

Jack Fearing, CPEA

2019 NJ ASSP Safety Professional of the Year Award!

(left to right; Joe Schwed and Louise Vallee, Past Presidents, Jack Fearing, and Rob Ortiz, current Chapter President)

Jack Fearing, CPEA, a professional member of the New Jersey ASSP Chapter since 1983, and high level contributor, was awarded the 2019 NJ ASSP Safety Professional of the Year (SPY) Award at the Chapter Holiday Party on December 4th at Maggiano's in Bridgewater. Jack has had key roles in Chapter PDCs, monthly meetings, Chapter Webinars, Newsletter contributions, Toys for Tots, Treats for Troops, and the OSHA 10 hour General Industry course. All of these contributions have helped to increase membership, meeting attendance, and overall impact. This is Jack's third ASSP SPY award including the International Practice Specialty (IPS) in 2006 and the ASSP Council of Practices & Standards (CoPS) in 2007.

Congratulations and sincere thanks Jack!