

It's Beginning to Look Like Christmas

Arr. Willis A. Diekema

Lead words with (additional Lyrics)

Verse 1

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas,
Everywhere you go.
(Ev'rywhere, oh ev'rywhere you go).
Take a look at the five and ten, glistening once again,
With candy canes and silver lanes aglow
(yum yum yum, aglow all a-glow)
It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas,
Toys in ev'ry store
(ev'ry store)
But the prettiest sight to see is the holly that will be
On your own front door.

Patter

A pair of hop-a-long boots and a pistol that shoots is Oo — Ah — Oo —
the wish of Barney and Ben,
Dolls that will talk and will go for a walk is the (Oo — Ah — Oo — Ah —)
hope of Janice and Jen;
Mom and Dad can hardly wait for school to start again — once again.

Verse 2

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas,
Everywhere you go — (Ev'rywhere, oh ev'rywhere you go).
There's a tree in the Grand Hotel, one in the park as well,
The sturdy kind that doesn't mind the snow
(Oo oo the snow, mind the snow)
It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas,
Soon the bells will start.
(oh soon the bells will start).
And the thing that will make them ring is the carol that you sing
Right within your heart, your heart.
Right with in (yes right within) your heart
(the carol in) your heart.
