

North Atlantic Packard's Technical Seminar

Presents

Evan Ide

When: 11/15/25 10:30 AM

Where: Douglas Library 22 Main St. Hebron, CT

Please join North Atlantic Packard's for our annual technical seminar with this year's presentation by Evan Ide! His career spanning over two decades, has seen him operate in a variety of capacities, including auction house specialist, historian as curator of Larz Anderson Museum, and professional restorer. His specific interest lies in automobiles built prior to World War II. Evan boasts an impressive collection of his own, consisting largely of pre-war cars. Evan is the founder and principal of Historic Vehicle Services, a Massachusetts-based restoration shop, where he combines his experience and interests in restoring unique and ultra-rare automobiles. To date, his restorations have earned multiple awards, including several 'Best of Class' wins, most notably at the Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance. In addition to his preservation efforts, Evan is an accomplished author, publishing, Packard Motor Car Company and Larz Anderson Park. Fans of Chasing Classic Cars may also recognize Evan for his recurring role on the hit television show.
