The screenshot shows the Glassdoor website interface. At the top, the 'GLASSDOOR' logo is on the left, and navigation links for 'Community', 'Jobs', 'Companies', and 'Salaries' are on the right. Below the logo is a 'My feed' section with a 'Post anonymously as Copywriter' button and a 'Create post +' button. The main content area features a banner with the text 'You're hired' and 'You're fired' on a yellow and red background. Below the banner is the title 'Unemployed' and a description: 'The home for the unemployed. Commiserate and spread tips. Do not post job postings or resumes this bowl.' At the bottom of the post, it shows '43K members' with a pink arrow pointing to the date 'November 12, 2025'. A 'My Bowls' link is visible at the bottom left of the post area.

This screenshot is similar to the one above but shows a later date. The browser's address bar at the top indicates the URL 'glassdoor.com/Community/unemployed'. The 'Unemployed' post now shows '44K members' with a pink arrow pointing to the date 'Feb 18, 2026'. The rest of the page layout, including the 'My feed' section and the banner, remains the same.
