

Practicing the Art of Elderhood

TRANSFORMATIVE COACHING COHORT
FOR NEWLY RETIRED LAWYERS

New Chapter. True Purpose.

You've closed the case. Now open the next chapter.

Step into your next season with intention, clarity, and purpose. This small-group coaching cohort is designed exclusively for newly retired lawyers ready to redefine success, explore deeper meanings, and discover what it truly means to be an elder in a rapidly changing world. Practice the alchemy of turning keen hindsight into graceful insight--and move into the retirement you really want with confidence and ease.

In this 8-week journey, you will:

- Reconnect with your core values, inner compass, and deepest self
- Explore your evolving identity beyond the law
- Spaciously and delightfully redefine purpose
- Step into being an elder, not just older, in a world that needs your wisdom
- Build community with fellow professionals navigating a similar transition

Next Steps

You've spent a lifetime advocating for others. Now it's time to invest in yourself—and your legacy. Limited to 6 participants for deep, personalized growth.

Starts October, 2025 | Program includes two personal, one-on-one meetings and six small group sessions that will create lasting connections and access profound collective wisdom. It will be transformative--and fun! Weekly 90 to 120 minute Zoom sessions.

For tuition information and registration, or to learn more, please contact Andy Kull at kull.law@gmail.com or visit andykull.com

About the Facilitator

Andy Kull is an active attorney and former litigator, mediator, and coach. Beyond the law, Andy draws from decades of training with traditional elders, a 30 year foundation of study and practice in Tibetan Buddhism, and a knack for empowering his clients to befriend and embody their own inherent wisdom in a relaxed and relatable way--bringing happiness, connection, and authentic success.