Call for Applications

Are you ready to lead with empathy, courage, and cultural pride?

The Global Unity for Wellbeing Program – Global Network is now accepting applications for its inaugural cohort of members, following nomination Resilience and Empowerment Ambassadors and Resilience and Empowerment Leaders—youth and changemakers committed to healing, inclusion, and systemic transformation.

Whether you're a student, artist, educator, entrepreneur, or advocate, the Global Network for will offer the tools, mentorship, and global platform to make a lasting impact.

Linked to: Resilience Team Association, Texas registered nonprofit corporation.

Purpose: To mobilize and equip a diverse cohort of youth and community ambassadors and leaders to champion mental health, psychosocial support (MHPSS), and resilience-building in vulnerable contexts in the U.S. and globally.

Program Objectives

- Strengthen trauma-informed, culturally responsive leadership in post-crisis and underserved communities.
- Promote youth-led advocacy, education, and psychosocial support through local and global campaigns.
- Build a network of Resilience Ambassadors and Leaders who serve as catalysts for healing, inclusion, and systemic change.
- Foster cross-border collaboration and solidarity among, Texas local communities, the U.S. and globally.

Core values: Resilience, Inclusion, Solidarity, Dignity

Geographic scope: U.S., Angola and globally.

Key pillars: MHPSS, youth empowerment, advocacy, resilience and success storytelling.
