WMNA June 2019 General Meeting
Tuesday, June 4, 7pm – 777 Montecito Avenue, Community Room
Attendees: 36
Introduction
General Discussion
Carly Rebeck, WMNA Chair, opened the meeting with updates on recent Woodlea Melrose events. Two of the Little Free Libraries were refurbished and many books were donated. Block Watch funds were used to purchase a stamp that can be used in the books to show they were at least once in a Little Free Library. There is now a message board at the Tool Shed. The 1st Annual Pet Show had 45 people in attendance and 35 pets were registered for the neighborhood pet database. The database will make it easier to help re-unite pets with owners. Pets can be registered by emailing info@woodleamelrose.org.
Block Watch
General Discussion
Officer Aaron Stevens, the WM community action officer, announced that the burglar that had targeted many small businesses in Melrose is now in custody. Shots were fired on Mother’s Day, but no suspects were found. Officer Stevens will do a FREE home safety survey for anyone interested. He can also register bikes if you let him know in advance. To set up a survey appointment contact Officer Stevens directly – 602-361-0043 or aaron.stevens@phoenix.gov
Sink Holes
General Discussion
Recently there has been talk on the WM Facebook about sinkholes in some yards. Chaz Solomon of BKC Construction spoke about sinkholes and actions that may be taken if they are found. Chaz can be reached at chazsolomon@gmail.com, 714-900-0302. Phoenix’s partnership with a sewer line warranty was discussed. More info can be found at https://www.phoenix.gov/pio/marketing-partnership-program/service-line-warranties-of-america
