There will be a complimentary shuttle bus transfer service operated by the local community between Queen Elizabeth and 330 Harbour Drive, Cannery Hall. The first bus will depart at 8.30am. The shuttle bus transfer will take approximately 15 minutes each way and is subject to the local traffic conditions on the day. The last shuttle bus from 330 Harbour Drive, Cannery Hall to Queen Elizabeth will be at 3.00pm. This bus is not exclusive to Cunard guests, therefore, please understand that there may be queues and waiting times at peak periods of travel and seating is on a first come first served basis. The last bus will not be able to accommodate everybody, so we ask guests to plan your day accordingly.

Environmental notice for Alaska

Guests are politely reminded of the need to respect the environment when going ashore in Alaska. Please dispose of all garbage responsibly and bring anything back to the ship that you cannot dispose of properly ashore. Please do not take any souvenirs to avoid any matter from falling over the ship's side and if you do see something, please report it to a crew member.

Noise restrictions in Alaska

In order to respect local communities and to preserve the tranquility of Alaskan ports, music is not permitted to make open deck announcements or provide any live entertainment or music on open decks whilst alongside, during sail-in and sailaway.

Ship's security notice

In order to prevent unauthorised persons boarding the ship, you are required to carry your Voyage card with you when going ashore. You will be asked to produce this at the gangway when you leave and return to the ship.

Be aware that we have established a secure area around the vessel and our security procedures require that you must be prepared to show your Voyage card when entering this area, in addition to showing it to the Security Staff at the gangway when leaving or boarding the ship.

We kindly ask you not to accept and bring on board any parcels or packages from strangers. Before boarding the ship, you may also be asked by our Security Staff to open parcels or handbags which you are carrying. We are sure that you will appreciate that this security is in the best interest of all concerned.

United States department of Agriculture notice

Local regulations prohibit the removal of food items from the vessel. Items that cannot be removed includes fresh fruit and vegetables, meat of any kind, prepared meals including sandwiches, dairy products or any other consumable food items, flowers, seeds or plants.

Tonight's Dress Code: Smart Attire

Queen Elizabeth Voyage Q425

Weather 19°C (66.2°F)

Sunrise 5.34am

Sunset 8.34pm

Partly cloudy skies and a gentle breeze

Time Zone: GMT-8

1 hour forward at 2.00am on Sunday morning

In the port of Sitka, Alaska, USA

Arrival time: 8.00am | All aboard time: 3.30pm

Port Highlights

Sitka is a hidden beauty on the east coast of Baranof Island in southeast Alaska. Towered over by snowy mountains in the distance, it has previously been known as the Indian River Park and Totem Park. A city that appears to have sprung up in the most unlikely of locations, Sitka is one of Alaska's most picturesque port calls. Its location celebrates everything that makes this otherworldly United States state unique: snow-encrusted mountains, densely forested wilderness and intensely sapphire waters that radiate with glass-like shine. Yet the city is more than a basecamp for outdoor adventurers. Sitka enjoys a blended history as diverse as its scenery. Russian, Tlingit and American settlers have all imprinted on the city. Art and culture thrive as richly as Pacific salmon here, and while small compared to other Alaskan communities, Sitka boasts countless treasures for visitors to admire. With only 22 miles of paved roads, Sitka is a magnet for travellers looking to escape it all. Civilisation here certainly is not how most visitors know it, and it is this contrast to the bustle of modern society that lends Sitka such enduring appeal. Take a walking tour to discover more about the city's history or enjoy a leisurely browse of its independent bookshops, galleries and gift shops. Sitka's Whale Park also presents one of the best opportunities for whale spotting in Alaska. Whales are frequent visitors to shore here. High-quality seafood sets the bar for Sitka's restaurants and Sitka's shopping is a reflection of the cultures that have helped to shape the city over the years.

Visiting Alaska

A Note from the Naturalist

Sitting perched on the outer coastline of Baranof Island, Sitka is something of a wildlife mecca. The inland waters of Sitka Sound are home to thriving populations of sea otters. For marine enthusiasts, minke whales and even sperm whales frequent these waters and for birders, the St. Lazara Islands at the mouth of the sound are the hotspot. Petrels, kittiwakes, murrens and tufted puffins congregate on this chain of rocky outcrops through the summer months.

Scenic Highlights

Scenic sail into Sitka, Mount Edgecombe may be in view.

Protecting Alaska

During our stay in Alaska, to comply with local port regulations, the Captain's departure announcement and other information announcements will not be placed out on the open decks when in port. These announcements will be limited to inside public spaces and on Stateroom TV, Channel 41.

Welcome! Downtown Sitka is rich in history and attractions that share the culture of our community. While you're here be conscious of your surroundings by using crosswalks, leaving no trace, and respecting Lingit Aani.

1 Visit Sitka Visitor Information Center is open year-round. Friendly staff will answer your questions with the most up-to-date information. 3 MINS ♿

1 Baranof Castle State Historic Site was an early stronghold of the Tlingit Kiks.ádi Clan. Later, the Russian Governor occupied the hill in "Baranov's Castle" until 1894. In 1867, this was the site of the Alaska transfer from Russia to the United States. Access stairs from Lincoln St. or a paved walkway from Harbor Way. 10 MINS, NHLS ♿

2 St. Michael's Cathedral was the first Orthodox church in the Americas. The current building is an exact replica of the original, which was built in the 19th century and destroyed in the fire of 1966. The church has an active congregation and houses a collection of artifacts and icons believed to date back to the 17th century. 3 MINS, NHLS, NRHP ♿ $

3 Sitka Lutheran Church is the site of the first Protestant church on the West Coast of North America. The church contains artifacts from the original 1843 Finnish Lutheran Church, including the 1844 Kessler organ. 3 MINS ♿

4 Harrigan Centennial Hall is Sitka's civic and convention center. In the summer, the hall is the drop-off location for cruise shuttles and is also home to tour operator vendor stations. ♿

5 Sitka History Museum features Sitka's story from the U.S. purchase to the current day, with rotating exhibits highlighting different aspects of local history. 1 MIN ♿ $

6 Russian Bishop's House, c. 1841, is a log structure and one of the oldest surviving buildings of Russian America. Now an NPS museum, it was once the home and office of the first Bishop of the Orthodox Church. 3 MINS, NHLS, NRHP ♿ ☂

7 St. Peter's by the Sea Episcopal Church & See House is the oldest standing church in Sitka. Built in 1899 of stone and wood in the Gothic Revival style, the church features a rose stained glass window with a Star of David. The See House behind the church was built in 1905 as the church rectory. 5 MINS, NRHP

8 Sitka Sound Science Center (The Sage Building, c. 1929), housed a hydro plant that supplied energy to the neighborhood. Today, it is home to an aquarium, a wet lab, and an onsite fish hatchery. 9 MINS ♿ $

9 Sheldon Jackson State Museum is the oldest museum in Alaska and the state's first concrete building. Occupied since 1897, the octagon-shaped building currently houses a collection of over 6,000 Alaska Native artifacts from across the state. 9 MINS, NRHP ♿ $

10 Sitka Fine Arts Campus, formerly Sheldon Jackson College, was founded in 1878 and was comprised of over 18 buildings. Today, it is home to year-round arts education programs for youth and adults; and the Sitka Music Festival. 9 MINS, NHLS, NRHP ♿

11 Sitka National Historical Park, Alaska's oldest federal cultural and historical park, was designed in 1890. This park preserves and interprets the 1804 battle site between the Tlingit Kiks.ádi and Russians. Haida and Tlingit totem poles from the early 1900s, as well as modern carved poles, are located in the visitor center and along the gravel pathway. 20 MINS, NRHP ♿

12 Alaska Raptor Rehabilitation Center is a rehabilitation center for bald eagles and other birds of prey. The center aims to heal injured birds and release them back into the wild. 20 MINS ♿ $

13 Fortress of the Bear is a bear rescue center where resident brown and black bears roam in a naturalized setting. The visitor center allows you to view from above in a covered area or from ground level. 2 HRS ♿ $ ☂

14 Sitka National Cemetery, established in the late 19th century, is one of two National Cemeteries in Alaska that memorialize U.S. military veterans. 20 MINS, NRHP

15 Sitka Russian Cemetery is over 200 years old and contains more than 1,600 graves, many marked with headstones made from the ballast of Russian ships. 8 MINS

16 Princess Maksoutoff's Grave honors Princess Maria Maksoutoff, the Russian-born wife of the last Russian governor, Prince Dimitri Maksoutoff. After her death in 1881, at the age of 36, Princess Maksoutoff was returned to Sitka for burial. 9 MINS

17 Russian Blockhouse is a replica of the building that was once part of a fort wall that separated the Russian and Tlingit sections of Sitka after the Tlingit moved back to the area 20 years following the Battle of 1804. 10 MINS

18 Alaska Native Brotherhood Hall (Sitka Camp No. 1), c. 1914, was built as a meeting place for the fight for Alaska Native rights, and the camp continues to be an important force in preserving Native heritage. 14 MINS, NHLS, NRHP ♿

19 Sheet'ka Kwaán Naa Kahidi Tribal Community House, home of the Naa Kahidi Native Dancers, was built in the style of a traditional Tlingit clan house on a site that once housed the Indian Government School. 12 MINS ♿ ☂

20 Totem Square is an Alaska State Park area at the end of Lincoln St. This small park contains a 40-foot totem pole that displays the double-headed eagle of Sitka's Russian heritage. 10 MINS ♿

21 Sitka Pioneer Home was built in the 1930s on the site of wooden Russian barracks. Today, the building is an assisted living facility for 75 elderly Alaskans. A 13-foot bronze statue titled "The Prospector" graces the front of the building. 10 MINS, NRHP ♿
