

Pursuant to the provisions of EU Regulation 2016/679 on the protection of privacy, Casa Tonini Ostuni acknowledge that the personal data, compulsorily provided for the stipulation of any rental contract, are subject to computer and/or manual processing and may be used exclusively for the fulfilment of contractual obligations, the administrative management of the rental relationship, relations with public administrations and the judicial authority and for legal obligations relating to civil, fiscal and accounting regulations.

This data will be safely stored and destroyed after three years from the end of the most recent rental contract.