jail, on a cold Wednesday evening, not knowing what I would be walking into, but just trusting God that He had sent me into this place for such a time.

Services are held in an on-site chapel and on that night something special was being birthed. 15 inmates attended the very first service, eagerly awaiting a teaching from the Holy Spirit. I remember spending hours and hours preparing my Message, yet little did I know that God had ordained something else. It would be big and it would not be stopped.

In the middle of my Message I heard the Holy Spirit tell me to "stop, and ask them about baptism". So as directed I stopped the Message and did exactly as I was told. I taught them about water baptism (immersion) and its biblical and eternal importance. Then I asked them if any of them had been baptized. None. Then I asked them if God made a way would they like to get baptized. They all responded with a resounding "yes". I recall telling them that if God wanted them to be baptized nothing could stand in the way.

The next day I called the Senior Chaplain and asked if we could do actual baptisms in the jail. His initial response was no, but said he would speak with the facility Captain. The next day I got a call from him telling me that the Captain had agreed to allowing baptisms. The only problem was that we would need some type of pool or container to actually use for the baptism. The Senior Chaplain didn't have any ideas and nor did I since we were all new to this process in the jail. Several days passed when I received another phone call from the same Senior Chaplain sounding astonished. He told me that as they were cleaning a room in the Chapel they found an unmarked, strapped box. They opened it and found it to be a brand new baptismal pool! God wanted them to be baptized and nothing was going to stand in the way.

This singular event started a chain reaction that to this day has not stopped.

Needless to say the 15 men that were baptized were not the last. The following months and several years after led to over 2,000 being baptized in the Name of Jesus adding to the Kingdom of God. Through the efforts of this ministry and through the leading and direction of the Holy Spirit, over 5,000 men have accepted Jesus as their personal Savior. There have been many miracles as well. Tumors and cancers have been healed. Backs and shoulders have been healed. Relationships with fathers have been established and even healed. The spirits of fear, addiction and religion have been bound just to name a few. Even generational curses have been isolated, rebuked and lives have been impacted all to the glory of God.

Since my initial visit to the facility, God has blessed this prison ministry effort and it has expanded to another level. ATtheWELL now has secured our own standalone approval, so expanding this Kingdom effort is a goal for 2018. Even now we have begun an effort led by the Holy Spirit, to disciple men who are called to serve the Kingdom of God either in the jail or once they have been released, in the world. ATtheWELL is prepared to make a spiritual investment into their lives so they can encounter the living God and fulfill their divine Calling.

The ATtheWELL Prison Ministry is looking for financial partners in upcoming 2018. This is a full time ministry with goals and expectations to change not only lives but also communities. It is our desire to engage these potential five-fold ministers on a daily basis rather than on a monthly visit.

Much more can be accomplished with your help and with your participation. Financial donations can be mailed to ATtheWELL 540 S. Lake Avenue #843 Pasadena Calif. 91101 or you can go to ATtheWELL.org and make your donation via our website.

Aviv Judea Messianic Congregation

By Rabbi Corey Sylvester

My name is Rabbi Corey Sylvester from Aviv Judea Messianic Congregation.

(avivjudea.org). I was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. I went to Hebrew School and had a bar mitzvah in an Orthodox synagogue.

I graduated from Brooklyn College in NY. I came to Southern California to study Optometry where I received my doctorate in Optometry. I practiced optometry for thirty-five years until retiring in 2015, to give to the ministry full time.

I became a Messianic Jew in 1974 and Licensed and ordained as a Messianic Rabbi in 2005. I married another Messianic Jew and gifted artist, Hilary Sylvester.

(baruchdesigns.com) in 1979.

Yeshua has given me many gifts that I love to share such as music, Davidic dancing, humor and drama and of course, shepherding the flock and teaching.

Aviv Judea formally became a congregation on February 24, 1978, forty years ago! Michael Davis was our founding Rabbi, and I led the liturgical portion. After Rabbi Mike passed in 2004, I became the congregational leader. We have been growing and diligently fulfilling His mission to reach out to the Lost Sheep of Israel and to open its doors to the Jews and to the Gentiles (the nations). We truly are a place where the walls of partition have been broken down.

On October 1, 2014, we finally purchased and moved into our very own building in Fullerton. We are right on a busy main street near Downtown Fullerton. Part of our vision is to create a Messianic Jewish community center that would be open to all. Imagine a full-time place for learning Torah, and His Word, a place to have Shabbat dinners open to the community, a library and gift shop. These are all dreams until we pay off the remainder of our loan. It is nothing but a miracle that we are in our

The congregation of Aviv Judea is made up of the many nations. We follow the Jewish Messiah and worship through liturgy, music, and dance. Everyone that comes through our doors remarks how much love and joy we have for one another and for our G-d.

Please join us for a Shabbat when you are in Southern California. We meet every Saturday morning at 10 am at 704 E. Commonwealth Avenue, Fullerton, CA. After services, we have a delicious pot luck-filled with good fellowship. We have men and women's groups, and for those who want to delve deeper into His Word, we have Rabbi's corner in the afternoon.

I have been privileged to be one of HSBN's broadcasters, and I love to study His Word with a Jewish perspective, and the Jewish context that Yeshua lived in 2000 years ago. I also am honored to be one of the teachers for the HSBN School of Ministry with my class studying the time from Isaiah to the Birth of Messiah.
