

Services and Solutions to meet today's challenges.

Who we are and what we offer:

Crawford and Associates, LLC is a full service emergency management consulting firm that works with all levels of government, corporate, nuclear and utility providers. We are backed by Certified Emergency Managers, Master Exercise Practitioners and Certified WebEOC® Administrators offering a full-range of services, including planning, exercises, EOC/Command Center assessments and facility design and web-based crisis management solution services.

Our team of consultants, technical experts, planners and project managers have many years of Emergency Management experience at the local, state and federal level. This experience includes planning, training, exercising and responding to real world events such as the Boston Marathon Bombings in 2013 and more recently being heavily involved in the response to the COVID-19 Pandemic.
