☐ Three Old Broads Logline

Fannie, Rita and Dottie are longtime good friends and musical performers with a long resume of performances in musicals. and are doing one more show, but not the last show, as they supportively sing and dance and provide a potpourri of humor and advice and all with involvement with the audience.

Three Old Broads Synopsis

“Three Old Broads” is a two act Musical with three attractive older and mature show business ladies during opening night of the Musical. The Three Old Broads are

Fannie and Rita and Dottie, who have been in musical theater forever. Dressed in chorus line type costumes for most of the musical and other costumes, they sing and dance a variety of songs. Many of the songs are “girl” songs celebrating performing women and show business. Also, they provide several potpourri of jokes to provide them with an identity, and to connect with and entertain the audience.

The Three Old Broad ladies are an “act” on and off the stage, and the intention is to develop an insight into their personal backgrounds. The Girls are close old friends and they demonstrate their love of performing and being on the stage together. “The ‘An Occasional Guy’ is David who supports the story in several scenes and performs ‘Three Old Broads and a Guy’ with the Ladies. Sam has voiceover appearances as the Lighting and Sound Director. An “occasional guy” participates and performs in several scenes.

There are 10 scenes and nine songs in Act 1; and eight scenes and nine songs in Act 2. There are only two sets: one is the Three Old Broads dressing room and the other is the full Stage with minimal props. The Musical begins with an all dialogue first scene to engage the audience and reveal who the Three Old Broads are. The musical spirit and the lyrics of the Three Old Broads song encapsulates the spirit and professionalism of the three old broads.

(SONG THREE OLD BROADS)

We're three old broads
Still bumping and grinding it
Show biz all the way
We're three old broads
We got our behind in it
We are here to say

FANNIE GIRL 1 SINGS
(SONG: I AM JUST AN ORDINARY GIRL)
Just an elementary girl
Impeccably coy
A treat and a joy
I'm just an ordinary girl

RITA AND DOTTIE GIRL 2 AND GIRL 3
(ENTER TOGETHER FROM STAGE RIGHT)
(WEAR COATS OVER THEIR COSTUMES)
Hi Fannie! Why are you always so early?

FANNIE
Hi, dears. I'm so glad you're both here. I was worried. I'm so glad you're here Rita. (A HUG) I missed you Dottie. (A HUG)

GIRLS
(ALL HUG IN A CIRCLE)

RITA GIRL 2
You look great.

DOTTIE GIRL 3
My God Fannie--- when did you get here?

FANNIE
About three hours ago.

DOTTIE
You're going to be pooped before the show starts.

FANNIE
I'm so nervous. What's good for diarrhea?

DOTTIE
I just said you were going to be pooped and now you have diarrhea. I am so prophetic.

RITA

(LAUGHS)

Yes, Dottie you have this precognitive way to anticipate diarrhea.

DOTTIE

Particularly because your name is Fannie. (HESITATES)

Yes, if the show goes into the crapper, we can blame Fannie.

RITA

(KIDDING SARCASTICALLY)

You really are so---UNCLEVER with your puns.

FANNIE

(SITS AT TABLE LITTLE TENSE)

I really shouldn't be nervous. We have been rehearsing forever. And after all the years we've been performing in musicals you would think I was over getting nervous.

RITA

(PUTS ARM AROUND FANNIE)

Speaking of all those years, I think that show we did for Abraham Lincoln went very well. Until John Wilkes Booth showed up. He really killed the show.

DOTTIE

That's why we never played that theater again. (HESITATES) Darling, there's always a lot of tension before a performance. We've been there before so many times. Hell, we were doing Cole Porter and Irving Berlin and Richard Rodgers musicals when they were all alive. Well, not quite but it sounds good.

FANNIE

My favorite part was in "Sound of Music" when I played the Mother Superior. I was hiding behind the nun's habit and nobody could see me. It made me feel safe.

RITA

I tried out for that part one time. They said I was too busty and had to tape these suckers down---(GRABS BOSSOM) with duct tape if I wanted the part. I'm not putting duct tape on these bazookas. Nuns have boobs, but they just don't use them. I got them and I'm going to use them.

DOTTIE

(TAKES OFF COAT, SHOWS HER CHORUS LINE COSTUME)

There is no hiding behind these sexy slinky chorus line outfits.

(WEARS BRIGHT COLORFUL SNEAKERS,

SHOWS OFF SNEAKERS AND JUMPS AROUND)

Can I do the show in my sneakers? I'm not going to put my dancing shoes on until the very last minute. My feet hurt.

FANNIE

My goodness, you both dressed at home.

RITA

It's so much easier.

(TAKES OFF COAT, WEARS CHORUS LINE COSTUME)

RITA, FANNIE, DOTTIE

(DURING REMAINDER OF SCENE
COMPLETE DRESSING & DOING MAKE UP, SITTING OR STANDING AT DRESSING TABLES)

RITA

I stopped at Larry's store and took off my coat so he could see me. I just love Larry's body. I was hoping he would stick his tongue in my ear.

DOTTIE

That's disgusting.

RITA

(GRABS HER HEAD AND SHAKES IT)

Have I ever told you about the hot dreams I have about him?

DOTTIE

Please don't---it may bring on one of my hot flashes.

FANNIE

Larry must be more than fifteen years younger than you. You almost could be his mother.

RITA

Yes you're so right----- and I would love to breast feed him.

(SNAPS BOTH ARMS AROUND HER BREASTS, SHOVES AND PUMPS ONE ARM IN THE AIR)

Yes!

DOTTIE

(LOOKS IN MIRROR AT HER FACE)

My God, just look at those wrinkles. I'm not going to put makeup on---I'm going to lather it on with a trowel.

RITA

Just be thankful that wrinkles don't hurt. If they did we would all be in agony.

(LOOKS IN THE MIRROR, MAKES FACES)

Sometimes I hate that lady in the mirror.

DOTTIE

Imagine how it was in the days of BBS.

RITA

What the hell is BBS?

DOTTIE

Before Botox shots.

RITA

You never told me you had Botox treatments.

DOTTIE

Darling, they have a room set aside at the clinic with my name on a gold plaque. I go there so much I get frequent flyer mileage.

FANNIE

How do you think our final dress rehearsal went?

DOTTIE

I think we are all great. You know---there is such a thing as over rehearsing and you get stale before the first performance.

FANNIE

I had to rest yesterday. I tried doing nothing.

RITA

Larry slept over last night and I told him that there is no sex the night before an opening night performance. (HESITATES). Then I made an exception. (HESITATES )
Two times!

DOTTIE

You sound like someone training for the Olympics. So what did Larry do?

RITA

He said, I'm glad I didn't stay home with my wife.

FANNY

Oh Rita dear. One of these days you're going to get in trouble.

RITA

When the sexual revolution is over, I will still have plenty of ammunition.

DOTTIE

Can we go over that step in "We're Not Getting Old?"

RITA, DOTTIE, FANNIE

(GO TO CENTER STAGE,

PRACTICE THE STEP AS THEY SING LYRICS TO
"WE'RE NOT GETTING OLD WE'RE GETTING BETTER," WITH NO MUSIC)

We're not getting old we're getting better
And being too young is really uncouth
Because getting old is really a pleasure
There are too many dreams just wasted on youth

FANNIE

Just moving around relaxes me.

RITA

I feel the same way with sex.

DOTTIE

Sex, sex, sex is all you talk about. I am so lucky to have Jack. Sex with love is really great.

RITA

However Dottie... sex without love isn't bad either.

SAM (VOICE OVER)

Good evening, Ladies. Or should I say Three Old Broads. You realize I can see everything and hear everything in this theater. So if you intend to strip down let me know.

DOTTIE

Sam, you are a dirty lecherous disgusting obnoxious voyeur.

SAM (VOICE OVER)

It's so good to be known for what you are good at and at the same time loved anyhow.

RITA

DOTTIE

Rita, you really shouldn't be smoking.

RITA

Baby, I'm not even going to light it. It just relaxes me.

DOTTIE

Do you light up after sex?

RITA

No darling--- (HESITATES AND VERY SEXY)- I just kind of sizzle.

(LAUGHS)

They did a study and found out Olympic athletes that have sex the night before their events performs as good or better than those that do not have sex.

DOTTIE

Darling, we are not athletes.

RITA

That's not what Larry tells me.

DOTTIE

(LAUGHS)

Why the hell did I go there?

FANNY

Dottie, do you think your husband Jack will come back to see us before the show starts?

DOTTIE

I told him not to. I have my own show business superstitions, and I think visitors before the show are bad luck.

RITA

I have my own superstitions. For instance I will not change my underwear after we have a great rehearsal. One good rehearsal and the underwear stay.

DOTTIE

And exactly when did we have what you consider a great rehearsal?

RITA

The one we had about one weeks ago.

FANNIE

Are those the same underwear you wore when you had sex with Larry?

RITA

Darling, I don't wear underwear when I'm having sex.

(HESITATES)

Besides it was only a quickie.

DOTTIE

So it was a quickie, You did it all in one breath.

RITA

Well---(LONG PAUSE)--- it was actually a quickie for Jack.

(LAUGH AND HESITATES)

I took my time. In fact he was sleeping when the train arrived.

FANNIE

(GIVES RITA A HUG)

I love you Rita ( GIVES RITUA A HUG) Since I lost my husband, Jim, I live a quiet life. It takes all the energy I have when I'm doing theater.

RITA

Fannie, you really should come out with me some time. Really, you need a release.

FANNIE

Well, I have the kids and I have the theater, and I have you gals. I'm happy.

You know---I've been doing theater all my life and I don't know how I would have survived without it. Seriously.

RITA

I originally did it because I thought it was a way to pick up guys. (PAUSE)

Then my first husband found out what I was doing. I was promiscuous before I could spell the word. (LAUGHS) It was a bad marriage anyhow. I remember playing one of the girls in West Side Story. It seems like yesterday or not too many yesterday's ago. And here we are--- (STRETCHES OUT ARMS) ---in “Three Old Broads.’ And I couldn’t be happier than to be with you two old broads.

FANNIE

I went to church Sunday and prayed we would have a great performance. I lit a candle for all of us.

(FANNIE, RITA, AND DOTTIE

HUDDLE AND HOLD HANDS)

RITA

Would it be inappropriate to throw in something about our sex lives in the prayer?

DOTTIE

If God is a “she,” you may have a chance.

(GIVES FANNIE A HUG)

I know, Sweetie, it will, bring us good luck.

DAVID (GUY)

(ENTERS FROM STAGE RIGHT,

DRESSED IN TUXEDO, BOW TIE, TOP HAT)

I’m here! Good evening ladies. I have a dozen new ideas and some changes, and we have fifteen minutes to work it out.

(GIVES ALL THE GIRLS A HUG)

You know I’m kidding.

FANNIE

Our most illustrious Director!

DOTTIE

Our wonderful choreographer!

RITA

Our marvelous singer and dancer!

DAVID

It is shameful they way you praise me. Well, you all know I was lucky to get the part.

RITA

(LAUGH)

Yes, you picked yourself.

DAVID

I am old and a Renaissance Man. A modern day Leonardo da Vinci.

DAVID

(PATs RITA ON THE ASS)

Has your ass dropped a little. It seems a little less firm.

RITA

Considering that’s probably as close as you have come to having a sexual experience in the last two months---don't complain.

DAVID

Rita, you know me so well. Where do you find this much talent preserved in a well in a fifty year old man? And with a lifetime supply of Viagra, life will always be good.

Did you hear that Viagra makes your nails fall off.?

DAVID

(HOLDS HANDS OUT WITH FINGERS FOLDED IN)

I didn't think you would notice. Remember Rita, I told you that if you would sleep with me, I would give you some of the best songs.

RITA

Darling, if I slept with you, I would hate myself in the morning.

DAVID

Darling, we would both hate ourselves in the morning.

(APPROACHES FANNIE)

That footwork you have been working on is fine, Fannie. You'll do great.
I love you all and it's going to be in a great show. You gals put the work and sweat into it.

FANNIE

I know we can do it.

DAVID

Darling, when you love the theater all things are possible. Maybe we should say a prayer together.

DOTTIE

My God! A guy that hasn't been to church since the Spanish Inquisition and now he wants us to pray.

DAVID

Ok, how about a rabbit's foot? That has a kind of religious connotation.

(LOOKS UP AT CEILING)

Hey Sam, are you all set for the big show.

(STAGE GOES BLACK FOR LONG MOMENT, LIGHTS GO ON)

SAM (VOICE OVER)

Sorry David but I must have hit the wrong switch. I'll try to do better during the show.
Just keep in mind David, I have a lot of power and influence from where I sit.

DAVID

Yes, I understand. but let's get things going.

SAM (VOICE OVER)

David, you didn't say please.

DAVID

I'm the director. I don't have to say please.

SAM (VOICE OVER)

(STAGE GOES BLACK AGAIN, HESITATION,
I'm waiting,---David.

DAVID

Please.

SAM (VOICE OVER)

You have to say pretty please.

DAVID

Cut the crap, Sam. (HESITATES) OK! Pretty please!

SAM (VOICE OVER)

Now that we have established the pecking order I think we will have a great evening.

DAVID

I have a broom closet down the hall for a dressing room. I turned around and bruised my nose. Hey, that's show business.

DOTTIE

David, can I remind you that you don't appear almost the end of the first Act.

DAVID

Yes, it is a pity and a real burden on the audience.

FANNIE

David, I don't understand why after all of these years I still get nervous.

DAVID

(VERY DRAMATICALLY)

Just imagine there's an audience out there. It's opening night. You can feel the excitement
You can smell the excitement. Every seat is taken. The air is electric.
And all of us show biz people know.

(SINGS WITH NO MUSIC)

There's no business like show business
Like no business I know
Everything about it is appealing
Everything that traffic will allow

FANNIE

But it's hard to imagine the audience You can't see them you, you can't hear them.

DAVID

There's an audience out there. Sam put the lights on the audience.

(NO LIGHTS GO ON)
Sam, pretty! Please put the damn audience lights on.

LIGHTING (LIGHTS UP AUDIENCE)

DAVID
Just imagine there is a real audience out there. Just imagine that at the snap of a finger we can make them applaud before we even do anything.
(SNAPS HIS FINGER, BODY AND HAND LANGUAGE ENCOURAGES THE AUDIENCE TO APPLAUD)

AUDIENCE
(APPLAUDS)

DAVID
Use your imagination. Sam, start the music.`

FANNY
Break a leg.

DOTTIE
Break a leg.

RITA
Break a damn leg.

We're three old broads
Still bumping and grinding it
Show biz all the way

We're three old broads
We got our behind in it
We are here to say

We love the lights love rehearsin'

(Verse 2)

We're three old broads
With all the pizzazz in it
Just shaking our butt

We're three old broads
Just loving the jazz in it
As we hold in our gut

We love dancing / we love singing
While we're bucking /and were winging
We need a fling / so we're flinging

When the audience applauds
For these three old broads
Yes-- for these three old broads

(Verse 3)

We're three old BROADS
And when we strut our stuff
The temperature's hot

We're three old BROADS
There is no/ need to bluff
We know what we've got

We make magic when on the stage
We always know that for our age
We're gonna be a show biz rage

When the audience applauds
For these three old broads
Yes-- for these three old broads

When the audience applauds
For these three old broads
Yes-- for these/ three old broads

GIRLS

(Verse 4)

We're three old broads

Still dancin' and kickin' it

We got culture and class

We're three old broads

Three ladies slap stickin' it

With our boobs and our ass

We will shake it from head to toes

Like that lady sweet Gypsy Rose

We love to strut 1 and love to pose

When the audience applauds

For these three old broads

Yes-- for these three old broads

Yes—for these three old broads

One more time

For these three old broads

Yes---for these three old broads

Yes---for these three old broads

One more time

For---for these three of broads

ALL GIRLS

(HUMOROUS AND MOVE AROUND THE STAGE,
INTERACT WITH AUDIENCE,
TALK TO INDIVIDUALS IN THE AUDIENCE)

GIRL 1

We just love show business.

GIRL 2

Yes, show biz is our life.

GIRL 3

I just walk around all day singing

(SINGS)

GIRLS 2 AND GIRL 3

(INTERRUPT)

Cut it out. Ok that’s enough.

GIRL 1

I always wanted to be in show business.
When I was in second grade I wanted to be the princess in the school play.

(OVERLY DRAMATIC)

I ended up playing a chicken. (HESITATES) I cried for a week.

GIRL 3

You poor thing! You really got plucked.

GIRL 1

What did you say?

GIRL 2

Don’t go there. I said PLUCKED.

GIRL 2

I wanted to be Maria in West Side Story. But I was too blonde (HESITATES) and too tall for the leading man.

GIRL 3

You have never been a natural blond.

GIRL 2

When I was young I wanted to be a ballet dancer.

GIRL 1

What happened?

GIRL 3

I quit when I found out there were no speaking parts.

GIRL 2

You know show business has improved my sex life.

GIRL 3

Really!

GIRL 2

Yes, now I have sex four times a week.

GIRL 1

That's wonderful.

GIRL 2

I think it is too. I just hope my husband doesn't find out about it.

GIRL 2

The director really likes me. He asked me if I would be the mother of his children.

GIRL 2

What did you say?

GIRL 3

I asked him how many children does he have.

GIRL 1

Is it true the director got fresh with you during rehearsal?

GIRL 3

Let's put it this way. His hands should have had a search warrant.

GIRL 1

I just got a part in a play. I play the part of a lady who is a millionaire.

GIRL 2

How did you prepare for the part?

GIRL 1

The director gave me a hundred dollars in cash to carry around during rehearsals to get a feel for the part.

GIRL 2

I want you to know that a few weeks ago I gave the greatest performance of my life.

GIRL 3

Did the audience applaud?

GIRL 2

No, he just got out of bed and brushed his teeth.

GIRL 1

I saw you out the other night with a very very old man.

GIRL 3

Yes, he's old enough to be my father.

(HESITATION AND LAUGHS)

But he's rich enough to be my husband.

GIRL 2

Oh, it's one of those June and December affairs.

GIRL 3

Yes, darling, and he is DEFINITELY Christmas.

GIRL 1

Speaking of rich people, I told my best girlfriend about my rich old uncle.

GIRL 3

That was nice of you.

GIRL 1

Yes, now she's my rich young aunt. (HESITATES) Think about it!

GIRL 2

I recently performed in the theater and I really MOVED the audience.

GIRL 3

Yes, I heard about it, they all left after the first act

GIRL 1

My agent told me he would call me when a part for an older woman's came up. I reminded him I AM A YOUNG WOMAN. He said, don't worry. By the time he found a part for me I would be an OLD woman.

GIRL 2

To get a part in a play I once had to sleep with the producer, the director and the stage manager. After rehearsals started they all said that I was so bad in every part that they had to let me go.

GIRL 3

So they fired you?

GIRL 2

Well it wasn't that easy. It's the same old story. Before they would let me go; I had to sleep with all of them again. They wanted a second chance to be certain they made the right decision.

GIRL 3

Well, I was in a play and on opening night that audience started booing and heckling me every time I was on stage. So I just stepped forward on the stage and told them: "What the hell are you mad at me for, I didn't write this crap."

GIRL 2

I was looking at the beautiful bald guy back there

(POINTS TO A MAN, VERY DRAMATIC)

I just think that bald men are so hot. They give me goose bumps.

You can imagine what a bald man can do with his head that would---

Oh my goodness (HESITATE) if I say it I will get me in jail.

GIRL 2

What do you call lice on a bald man's head?

(HESITATES AND NO RESPONSE)

Homeless.

(HESITATES AND TO THE AUDIENCE) Think about it.

GIRL 3

What do you call a bunch of rabbits hopping backwards?

(HESITATES)

You call it a--- receding hare line.

(HESITATES)

Think about it, Folks. The jokes aren't going to get any better. A receding HARE line.

(TO The AUDIENCE) It's HARE like in rabbit. I'm not going to explain every joke.

GIRL 1

You have to remember it is an older audience.

GIRL 2

One of the best things about being bald is that when you are through having sex---

(HESITATES, PUTS HAND THROUGH HER HAIR)

you don't have to spend all of that time straightening out your hair.

Oh, you lucky guys.

GIRL 3

What did the bald man say when he got a comb for his birthday?

(HESITATES)

Thank you so much. I will never PART with it. (VERY AFTER LAST LINE) it.

Another one that you really have to listen and think about it.

GIRL 2

Now that's a bad joke.

GIRL 2

A man asked his doctor for a cure for baldness. The doctor suggested he spread pig manure all over his head. "Will that cure my baldness," the man asked. "Hell no, but nobody will be near enough to notice you are bald.)

(HESITATES AND TO THE AUDIENCE)

Come on now. The jokes all can't be great.

GIRL 3

A man goes to the barber with a beautiful crop of hair and says " I will give you ten thousand dollars if you make my hair look like yours."

(HESITATES)

So the barber shaved off all of his own hair and asked for the money.

GIRL 1

You know what they say about bald men.
If a man is bald in the front, he is a thinker.

GIRL 2

If he's bald in the back, he is sexy.

GIRL 3

And if he's bald in the front and the back--- he THINKS HE IS SEXY.

GIRL 1

I know a balding guy that said he was not getting bald--- he was just growing more head.

GIRL 2

(WALKS UP TO THE AUDIENCE)

If you are thinking about the double meaning of that ----don't go there. Dirty dirty dirty minds! Shame on all of you. Particularly the ladies.

GIRL 2

Yes those bald guys are really hot. Plus they don't have to worry about their scalp turning gray.

GIRL 3

You can see all of the ladies laughing. But deep down the ladies are thinking, as the men get THIN on the TOP, the ladies are getting FAT on the BOTTOM.

GIRL 2

Oh that's going to win you a lot of new friends in the audience.

GIRL 3

I don't want to ruin my reputation as a bitch.

GIRL 1

To all you lovely bald men in the audience, we love you.

GIRL 2

And thank you for letting us find the humor in our lives.

(THREE STOOLS ON THE STAGE)

GIRL 1

There really is no one in show business that does not have a dream. Often many dreams are pursued and sometimes in our dreams we are winners and other times not so. What a joy in pursuing the dream.

GIRL 2

Everyone has somebody that influenced them and made them dream.

GIRL 3

Everyone dreams of playing a part in their favorite movie or musical with their favorite co-star.

GIRL 2

Sometimes in our lives all of us have dreamed of being someone else, and maybe (POINTING TO THE AUDIENCE) some of you had such dreams too. Please share our dreams and we hope more than half your dreams come true.

SONG: MY LITTLE GIRL DREAM

(GIRL 1 TO CENTER STAGE)

(GIRL 2, GIRL 3 SIT ON STOOLS)

GIRL 1 (SINGS)

It was my little girl dream
I dreamed the dream
And I schemed my scheme

The time and place
Was very far
But I would chase
My shining star

Now here I am
Where the dream began
And I still give a damn

Yes I still give a damn

The dream will never part
My little girl dream
That lives inside my heart

I was Judy
I was Judy
I was Judy
In my little girl dreams

I went to Oz my enchanted land
I found my dream and my dream was grand
The Wicked witch would do her best
But I was helped and I was blessed
By the Wizard and my three great friends
I clicked my heels and my dream just ends

I was Judy
I was Judy
I was Judy
In my little girl dream

(GIRL 1 RETURNS TO HER STOOL)

(GIRL 2 GOES TO CENTER STAGE)

GIRL 2 (SINGS)

It was my little girl dream
I dreamed the dream
And I schemed my scheme

The time and place

My shining star

Now here I am
Where the dream began
And I still give a damn
Yes I still give a damn

That dream will never part
My little girl dream
That lives inside my heart.

I was Ginger
I was Ginger
I was Ginger
In my little girl dream

Fred Astaire in his top hat and tails
The steps Fred did I did on my heels
The movies were all black and white
But our movie lives were colored bright

Fred would get his girl so easily
And the girl he got was always me

I was Ginger
I was Ginger
I was Ginger
In my little girl dream

(GIRL 3 TO CENTER STAGE)

GIRL 3
It was my little girl dream

Where the dream began
And I still give a damn
Yes I still give a damn

That dream will never part
My little girl dream
That lives inside my heart.

I was Debbie
I was Debbie
I was Debbie
In my little girl dream

Gene Kelly and I just danced away
Through every rain and sunshine day
We danced in the sun and in the rain
Sun or rain it was just all the same
Gene sang his songs and got the girl
So I got Gene and all of his world

I was Debbie
I was Debbie
I was Debbie

(EXCERPT FROM "SINGIN' IN THE RAIN")

I'm singing in the rain
Just singing in the rain
What a glorious feelin'
I'm happy again
I'm laughing at clouds
So dark up above
The sun's in my heart
And I'm ready for love

Dah-dee-dah-do
Dah-dee-dah-dee-dah do
Dah-dah-dah-do
I'm singin' and dancin' in the rain

(SONG: IT'S A VERY PERFECT DAY TO LOVE YOU)

(Introduction)

I woke up this morning
With this new day dawning
I must wonder what this day will bring
There's a feelings deep inside
Joyful feelings i can't hide
There is a song i know that i must sing
So i shall sing this simple song
Here's what i shall say

(Chorus 1)

It's a very perfect day
To love you
Love puts feathers on my wings
So i can fly
The winds will sing your name
I hear music in the rain
You can make all my dreams come true
It's a very perfect day
To love you

(Verse)

My hopes are higher
My dreams are brighter
I shall aspire
This day will last for all our lives

There's no pretending
This day's not ending
Our love is blending
With this new day our love arrives
Please listen to what i say

(Chorus 2)

It's a very perfect day
To love you
I shall hope this day will last
For all my life
We shall stop the time
No reason and no rhyme
You will do the wonders that you do
It's a very perfect day
To love you

(Release)

There's perfection in a rose
And the setting of the sun
The perfection only grows
You are the perfect one

Each day's a perfect start
When you are in my day
You must live inside my heart
In my heart you will always stay

(Chorus 3)

It's a very perfect day
To love you
Your love shines inside your eyes
To warm my heart
Forever love will last
When this perfect day is past
We will find our days so bright and new
It's a very perfect day
To love you

(Finale )

La la la la la la la
It's a very perfect day

(Introduction verse)

There are no amorous romantics
I'm not pursuing any loving antics
But what I feel
I know is real
And true

But somehow I have chosen wisely
Now I know more than precisely
I feel this way
Just because I do

(Verse 1)

There is no moonlight
To entrance me
There are no soft lights
To romance me

There is no music
To delight me
And no rendezvous
To invite me

There are no new dreams
We are seeking
There are no bright stars
For lovers' keeping

No tender love poem
No love letter
And no promises
Of love forever

(Release )

And it's not spring time
No birds are singing
No bells are ringing
And the sky is all cloudy not blue
(Coda)

(Introduction Verse)

In my mirror in my heart in my life

The lady in the mirror

She lives she laughs she lies she loves

In the best of times

In the worst of times
If no one else in the world will care

She is there
She is here
She is near
She is dear
No matter what happens
She always will appear
The lady in the mirror

GIRL 1
(STANDS AND MOVES AROUND)
(Version 1)

I have lived all my life
With the lady in the mirror
She is always there with me
So close and dear to me
In my mirror I am near her
The lady in the mirror
The lady in the mirror

The face I see can use a touch
There's a wrinkle here and there
As so many years have passed
There are wrinkles every where

I can use a nip and tuck
And some Botox would assist
Sometimes the lines disappear
Others times they just resist

I have traveled near and far
But no matter where I go
The lady seems to find me
Where I am she seems to know
Where I am she seems to know

GIRL 2
(STANDS AND MOVES AROUND)
(Version 2)

I have lived all my life
With the lady in the mirror
She is always there with me
So close and dear to me

In my mirror I am near her
The lady in the mirror
The lady in the mirror

The face I see can use a touch
There's a wrinkle here and there
As so many years have passed
There are wrinkles every where

I can use a nip and tuck
And some Botox would assist
Sometimes the lines disappear
Others times they just resist

I have traveled near and far
But no matter where i go
The lady seems to find me
Where I am she seems to know
Where I am she seems to know

GIRL 3

(STANDS AND MOVES AROUND)
(Version 3)

I have lived all my life
With the lady in the mirror
She is always there with me
So close and dear to me
In my mirror I am near her
The lady in the mirror
The lady in the mirror

Times I did not recognize
The person I was seeing
The person that once was me
Would be a separate being

Sometimes we were not talking
For some unspoken anger
And we spoke but did not hear
Like talking to a stranger

We've often cried together
Shared many a tear or two
Replaced the tears with a smile

So our day was bright and new

So our day was bright and new

GIRL 1

(Release 1)

What does the lady in the mirror say

So precisely

Sometimes wisely

Very nicely

What does the lady in the mirror want

To be adored

Not be ignored

To be a broad

GIRL 2

(Release 2)

What does the lady in the mirror think

She's really tried

Won't be denied

Love is her guide

What does the lady in the mirror dream

Let's pick the vine

Let's make the wine

Our sun will shine

GIRL 3

(Release 3)

What does the lady in the mirror do

She will persist

She must resist

She has been blissed

What does the lady in the mirror hope

Her hopes we share

Be always there

To love and care

(STANDING TOGETHER)

(Finale)

I have lived all my life

With the lady in the mirror

She is always there with me

So close and dear to me

In my mirror I am near her

The lady in the mirror
I can say what is true
I am me and she is she
I will be what i must be

I really loved a lovely guy named Baarry
And with his love I always had been blissed
And then I met his very best friend Cary
Who stole my heart and now Barry's really pissed

Then I married a sweetheart guy named Gary
Without a divorce I became a bigamist
Then fell in love head over heels with Harry
I thought his love was really such a gift

One lovely day I met this guy named Larry
Our love was great till the day we had a rift
There are no other names that rhyme with Barry Cary Gary Harry Larry
There's no name to rhyme and so I have made a shift

So now I've found a life
My life is filled with spice
And I have rolled the dice
And found a brand new vice
'Cause now I have a Rhyming Wife

(LIGHTS UP)

MUSIC

(INTRODUCTION VAMP TO "WHAT'S IN A NAME")

GIRLS (SING)

(Chorus 1)

What's in a name
What's in a name
If your name were different
Would you be the same
Whether you're a lady
Or you are a dame
Depends on what your name is
If you play the game
So I have to ask you
What's in a name
I really have to ask you
What's in a name

GIRL 1

(Verse 1)

If your name was Crystal
Would your heart be made of glass
If your name was Porsche
I could fill you up with gas
If your name was Flora
We could make love on the grass
If your name was Fanny
Would you have a bigger ass

GIRL 2

(Verse 2)

If your name was Scarlett
You would be in love with Rhett
If your name was Kitty
You'd make a lovely pet
If your name was Ruby
In a ring I'd have you set
If your name was Carmen
You'd be an opera at the Met

GIRL 3

(Verse 3)

If your name was Penny
Ten Pennies can make a dime
If your name was Sunny
Then the sun would always shine
If your name was Sherry
Would you drink a lot of wine
If your name was Macy
I could shop you all the time

GIRLS

(Chorus 2)

What's in a name
What's in a name
If your name were different
Would you be the same
Whether you're a lady
Or you are a dame
Depends on what your name is
If you play the game
So I have to ask you
What's in a name
I really have to ask you
What's in a name

GIRL 1

(Verse 4)

If your name was Sandy
You'd make love/ on any beach
If your name was Honey
You'd be sweet just like a peach
If your name was Gabby
You could nag and yell and screech
If your name was Angel
Would you really preach and preach

GIRL 2

(Verse 5)

If your name was April
Would springtime be forever
If your name was Stormy

You'd bring us lousy weather
If your name was Lucky
You'd make a better bettor
If your name was Lassie
We'd make love in the heather

GIRLS

If your name was Busty
Would you flaunt your bigger breasts
If your name was Cuddles
Would you give a great caress
If your name was Barbie
Would Ken love you any less
If your name was Tempest
Would your life just be a mess

(Verse 7)
If your name was Piper

GIRL 1

(Chorus 1)
I'm an ordinary girl
Not extraordinary girl
I'm simple and quaint
Exotic I ain't
I'm an ordinary girl

I'm an ordinary girl
Just a sedentary girl
I'm sweet and pristine
And never obscene
I'm an ordinary girl

GIRL 1
(Verse 1)
I just love diamonds and things
And stones set into rings
And rubies are a thing I adore

I think it's really a gas
When you're flying first class
To Bombay or Singapore

The moment I think of
My latest greatest love
No longer plunges my plunger

I just put in an order
Somewhere south of the border
Import someone ten years younger

I like raising hell
But you know you can tell

I'm an ordinary girl
Not extraordinary girl

I'm an ordinary girl

GIRL 1

(MOVES FROM CENTER STAGE TO STOOLS)

GIRL 2

(STANDS AND GOES TO CENTER STAGE)

(Chorus 2)

I'm an ordinary girl
Not extraordinary girl

I'm very demure

A virgin and pure

I'm just an ordinary girl

I'm an ordinary girl
Just an elementary girl

A treat and a joy

I'm an ordinary girl

(Verse 2)

I like to stay at the Ritz

I just love all the glitz

Dressed in Versace or Dior

When getting drunk on vermouth

Acting slightly uncouth

All my friends will just ignore

I'll show you just what I got

On an eighty foot yacht

Sailing the Caribbean seas

And like any other girl

I'll always promise the world

I'll damned well do what I please

I am at my peak

But I must repeat

I'm an ordinary girl
Just an elementary girl
I'm an ordinary girl

GIRL 2

(MOVES FROM CENTER STAGE TO STOOLS)

GIRL 3

(MOVES TO CENTERS CENTER STAGE)

(Chorus 3)

I'm an ordinary girl
Not extraordinary girl

I'm very petite

Unusually sweet
I'm an ordinary girl

I'm an ordinary girl
Just a sedentary girl

So pleasant and nice

I don't have a vice
I'm an ordinary girl

(Verse 3)

When I am playing roulette

I just don't care what I bet

'Cause money was meant to be spent

And I'm crazy about sex

With any Tom or a Tex

As long as they're paying the rent

I love to swim in the nude

And I've been known to be rude

To anyone not in my class

I often flaunt what I got

I can be sexy and hot

Shake up people and shake my ass

I'm known to have grit
But you must admit

I'm an ordinary girl
Just a sedentary girl
I'm an ordinary girl

(HOUSE LIGHTS ON)

GUY

(TALKS TO THE AUDIENCE)

I don't know if you know, but putting me into this show was an afterthought. I get no respect. Please pick up your program. Please take a minute. I've got time so look at your program. Look closely. Have you noticed on the title page of the program that it says in (RAISES VOICE) very large print- THREE OLD BROADS IN LARGE PRINT!

(DEPICTS WITH HIS FINGERS)

Then in tiny tiny tiny print it says---

(WHISPERS)

"And An Occasional Guy." Which is about the size of a flea's butt. That's me. I am the occasional guy. Doesn't it kind of cheapen my appearance for the one big number I have--there is a mess up on my scene. It mocks me. And I despise being mocked.

GUY

(QUESTIONS THE AUDIENCE, ENCOURAGES A RESPONSE)

Can you honestly say that I look like an occasional guy? Do I look like I'm easy? Remember what you're mothers told you: If you have nothing nice to say, then say nothing.

(LOOKS UP AT THE BOOTH)

Hey, Darth Vader there is no intermission. I'm going on. Really! I am going to do the whole scene. The act I am going to do started out as a brief intermission for a costume change for the Three Old Broads--(HESITATION). Who am I to be bitching about those----

(LOOKING AROUND)

Three Old Broad.

(LEANS OVER TO THE AUDIENCE)

Can you keep a secret? Well, can you?

(PROMPTING FOR SOME APPLAUSE)

The Three Old Broads all are really special---but a little spoiled. Let me tell you a little about them. Can they hear me?

For the Three Broads, their idea of cooking dinner is calling for reservations at a restaurant.

One of them, I can't tell you which one---thinks she's a nymphomaniac---because she has sex every other month. Please don't tell them you heard it from me.

The last time one of them cleaned house she found her high school graduation picture. It was on the kitchen table.

One of them called me the other night and asked me to come over to her house because nobody was home. I went there and she was right---there was nobody was home.

You know the difference between having sex with one of them and a boiled egg. At least for the boiled egg--- it takes three minutes.

One of them called me over the other night and said her bedroom had mirrors on the walls and mirrors on the ceiling and mirrors on the floors. She said bring a bottle and come over. So I went over and bought a BOTTLE of Windex and I did all the mirrors.

One of them called me the other night and said she just finished dinner and asked if I wanted to come over. I said sure, I guess for a little romancing. She said no--- just to do the dishes and a load of wash.

I asked where the bathroom was for my dressing room, and I was told to go out of my dressing room door and make a right and walk five minutes.

(HESITATION)

I walked two blocks to the nearest Seven Eleven store for a bathroom.

I asked one of the ladies what acts my number would be in. She said the third act. I said, there are only two acts in the musical. She said, all you do is BITCH BITCH BITCH.

(LOOKS UP TO THE BOOTH)

Hey, Sam --give me a little vamp music.

SAM (VOICE OVER)

Here it comes.

MUSIC

(VAMP FOR "THREE OLD BROADS AND A GUY")

GUY

A little louder. Now that is the way I want the vamp when I come on stage. .

MUSIC (LOWERS)

GUY

(LOOKS UP AT THE BOOTH)

Hey, Sam what's with the lights?

SAM (VOICE OVER)

What do you need?

GUY

When I come out--- how about lighting that backstage area.

LIGHTS

(BACKSTAGE AREA IS LIGHTED)

GUY

Give me some spotlights and lighting on the side stage

LIGHTS

(SPOTLIGHTS AND SIDE LIGHTING)

GUY

Great! Now give me some fog. It adds a little mystique to the entrance.

PROP MAN

BLOWS PUFF OF SMOKE IN HIS FACE FROM A CIGARETTE AND EXITS)

GUY

I hope you're not inhaling when you do that. Sam, that's not much fog.

SAM (VOICE OVER)

You do your shtick and I'll do my shtick. We're operating on a tight budget.

GUY

(TALKS TO THE AUDIENCE)

Look! I'm going to go backstage and make an entrance. The vamp music is going to start. The backstage will light up and the spotlights will go on. Then I'll make my grand entrance.

Now I hate to beg for attention and adulation----but I will if I have to. It would be great if as I enter the stage, the audience would SPONTANEOUSLY AND ENTHUSIASTICALLY AND SINCERELY GIVE ME A STANDING OVATION. It will bring tears to my eyes and from the bottom of my heart I will thank you.

It will give those Three Old BROADS the idea that I'm important instead of that old ME ME ME stuff they give me.

(MOVES OFF TO STAGE AND QUICKLY RETURNS)

Remember, it has to be SPONTANEOUS AND ENTHUSIASTIC---- and most of all from the heart.

(POINTS TO A MAN IN THE AUDIENCE)

If you are confused, then please have your wife explain it to you.

(EXITS STAGE LEFT)

LIGHTS

(FADE TO DARK, LIGHTS UP)

One more time--
We're not getting old we're getting better

With a nip and tuck to keep it in place
Really looking good is our endeavor

And looking like this ain't easy to do

SONG: I'LL SING MY LAST SONG

(LIGHTS UP)

(DRESSING ROOM)

(GIRLS STAND AROUND DRESSING TABLES)

GIRL1

Sometimes I wonder if the next show we are in and the last scene in the last act will be the last time we perform.

GIRL 2

Darling, we still have a lot of mileage to go.

GIRL 3

But, how do we know how much gas is still in the tank.

GIRL 1

I'm going to sing my last song at my funeral.

GIRL 2

Oh that is an engaging idea. And how are you going to do that.

GIRL 1

They can play a recording of Me singing. And after everybody applauds I will have an encore and have them play again.

GIRL 2

I don't want to know when I sing my last song. It would be a bad premonition. I hope I'm in bed. (HESITATES) With somebody I really care about. (HESITATES) And joins me five minutes later.

GIRL 2

I think we will never have to sing our last song.

(GIRLS MOVE TO CENTER STAGE)

SONG; I'LL SING MY LAST SONG

I'll sing my last song

But not today

My dreams are still big

I need to sing one more gig

There's one final thing I'll say

I'll sing my last song

But not today

As long as I breathe

One more song's what i need

I'll sing my last song

I'll sing my song

My way

GIRL 1

You're a brand new audience

Not my last and not my first

I will sing my songs for you

Give you everything I'm worth

SONG THREE OLD BROADS FINALE

(LIGHTS UP)

(GIRLS PASS THROUGH CURTAIN )

ALL GIRLS
(FRONT STAGE,
(INTERACT WITH AUDIENCE)

GIRL2
I hope you don't lie about your age. I am going to be 21 forever—and ever-and ever.

GIRL 1
No, I don't. I just tell everyone I'm the same age as my husband
(HESITATES)
and then I lie about his age.

GIRL 2
I stopped having birthdays. In fact this year is the tenth anniversary of my last birthday.

GIRL 1
Old age is ten years from now, and ten years from now it will be ten years from then —and ten from now --- oh forget it.

GIRL 2
(INTERRUPTS)
I get it, I get it.

GIRL 3
(POINTS TO SOMEONE IN AUDIENCE))
See that guy over in the corner. He's going through his second childhood--- so he's having braces put on his dentures.

GIRL 1
Did you know---there's a girl in this town having sex every five minutes.

GIRL 2
Go find her (HEITATES) she must be exhausted.

GIRL1
Did you hear about the old guy who said he is eighty five and he can't pee anymore?

GIRL 2

That's OK. If he's eight five---he's peed enough.

GIRL 3

This is the kind of crowd that thinks an early bird dinner-----is lunch.

GIRL 1

I noticed that guy in the front row has had his fingers crossed for the entire performance. I guess it's his way of hoping that we would have good luck and have a good show.

GIRL 2

No--he's got arthritis in his hands.

GIRL 3

You think we're old. There are people in the audience with dentures older than us.

GIRL 1

I was talking to a guy in the audience who is 85 years old and he's getting married next week to a 25 year old girl. I told him the sex alone could end in death. He said---the hell with her, if she dies, she dies.

GIRL 2

You have to watch for the O-U-T or OUT problem

GIRL 3

What is the OUT problem?

GIRL 1

It may be true that life begins at fifty. But have you noticed at fifty everything starts to wear OUT or fall OUT or spread OUT.

GIRL 2

There are three signs of old age. The first is your loss of memory.

(HESITATES)

GIRL 3

(INTERRUPTS)

Well what are the other two?

GIRL 1

(HESITATES)

I forget the other two.

GIRL2

You're getting old when you don't care where your husband goes--- just as long as you don't have to be with him. (HESITATES) The ladies understand that one.

GIRL 3

Middle age is when work is a lot less fun and fun is a lot more work.

GIRL 1

Statistics show that at past the age of sixty, there are five women to every man.
My God---- isn't that wonderful for a guy to get those odds?

(TALKS TO MAN IN THE AUDIENCE)

Would you men even know what to do with five women?

(HESITATES, STARES, POINTS TO A MAN)

I know, you're thinking, you're thinking--- you dirty dirty dirty dirty old man.

GIRL 3

By the time a woman is smart enough to know how to find the right man--- she's too damned old to find the right man.

GIRL 2

Well---it's been a wonderful night and the audience is still awake.

GIRL 1

How do we ever thank these lovely people ---for being here---for your applause---- for pretending they don't mind the old age jokes?

GIRL 2

For those lovely sexy hot bald guys not minding all of the bald jokes---we applaud you. And we love you.

(GIRLS APPLAUD)

(SONG: THREE OLD BROADS VAMP BEGINS)

GIRL 1

We are just three old broads who love being on this stage.

GIRL 2

We loved and enjoyed every minute for the opportunity to entertain you.

GIRL 3

We hope the music and the words and the funny stuff brought you some joy.

GIRL 1

Please add our songs and joy in entertaining----- you to the soundtrack of your life.

GIRL 2

And we thank you and we applaud you for your applause and your warmth and the love we feel from this wonderful audience.
