

“THERE SHALL BE NO REGRETS”

The Life of Aviator, Bessie Coleman

Performed by Boston actor, Carol Ann Parker, with period photos and music

Bessie Coleman was the first African-American Female Pilot and the first American – of any race or either gender - to earn an International Pilot’s License directly from the Federation of International Aeronautics in France in 1921

Learn how this ambitious woman achieved many firsts during her short life and career, earning a pilot’s license two years before Amelia Earhart
