LACOMBE PUBLIC ART COLLECTION

Our City's public art collection is growing by leaps and bounds! With more than 460 paintings, sculptures, murals, and other artworks, it has become the envy of many communities across the province.

A sample of recent additions includes:

Controller of Tides and Perspective by Adam Lewis

Adam is a proud member of the We Wai Kai Nation on Quadra Island, and his artwork is showcased in both the foyer and main reception area of Lacombe City Hall. His pieces reflect the iconic Northwest Coast style, known for its bold forms and deep cultural significance.

Frigid Waters by Canadian Mouth Painter by Kaileen Selig

Kaileen lives in Vancouver and is a proud member of the Association of Foot and Mouth Painters. Because of a neuromuscular disability, she creates her artwork using her mouth - an incredible testament to her talent and determination. The Committee was delighted to support Kaileen's artistry by welcoming this painting into the collection, a moment that felt truly special for everyone involved.

Through the Trees by James Perrot

James was a gifted watercolor artist and a beloved instructor at the Alberta College of Art. His work is featured in many notable collections, including the Glenbow Museum and the Alberta Foundation for the Arts. This painting beautifully captures the spirit of rural Central Alberta and is sure to spark fond memories for many who view it.

SUPPORT THE ARTS

THE LACOMBE ARTS ENDOWMENT FUND NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT!

Have you ever considered how the arts impact your life? Music, TV, Movies, Books - they are all created by people who have studied in the arts!

Lacombe is blessed to have an Arts Endowment Fund to help residents in Lacombe and Lacombe County pursue their studies in the arts, but it needs your help!

Kaitlin Bishop attended the Society of Children's Book Writers & Illustrators Conference in New York City this winter, and here's what she had to say about receiving an Arts Endowment Grant in 2025:

"There isn't even a chance I'd be able to attend without this grant. The trip, conference expenses, hotel fees etc. The truth is, being an author-illustrator is a very siloed job, and it isn't often I rub shoulders with people in the same industry. Being able to go and meet so many of these people was incredible. One of my goals is to become a traditionally published author-illustrator, and by meeting agents, learning how to write query letters, and having my work put out there, I am now leaps and bounds closer to that goal than I was before."

I am so grateful for this grant and how much the City of Lacombe pours into its arts and culture. Friends, family, and those I met in New York have all been so amazed that my City provides such amazing grants towards the arts. Thank you, and I hope this program not only continues, but gets even bigger!

You can check out Kaitlin's work here: KaitlinBishopillustrations.com, or visit: <https://www.facebook.com/kaitlinbishopillustrations/>

Please consider donating today to help grow the Lacombe Arts Endowment fund and enrich our community even further.

Kindergarten & Pre-Kindergarten Registration 2026/2027

Our pre-kindergarten program focuses on purposeful play, and is designed to increase communication, socialization and learning readiness for successful entry into kindergarten. Bright Futures Play Academy is designed for three and four year old children who would benefit from early learning opportunities focused on purposeful play in the years prior to kindergarten.

Our kindergarten program provides the opportunity for young children to explore and experiment with a variety of stimulating materials in a warm, supportive classroom environment. Through play, children grow in their concept development, language and thinking skills, and social and physical skills.
